MESSAGE FROM THE BISHOP

Malaysia and the Multi-racial Society — Do They Belong Together?

The world had expected this experiment in racial harmony to exist and develop in our country. Recent troubles have blurred the image of a happy and peaceful Malaysia. It must be generally appreciated that we cannot afford the luxury to indulge in communal strife. The stakes are high. Survival of the nation itself depends upon our capacity to live with one another in the spirit of brotherhood.

Schools have a significant responsibility to promote peace and harmony. Our educational institutions should provide the environment for the blending of all races and cultures. Within the process of development, attitudes are formed, values are enshrined, and commitments are made for the rise and fall of a nation. We cannot emphasize enough the need for integration within our schools so that each school has adequate representatives from each race and culture that make up this land of Malaysia.

Students study, play and live with one another in the context of the school. Mutual understanding is being promoted and they begin to appreciate each other as a human person with a common destiny. Human needs are to be considered across racial lines. Students are to be guided to value human life and to honour human aspirations. They must sense the obligation to serve those who are socially ostracized, politically oppressed and economically depressed. No nation can remain secure and stable unless each citizen is provided with necessities of life and opportunities for work.

In the days ahead, we trust that we will respect racial sensitivities and as teachers, parents and pupils we will labour for a nation where peace and harmony prevail.

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN,

BOARD OF GOVERNORS

Every year, pupils leave school to begin a new phase of life in the outside world. My hope is that when you leave, you will do so with the satisfaction that you have participated fully in, and reaped the maximum benefits offered by your education in school, so that you may stand fully armed to weather successfully the challenges that will come your way.

In the classroom, there is much knowledge to be garnered, and, more important still, a stimulus acquired for an unceasing war against ignorance. There is ample opportunity, at work and at play, for the forging of strong and pleasurable friendships. There is a wealth of enjoyment and benefit from active participation in the sports field and in extra-curricular activities. Here also, you are laying the foundation of your character and what you will be when you emerge as a man.

Finally, at this time of racial tensions, my hope is that you will pave the foundation of your character and what you will be when you emerge as a man. way to multi-racial solidarity and harmony so vital to the well-being and prosperity of our country through close association with and eventual appreciation and understanding of the varied outlooks and way of life of others in school.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

I wish to thank the members of the Editorial Committee and their Advisers for their effort in producing this year's magazine. Nobody can deny that their job is arduous and unenviable, but theirs is the satisfaction of having done a good job when the magazine comes out of the press.

It is my fervent hope that all pupils will read the magazine with avid interest. Therefore a few words of advice to them will not be amiss here.

One should always keep in mind that it is what each pupil does for himself, not what others, his teachers or parents, do for him which is important. Every pupil should study hard while at school and should not formulate habits that are harmful to his health. He must be loyal to the country and learn to grow up to be a useful citizen.

What are the qualities that produce good, intelligent citizens? Bishop Raymond L. Archer, in a message to us some years back, has suggested the following : —

First. A true appreciation of freedom. Too many people are inclined to to think that freedom is licence: the right to do as one pleases. True freedom requires that one should recognize the freedom of the other man as equal to his own. The best way for me to be assured of my rights is to make sure that my neighbour gets the full advantage of his rights.

Second. A good citizen must acquaint himself with the moral and political issues that are current in his country.

Third. A good citizen must develop personal convictions regarding moral and political issues, especially as they affect the spiritual life of the people and not only as they affect the economic life of the people. If our people become morally and spiritually bankrupt, the economy of the country cannot remain strong. In other words, each citizen must recognize himself as a living block in the citadel of democracy. You have the power to make your government strong, or you can contribute to its downfall. Which shall it be ?

Fourth. Another desirable quality in a good citizen is the willingness and ability to give more than he receives. In certain countries where the rainfall is slight, irrigation projects are built in order to furnish water for the dry desert land, and thus make it productive. In order to accomplish this, streams are dammed up and reservoirs are built. If the purpose of such construction were simply to store up water, they would not be worth building. Their value is in the fact that they can supply water to the dry land when needed. You are now in process of training, getting your reservoirs filled with knowledge and skill. For what purpose ? Certainly it is not enough for us to say that we want to have the self-satisfaction of being well filled. If you want to know the real joy of life, you must be prepared to give to others of your service, your strength and have a purpose in life which will challenge others.

Fifth. Strive for the highest ideals of life. A lawyer once asked Jesus. "What is the greatest commandment?" Jesus replied, "Thou shall love the Lord, thy God. With all thy heart, mind, soul and strength, and thy neighbour as thyself." The proof of our loyalty to God is revealed in the way we treat our neighbours. A good citizen must therefore, be a good neighbour and help to build the world into a good neighbourhood.

KWONG SEA KHOON,
Principal.

MESSAGE FROM THE SCHOOL CAPTAIN, 1969,

MASTER KOK KAH HOCK

Every year the fifth-formers leave this school, having completed their education here. Problems, I believe, will challenge them when they find themselves facing life alone; and the very solutions of these problems would decide their future. Having been a student here for nearly eleven years, I have learned to respect and love this school, its staff and students, its very precinct-in-fact everything connected with it. And now, as I pause to think, the thought that this is to be my last year here makes me very sad. The time of departure may also come as a bolt from the blue to many fifth-formers there they were, chatting, joking, at one moment and then, suddenly, before they could realise it, they are out in the world all alone, grappling with unprecedented problems (unprecedented at least as far as they are concerned).

We are much more fortunate than many other schools in that we enjoy the availability of sufficient facilities for laboratory and sports use. The teachers who have been here for long enough would, I am sure, have noticed the great strides in advancement our school has taken. We as students should be produd of this achievement.

In conclusion I would like to say — let us all strive to keep up the good name of this school as long as we are here; and when we leave let us all not forget that we are still linked to our Alma Mater as a part of her history, and as such can claim to have a part in all her laudable achievements of yesterday, today and tomorrow.

Good-bye.

KOH KAH HOCK,
School Captain.

EDITORIAL

1969 is nigh to an end and yet another year filled with memorable events is about to pass; Man has already set foot on the moon but as yet he has not been able to settle the down-to-earth problems concerning discontent amongst his own kind: riots and rampages, wars and wanton acts — Man against Man. It has long been established that co-operation is the stepping-stone to success, for the individual man by himself can make no progress, but evidently this bridge to achievement has already been severed during the past few years.

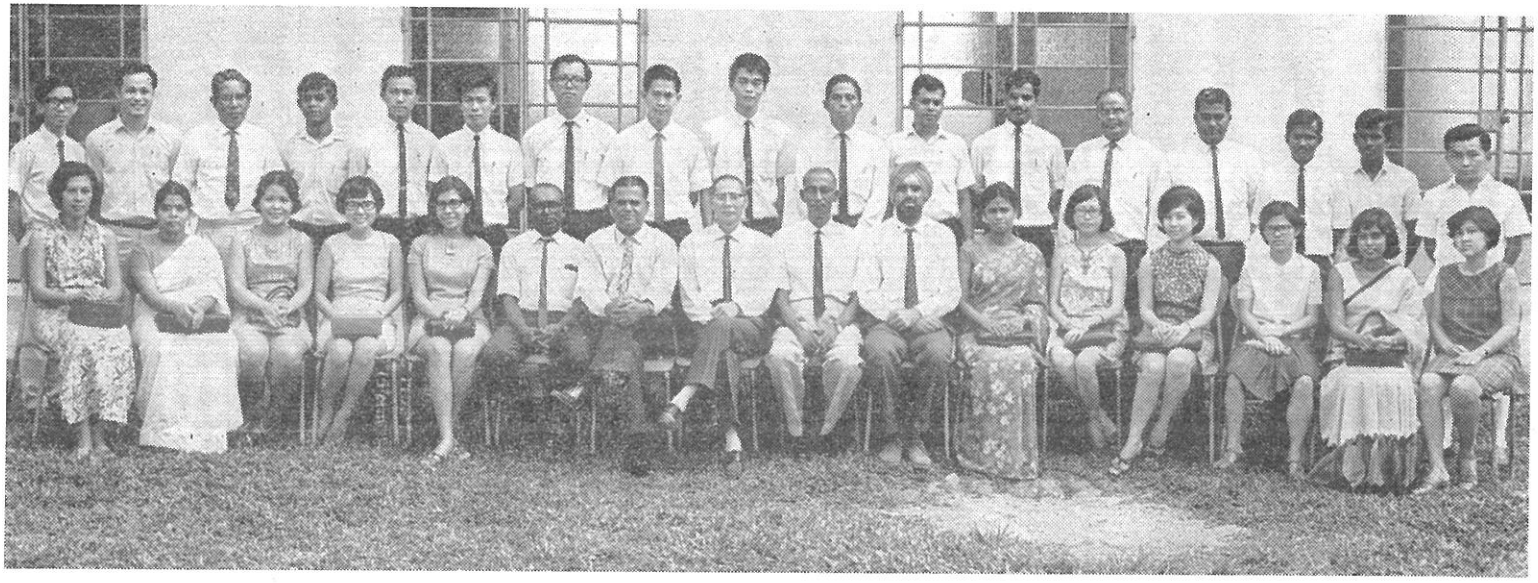

Nearly every aspect of human life has been affected, directly or indirectly, by the events of today and the school is no exception. We in Malaysia may find it hard to realise, but judging by the present campus situations in the Western countries (and even a few Eastern ones), the schools there have not made the grade in fostering better relationship amongst mankind. It may be that these preceptors of the future citizens are guilty of neglecting their students, or again, it could be because of the claimed presence of inflammatory Communist elements. But whatever the reason, these activities did not just happen but were created, and Man has got himself to blame for their creation.

With the world overcome by the anathema of discontent, the recent racial conflict in Malaysia could perhaps be taken as a contemporary event. But while the others are still in the grips of this scourge (that is, discontent), Malaysia has been able to make a quick recovery. This certainly points out Malaysia's love for peace and his feeling of brotherhood towards his fellow countryman, whatever the other's race, and that this trait of his has not suffered in any way during the mishap.

In ten short years we have been thrown from the Machine Age through the Atomic Age and into the Space Age. Never before has mankind seen so much progress in so short a time. But, beneath the glory of achievement, the Space Age also carries with it the imminent danger which threatens to annihilate mankind from the face of the earth. We have come to such a stage that our very existence here could be wiped out by the mere pressing of a button triggering off a nuclear war.

With mankind at the crossroads — one path leading towards a bright new world of tomorrow full of exciting and promising prospects and the other taking us to the day of our total destruction from earth — it might be well to ask: Has Man's progress reached its climax? After the conquest of Space, what then? Only time can answer these queries for it is hard to say what the future holds in these unpredictable times. So, for the present, let us occupy ourselves by trying to seek out the answers to the problems of this Twentieth Century of ours.

THE INSTALLATION OF PERFECTS, 1969

The Annual Installation of Prefects took place in the School Hall on the twenty-first of February, 1969. The pupils of Forms Three, Four and Five including a few members of the staff were present to witness this occasion.

At seven-forty a.m., the boys rose to sing the opening hymn "Brightly Beams our Father's Mercy." They were then led in prayer by Rev. Chin San Seong.

The Principal, Mr. Kwong Sea Khoon, took the stage to deliver a brief talk on the history of the School and concluded by giving a few words of advice to the boys, urging them to work harder and to strive for better results in the examination as well as on the field. The Principal was followed by Mr. Chan Weng Chiu, President of the Old Boy's Association, M.B.S., Sentul, who gave a short account of the school during its initial stages and called upon the boys to regard their school with honour and reverence.

The Prefects, led by the School Captain then stood up to take the oath, thus announcing the beginning of the momentous item for the day, namely, the Installation of the Junior Prefects. As the newly-elected Prefects marched past the stage each was garlanded by Mr. Can Weng Chiu with a ribbon which had a Prefect's Badge pinned on to it.

The former School Captain, M. Vivekanandar, then gave a speech, in which he talked about his experiences and the various problems he had faced as a School Captain.

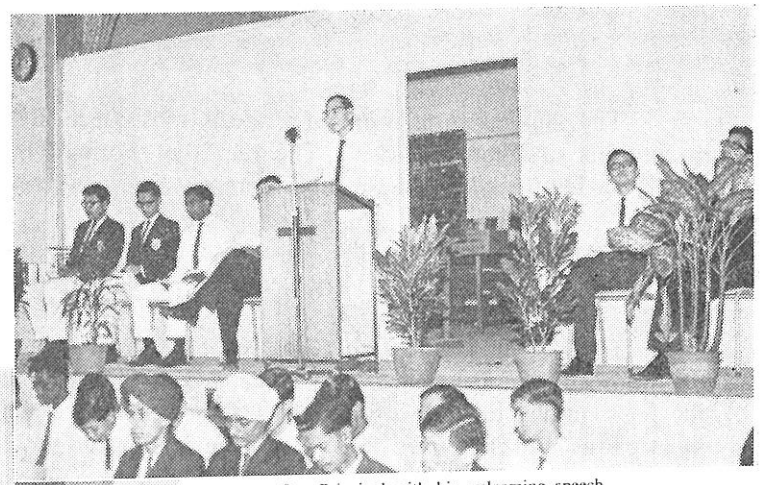

As the former Captain stepped down, Master Koh Kah Hock came forward to receive the Peach Scholarship (awarded annually to the boy with the best overall achievement in the Lower Certificate Examination) for 1968. Master Chan Kiat Yeong, Peach Scholar for 1969, followed suit to receive his award.

With the ceremony coming to an end, the School Captain, Master Koh Kah Hock, came forward to deliver his account on the behaviour of the boys and the various duties of the Prefects.

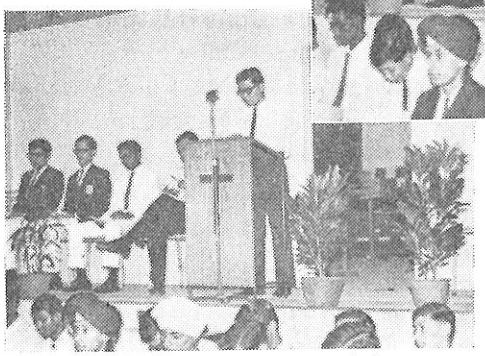

The closing hymn "I Would Be True" brought the ceremony to an end at eight-thirty a.m.

MANJIT SINGH,
Secretary,
Prefects Board.

THE INSTALLATION OF PREFECTS, 1969

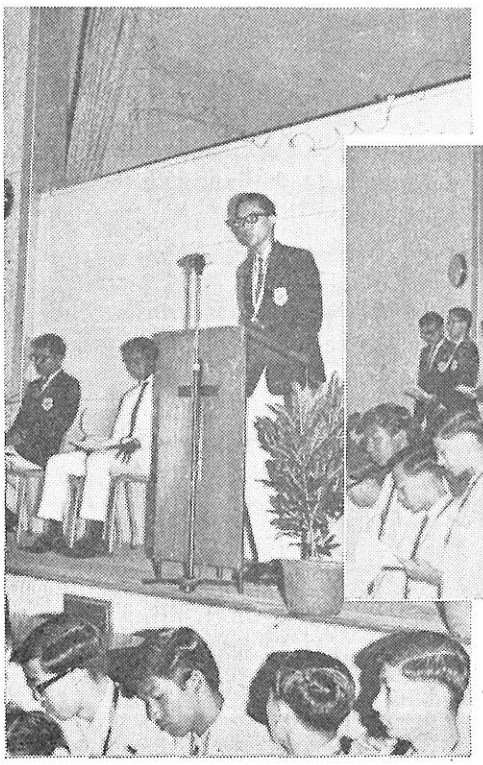

Our Principal with his welcoming speech.

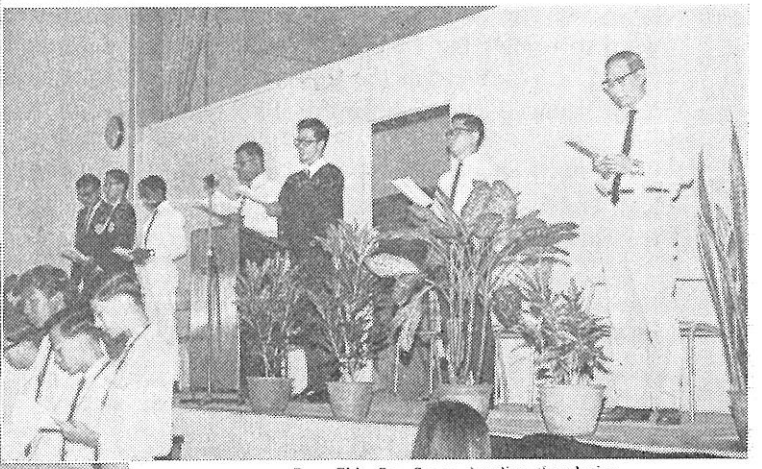

Mr. Chan Weng Chiu, President of the O.B.A., delivers his speech.

The Prefects take their oath.

Rev. Chin San Seong, heading the closing hymn.

The School Captain speaks — "It is not a matter of falling, but rising every time we fall."

ADDRESS BY MR. CHAN WENG CHIU,

Chapel Service & Installation Ceremony of Perfects.

Whenever I have the opportunity to address the School, I have a great feeling of pride that I am able to speak to a group of students who now belong to a School that has grown up. I belonged to the first batch of students in a class of 30 small boys in the back room of the Methodist Tamil Church in 1936 exactly 33 years ago. So you see many Old Boys have grown up and are growing old. It has been a long time. My first teacher was Mr. William Dudley. I remember him. Many Old Boys of this School remember him.

The founder of this School was the late Rev. P. L. Peach who was loved and respected by many Old Teachers and Old Boys. Rev. Peach has been called Home to the Lord to eternal rest. Through his foresight and God's guidance he founded this School many years ago to benefit thousands of boys in this community. Do you ever give a thought to the one who made this possible? Do you give some thought to God's tender mercies? Do you know that you are a Child of God or do you just say that you are entitled to all your needs, your education in this School and the good life which you are looking forward to in the future.

God is merciful! He is the Heavenly Father who provides. His mercies gleam before us as the words of the hymn which we have just sung, so clearly describes and enlightens us. There is a God and that is one thing each and everyone of us must recognise. He loves each and everyone of us because we are His creation and it is not His desire that we should be lost in this wicked world.

We have often heard Bible Stories of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. We celebrate Christmas, the festive season to commemorate the birth of Christ. But why was He born? Why did God send His Son into the world? The answer is simple. Because God loves us! In the Gospel of St. John Chapter 3 and Verse 16, we read "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlisting life." This everlisating life is in Heaven in the company of God's Children.

Jesus came into the world to save sinners, for all have sinned says the Bible and come short of the Glory of God! Can anyone of us say that we have no sin?

We are all sinners in the eyes of God but God has a plan for redemption. He sent His Son the Lord Jesus Christ to the world to save us from our sins, for the Bible says, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved." He died on the Cross at Calvary and by His death, He bore the sins of all those who believe on Him. The message is simple, only believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, just like a Child. Jesus is the way for Jesus has said, "I am the way, the truth and the Life, no man cometh unto the Father but my me." For there is one God and one mediator between God and men!

Do you believe that Christ alone can bring you back to God or do you believe in many Gods? The Bible says, "For there is one God and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus."

If you will accept Christ as your personal Saviour with child-like faith, you will be His Child, old things will turn away and all things will become new. You will begin to grow and live the kind of life that Christ has taught us.

You will then be able to appreciate God's mercies. You will develop a healthy life in mind and body with God's guidance. You will then appreciate how precious these few years in School will mean to you. To build up your mind and body, to build up your character and intellect, to equip you for the life ahead, to be of service to your fellow men and to be useful citizens to your country. That will be the greatest reward which you will receive. You will be an example to many people.

Today is a very important day to those Prefects who have been chosen to be an example to all the students. They will be installed as Prefects of the School and by their example, character and leadership, I trust will be a source of pride to all of you here. You must respect and obey them because you have made your choice.

The Peach Scholar for 1969 whose name will be announced today, has been chosen as one whose achievement is second to none in the L.C.E. examination and being a Peach Scholar, shall enjoy the distinction and prestige of being the top boy in his time and we trust will be an inspiration to many students in the School.

We can be very proud of this School. In a small way it has grown, and from it, has emerged many Scholars in high academic fields. We have many who have become Ph. D's., many doctors of medicine, arts and science graduates, educationists, engineers, accountants as well as many in all professions. We are proud of such achievements and you too must be proud and grateful for the education which will prepare you for the future. Remember the School when you leave and remember the teachers who taught you.

May God bless each and everyone of you that you may be a shining example in Life.

The 21st day of February 1969, marked the day on which we prefects were officially installed by the President of the Old Boys' Association Mr. Chan Weng Chiu. The twenty-five prefects, 15 from Form Five and 10 from Form Four, under the guidance of our Principal and Master-in-Charge Mr. Zachariah, began our year long duties to achieve our aim in maintaining discipline and fostering better relations with the students, the Staff and the Principal. Our jurisdiction ranges from the Form I's to the Form V's.

The first meeting of the Board was held on 28th October 1968. Meetings of the Board were held every fortnight but occasionally, emergency meetings were held on other school days. Discussions were mainly on disciplinary problems and how to solve them efficiently. Uniform operations were launched regularly to check the pupils.

The Board showed the initiative in introducing many innovations. The wearing of white shoes and socks was strictly enforced. Absent were the stampedes at the sound of the last bell. Instead the pupils queued up and marched smartly out of school. The existing rules were also made more effective.

Prefects have manifold duties to perform in the morning and during the interval. They also help to maintain discipline among the pupils during Assembly and at important school functions. Our duties are not confined to the school only. We have been called to assist at many public functions.

The members of the Board endeavoured to carry out their duties efficiently. Many activities were carried out by the Board. As in the previous years, a combined Social with the Prefectorial Board of the Convent Sentul was held during the second term. Prefects from various schools in Kuala Lumpur were invited. The object of this Social was to promote better understanding among the Prefects of different schools. During the early part of the year, we were also invited to a number of School Socials, School Sports and Speech Days.

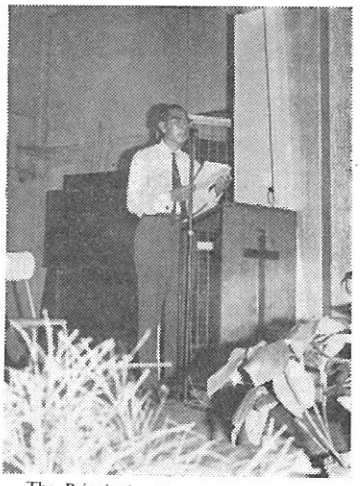

The pupils of the school have been most co-operative in helping us carry out our duties as student leaders of the school and we sincerely hope that they will continue to do so. To our Principal and Mr. Zachariah, we owe our gratitude for the invaluable help and advice they have rendered. We also wish to convey our thanks to the teachers for the help they have given us. The Board would also like to extend its thanks to the Old Boys' Association for the use of their room and hopes that our successors will not only maintain but also enhance the reputation of The Prefects Board.

Tajok yang tersebut di-atas ini memang-lah sudah kena pada tempat-nya memandangkan kapada kemajuan sains pada masa ini. Tidak berapa lama lagi perchubaan menghantar manusia yang lebeh ramai lagi ka-bulan akan di-lakukan oleh manusia berikutan dengan kejayaan saintis2 Amerika Sharikat menghantar Apollo 11 ka-bulan pada akhir bulan Julai, 1969 yang lepas. Perchubaan ini ada yang menyokong-nya dan ada juga yang menentang-nya. Bagitu juga dengan ranchangan2 angkasa lepas yang lain; ada yang menyokong dan ada pula yang membantah-nya.

Mereka yang menyokong tajok di-atas berpendapat bahawa penaalokan angkasa lepas ada-lah menjadi chita2 mereka semenjak berkurun2 lama-nya. Semua ranchangan untok menjayakan penaalokan ini hendak-lah di-sokong. Tambahan pula pengetahuan sains sekarang ini telah maju dengan pesat-nya dan tidak ada jalan lain bagi memuaskan hati sa-lain dengan menaaloki angkasa lepas itu. Mereka juga berpendapat bahawa dunia ini sudah tersangat tua dan tidak lama lagi ia akan musnah, oleh sebab itu manusia mesti-lah berusaha menchari dunia lain supaya mereka dapat menyambongkan tali keturunan mereka. Sa-lain daripada itu memang-lah telah menjadi tabiat manusia suka menchari kekayaan harta benda. Mereka berpendapat bahawa di-chakrawala2 yang lain ada mempunyai kekayaan2 yang tersebut untok di-ambil oleh manusia. Sa-tengah2 kerajaan dalam dunia ini berpendapaat bahawa mana2 kerajaan yang berjaya menaaloki angkasa lepas ia akan berjaya menguasai dunia ini dengan jalan menempatkan alat2 peperangan mereka di-angkasa lepas tersebut.

Bagi mereka yang menentang-nya pula telah memberi alasan2 bahawa usaha2 bagi menjayakan ranchangan tersebut itu telah memakan belanja yang banyak dan sia2. Wang belanja tersebut boleh di-gunakan untok projek2 lain yang boleh mendatangkan kebaikan kapada ramai manusia di-dunia ini. Dengan wang itu juga mereka perchaya dapat di-gunakan untok membuka dan membaiki banyak tempat2 yang maseh belum terbuka di-dunia ini. Sa-lain daripada itu, usaha2 tersebut akan menimbolkan perasaan iri hati dan pertandingan antara bangsa atau kuasa yang munkin menyebabkan terjadi-nya peperangan kelak. Mereka juga perchaya bahawa ranchangan2 tersebut terpaksa menggunakan tenaga manusia juga dan ini sangat membahayakan nyawa mereka. Ini ada-lah mereka pandang sa-bagai suatu perbuatan kejam. Sa-tengah2 pehak pula memberikan alasan2 tentangan mereka atas pendapat2 keperchayaan keugamaan mereka.

Bagi saya, ranchangan tersebut memang-nya elok dan saya menyokong saratus pera tus atas pendapat2 yang mengatakan ranchangan angkasa lepas banyak membawa faedah kapada manusia. Sa-lain daripada alasan2 yang telah di-kemukakan oleh penyokong2 tajok tersebut, saya berpendapat bahawa pendudok2 dunia baharu patut di-usahakan supaya dapat menolong mengurangkan pendudok2 di-dunia ini. Perusahaan galian di-dunia ini telah sa-makin merosot, maka sa-buah dunia baharu akan dapat membantu ekonomi dunia yang telah sa-makin merosot itu. Jika manusia benar2 berjaya menaaloki angkasa lepas dan telah dapat menghantar manusia melawat sa-buah dunia lain, maka ini ada-lah satu lambaran baharu dalam sejarah manusia.

Itu-lah sebab2-nya mengapa tajok yang mengatakan "Ranchangan Angkasa Lepas Banyak Membawa Faedah Kapada Manusia" itu memang-nya baik.

Renchana: "HIDUP SANDAR-MENYANDAR BAGAI AUR DENGAN TEBING"

Dalam peribahasa "Hidup sandar-menyandar bagai aur dengan tebing" ini, aur ia-lah sa-jenis buloh yang hidup-nya di-tebing sungai. Tanah di-tepi tebing itu di-pegang oleh akar aur; oleh sebab itu ayer sungai tidak dapat hanyutkan tanah yang menjadi tebing itu. Aur pula mendapat dzat untok kehidupan-nya dan dapat bersandar pada tebing sungai itu. Dengan ini boleh-lah di-katakan: kalau tidak ada aur, tebing sungai tidak menjadi kuat dan kalau tidak ada tebing, aur tidak dapat hidup dengan subor. Manusia telah memperbandingkan erti luar peribahasa ini dengan hal manusia yang hidup tolong menolong antara satu dengan lain yang hasil-nya menjadikan kedua2 pehak mendapat faedah-nya dan selamat hidup-nya.

Peribahasa ini mempunyai tujuan memberi nasihat supaya manusia itu hidup sandar menyandar serta tolong menolong dalam berbagai2 chara untok mendapat kehidupan yang aman damai. Ia ada-lah satu nasihat yang baik di-ikuti dengan tujuan yang betul. Manusia mesti-ah perhati apa hasil-nya bila tujuan peribahasa ini di-ikuti di-dalam sa-suatu pekerjaan atau perbuatan yang di-lakukan sa-chara gotong royong.

Suatu chontoh yang baik yang menggunakan maana peribahasa ini boleh di-lihat di-negeri Singapura. Ra'ayat Singapura sedang memperaktikkan peribahasa ini. Singapura mempunyai kerajaan yang tetap, dengan ini ia dapat memberikan keperchayaan kapada semua ra'ayat-nya. Sa-balek-nya, ra'ayat pun ta'at setia kapada kerajaan itu. Orang2 yang kaya di-situ menyediakan pekerjaan kapada orang2 miskin dengan membangun pusat2 kerajinan dan perusahaan. Dengan ini orang2 yang kaya mendapat faedah kerana perbuatan itu boleh membawa keuntongan kapada-nya. Khidmat2 kebangsaan sangat mustahak kapada tiap2 ra'ayat Singapura sebab itu penuntut2 universiti mempejajari perkara2 yang boleh mendatankan faedah kapada negeri-nya. Dengan itu ra'ayat Singapura boleh mencha-pai taraf hidup yang tinggi serta ekonomi yang tetap.

Peribahasa ini bukan sahaja di-peraktikkan dalam Singapura sahaja. Ia juga di-gunakan oleh semua negara termasok negara2 di-Tenggara Asia. Negara2 yang menjadi jiran Singapura saperti Malaysia, Indonesia, Filipina, Siam dan lain2-nya itu telah dan akan terus mendapat faedah dari Singapura oleh sebab Singapura ia-lah pusat perniagaan dan sa-balek-nya pula mendapat keuntongan dari negeri2 jiran itu yang menjadikan ekonomi-nya tetap ada-lah semata2 hasil perniagaan dan kerjasama yang di-buat-nya dengan negeri2 jiran tersebut. Maana peribahasa ini patut-lah di-peraktikkan untok chara atau perbuatan yang baik sahaja tetapi ia juga boleh di-gunakan untok jalan dan perbuatan yang jahat. Jika ia di-peraktikkan oleh orang jahat dengan maksud melakukan kejahatan, ia boleh membawa azab sengsara kapada pendudok2 dunia ini. Ini sudah terbukti dalam peperangan dunia yang pertama dan yang kedua dahulu itu.

Untok faedah masharakat, peribahasa ini patut-lah di-peraktikkan oleh manusia dalam hidup-nya sa-hari2 ia-itu sandar menyandar-lah antara anak2 dengan ibu bapa, antara murid2 dengan guru2, antara suami dengan isteri, antara pengikut dengan pemimpin, antara anak2 buah dengan penghulu, antara ra'ayat dengan kerajaan dan saterus-nya antara pendudok sa-suatu negeri dengan pendudok lain2. Dengan memperaktikkan ajaran peribahasa ini manusia bukan sahaja akan dapat hidup bersatu, maju, maamor, amandamai dan bahagia bahkan manusia akan dapat mengumpulkan kekuatan tenaga, kewangan dan fikiran untok menentang musoh sa-mula jadi ia-itu benchana2 alam saumpama: banjir, ribut taufan, kemarau panjang, gunong berapi, gempa, kelaparan, penyakit dan lain2 benchana lagi yang boleh merosakkan kebahagian hidup manusia dalam dunia ini.

Renchana: "LELAKI TIDAK BOLEH HIDUP TAMPA PEREMPUAN"

Makhlok di-dunia di-jadikan berpasang2an: lelaki perempuan, jantan betina, api ayer dan lain2-nya. Tentu sa-kali ada muslihat di-sa-balek kejadian ini.

Ada-lah salah pendapat yang mengatakan: kaum perempuan di-jadikan sa-mata2 untok hiboran atau alat pemenoh kehendak nafsu lelaki. Jika di-tinjau sa-chara mendalam. kaum perempuan memainkan peranan yang penting bagi ketenteraman dunia ini. Dengan lain perkataan dunia tidak akan aman jika tidak ada perempuan.

Sudah menjadi darah daging bagi perempuan bersifat lemah lembut dan sopan santun. Kerana itu pekerjaan jururawat tidak menjadi halbagi mereka. Pekerjaan ini tidak boleh di-ambil aleh oleh kaum lelaki kerana lelaki bengis, kasar dan kurang sabar. Bukan pesakit itu kelak bertambah semboh malah akan bertambah sakit jika lelaki menjadi jururawat.

Oleh kerana sifat lemah lembut-nya, kaum perempuan dapat mengusai tektik memujok. Sa-orang lelaki yang sedang marah dan sedia bergadoh dengan sasiapa sahaja yang menchabar-nya, akan lumpoh bila di-chuchok jarum pujokan daripada sa-orang perempuan; jadi terelak-lah pergadohan yang mungkin berlaku itu.

Lelaki bujang memang tidak bisa tinggal di-rumah lama2. Mereka lebeh suka bersiar2 atau merayau2 hingga jauh malam. Ada pula yang berdansa dan berjoli atau berpoya2 sa-olah2 dunia ini mereka yang empunya. Lambat laun mereka yang bagitu tabiat-nya akan rosak — rosak akhlak, rosak badan. Dan bila mereka sedar: mereka sudah terlambat, nasi sudah menjadi bubor!

Lelaki yang sudah beristeri tidak akan melakukan pekerjaan2 yang di-lakukan sa-masa bujang-nya, sebab si-dia ada di-rumah untok menghiborkan hati serta melepaskan dahaga. Tambahan pula lelaki yang sudah beristeri akan lebeh kuat beramal. Ini di-sebabkan rasa tanggong jawab yang timbul sa-sudah beristeri.

Melawat rumah lelaki bujang amat menarek sa-kali. Langsir ta'pernah bertukar, perabut ta'terator dan tapak kaki yang telanjang bagaikan besi berani menarek habok debu lantai melekat pada-nya. Pakaian kotor hantar ka-dobi, perut lapar makan di-kedai. Tetapi boleh-kah mereka hidup bagini sa-panjang masa?

Kalau-lah ramai lelaki boikot ta'mahu kahwin tentu sa-kali bilangan manusia akan merosot. Dan ramai-lah gadis2 menjadi andratu (anak dara tua). Dan mana2 gadis yang sudah tidak sanggup bertahan akan terpaksa meminang lelaki — perigi menchari timba. Aatu pun yang lebeh burok lagi: akan membeli suami — jadi kongsi sa-umor hidup, boleh jadi untok sa-malam sahaja. Jadi jelas-lah sudah "rukun playboy" tidak sa-patutnya di-praktikkan oleh kaum lelaki.

Sa-orang pemimpin negara berharap benar pada kerjasama isteri-nya. Chuba-lah fikirkan apa-kah akan jadi jika pemimpin itu maseh bujang? Dia mungkin memerentah sa-chara diktator kerana tidak ada siapa yang dapat mematah atau melembutkan hati keras-nya. Akibat-nya negara menjadi huru hara kerana rasa tidak puas hati di-kalangan ra'ayat-nya.

Walau bagaimanapun kaum perempuan ada juga burok-nya. Perempuan boleh mengakibatkan lelaki menjadi gila — gila bayang. Perempuan juga boleh mengakibatkan putus-nya tali persahabatan di-antara dua orang sahabat. Ambil satu chontoh: Si-A bersahabat baik dengan Si-B. Kebetulan pula mereka berdua menchintai sa-orang gadis, Si-D. Oleh sebab Si-D memileh Si-A sa-bagai teman hidup-nya maka tinggal-lah Si-B ternganga2. Yang demikan persahabatan yang sa-bagitu erat serta merta bertukar menjadi kebenchian yang meluap2 — kurang2 kesabaran mungkin membuahkan pergadohan.

Perempuan juga boleh melalaikan lelaki dari tanggong jawab-nya. Tarian2 bogel yang konon-nya suatu kemodernan, mendapat sambutan hangat dari kaum lelaki. Dan bila di-adakan pertunjokan tersebut, panggong2 menjadi penoh sesak. Yang sedang berniaga meninggalkan perniagaan-nya. Yang sedang membongkok di-meja2 kantor meninggalkan kerja-nya. Dan yang sedang mutala'ah di-rumah meninggalkan buku-nya. Semua-nya mempunyai satu tujuan dan matalamat yang sama — menekmati tarian bogel di-samping menekmati kebogelan penari2-nya.

Di-Iran dan Paris, mini-skirt punya fasal pemuda2-nya menjadi liar — liar dalam erti kata: mereka menchuri2 menchubit peha2 yang memang sengaja di-telanjangkan.

Sa-orang suami yang berjuang dalam politik amat berharap kapada isteri yang faham akan perjuangan-nya. Tetapi malang, ramai kaum isteri yang bukan-nya, hendak menggalakkan sa-balek-nya melemahkan semangat perjuangan suami, suami di-lemaskan dalam keadaan buntu — hendak pileh isteri atau politik?

Sa-orang pelajar lelaki mempunyai sahabat perempuan. Dari persahabatan bertiup-lah api perchintaan. Jika dengan tidak semena2, sedang mereka berkaseh mereka terpaksa berpisah akibat-nya si-lelaki akan terganggu fikiran-nya. Sa'at bahagia sa-masa mereka berkaseh2 dahulu terus bersimpang-siur di-benak-nya. Akhir tahun tiba, dia gagal dalam pepereksaan.

Malang yang menimpa lelaki akibat dari perempuan boleh di-elakkan jika si-lelaki pandai menjaga diri, berhati2 memileh sahabat perempuan dan jangan sa-kali2 mencheborkan diri dalam alam perchintaan jika umor maseh terlalu muda atau ada tugas yang lebeh penting mesti di-jelaskan.

Jelas-lah sekarang pendapat yang mengatakan: lelaki tidak boleh hidup tampa perempuan tidak dapat di-sangkal sama sa-kali kebenaran-nya. Kaum lelaki jangan-lah menganggap: perempuan itu kaum yang lemah, jadi mudah mereka di-buli. Ya, memang benar mereka lemah tetapi ada sa-tengah2-nya dan pada sa-tengah2 perkara mereka boleh mengatasi kecherdasan kaum lelaki. Tiap2 manusia mempunyai hak, ada-lah salah jika hak mereka tidak di-beri lebeh2 lagi kalau di-rampas.

PENGALAMAN :

KESANGSARAAN SA-PINTAS LALU

Di-sakeliling kampong Puah Saberang kedengaran radio mengumumkan bahawa sekitar Kuala Lumpur di-kenakan perentah berkurong sa-lama dua-puloh empat jam. Orang ramai di-nasihatkan supaya tinggal di-dalam rumah mendengar butir2 sa-lanjut-nya.

Pintu rumah mulai di-tutup, anak2 mulai berlari masok ka-dalam rumah, ibu2 memaksa anak2 mereka chepat2 masok ka-dalam rumah. Suasana masa itu menjadi kelamkabut dan haru biru serta rioh rendah dengan suara ibu bapa yang terpekek2 memanggil anak2 mereka yang maseh degil dan belum menyedari betapa bahaya suasana di-kala itu. Semua penghuni kampong itu akhir-nya me-merap diri di-rumah masing2 — terpenchil antara satu keluarga dengan lain bagaikan kera sumbang.

Suasana yang pada mula-nya rioh rendah dan haru biru itu sudah berubah menjadi senyap sunyi. Jalan tanah pasir yang sa-belum-nya itu selalu di-penohi oleh anak2 yang bermain2 dengan sukaria sudah bertukar menjadi lengang sa-lengang2-nya. Kelihatan dari jauh rumah2 yang penoh dengan penghuni itu sa-olah2-nya tiada berpendudok kerana di-kelubongi oleh kesepian yang datang dengan tiba2.

Dari chelah2 lubang dinding rumah mereka mengintai2 ka-arah jalan yang lengang itu. Sa-bentar kemudian kesunyian kampong di-bisingi pula oleh kereta2 perunda pasokan keselamatan yang merunda keliling kampong yang bertuah itu. Kemudian kelihatan pula anggota2 pasokan keselamatan negara berderap2 berjalan sambil memikul senapang masing2, entah siapa-lah gerangan-nya akan menjadi mangsa senapang yang ta'bermata itu Tiada berapa lama sa-telah itu kedengaran-lah bunyi letupan senapang yang tidak mengenal saudara mara dan sahabat handai itu. Dengan terdengar-nya bunyi letupan itu, kami sa-keluarga pun mulai bimbang, jantong berdebar2 dan tuboh anggota mulai menggeletar. "Siapa-lah agak-nya yang menjadi mangsa senapang itu? Entah-lah", hati kami berkata sendirian. Sa-bentar kemudian terdengar lagi sa-buah tembakan. Tembakan itu terlalu dekat, sa-olah2 berlaku di-tepi telinga kami. Ketakutan dan kengerian pun mula menguasai perasaan kami yang memang sejak mula lagi kami sudah merasai bimbang dan takut. "Apa-kah ada anasir2 jahat telah datang menyerang kampong kami? Apa-kah ada orang2 kampong kami sudah melanggar perentah berkurong?", tanya hati kami.

Kami membuka radio kami perlahan2, takut kalau2 di-dengari oleh jiran2 kami yang barangkali akan terganggu perasaan-nya di-kala itu. Radio mengumumkan bahawa orang ramai di-nasihatkan supaya jangan melanggar perentah berkurong, siapa2 yang melanggar munkin menghadapi bahaya kena tembak. "Munkin-kah perentah berkurong bermaksud tidak boleh menjengok tingkap atau tidak boleh keluar di-halaman?", hati saya mula bertanya. "Munkin agak-nya", jawab sanubari saya.

Malam itu kami ta' dapat melelapkan mata, takut kalau2 meletus perang dingin di-kampong kami. Angin pada malam itu sangat sejok, sa-olah2 angin itu pun takut kalau2 berlaku sa-suatu keburokan yang tidak di-ingini. "Ada-kah malam itu jadi malam terakhir bagi kami menyedut udara nyaman di-kampong itu? Entah-lah", bisek hati kami. Mata mula terasa hendak pejam tetapi hati maseh lagi chelek. Akhir-nya perasaan takut dan churiga telah mendorong kami terus berjaga sa-malam2an itu.

Esok-nya perentah berkurong maseh belum di-longgarkan lagi. Rupa2-nya berlanjutan hingga tujoh hari berturut2. Maalum-lah kesan peristiwa pergadohan kaum yang meletus pada tiga-belas mei itu maseh belum kendor lagi. Tong2 beras di-rumah sudah boleh di-gendang, isi-nya sudah banyak berkurangan, asam bawang, chili garam sudah tinggal agak sa-sambal. Beras yang mana tinggal itu-lah yang kami tanak. Nasi yang kami makan berlaukkan chechahan ayer garam sahaja. Perut sering berbunyi kerana ta' chukup muatan, adek2 saya merengek dan menangis minta makan. Munkin anak2 kechil lain di-kampong itu begitu juga, menyalak ibu bapa minta makan. Kami yang besar2 terpaksa beralah kerana hendak memberi peluang adek2 dapat makan sa-chukup-nya. Munkin juga ada anak2 di-kampong itu yang terpaksa berpuasa bersama2 dengan ibu bapa-nya. Ibu bapa saya dan agak-nya banyak lagi orang lain menyumpah2 akan orang2 yang melakukan perbuatan dahshat itu. Oleh kerana mereka-lah kami terpaksa menderita kesusahan dan kebuloran namun bagitu ada juga terlintas di-fikiran kami mengatakan sa-balek akibat tentu ada natijat dan bagitu juga di-sa-balek natijat ada pula akibat-nya.

Pada ke-esokan-nya lagi perentah berkurong pun di-longgarkan hanya beberapa jam sahaja. Masa itu-lah ibu bapa mengambil peluang membeli beras, sayor2 dan barang2 keperluan dapor. Pekedai2 mula menjual barang dengan harga yang ta' berpatutan, mencherut leher — memasang jerat di-pergentingan. Oleh sebab barang keperluan tidak ada, mau ta' mau beli juga-lah, walaupun harga-nya tinggi.

Kelonggaran perentah berkurong di-perpanjang sadikit demi sadikit oleh pehak yang berkausa, memandangkan keadaan negara bertambah baik, ketegangan bertambah kendor, khabar2 angin bertambah kurang akibat tertangkap-nya beberapa ramai penyebar2 khabar angin dan perasaan takut mentakuti, churiga menchurigai bertambah kurang akibat tertangkap-nya anasir2 pengugut. Pasokan pengawal kampong pun di-adakan, Jawatankuasa Muhibbah pula di-tubohkan untok menanam dan memuleh serta menyebarkan perasaan muhibbah kapada tiap2 anggota masharakat yang terdiri daripada berbagai kaum itu.

Pada hari Isnin 2hb. Jun 1969 sekolah akan di-buka, Berita ini di-umumkan oleh Ketua Pegawai Pela jaran Selangor menerusi Radio. Saya pun mula mengemas buku2 sekolah yang sudah lama ta' saya hampiri itu. Walaupun demikian kesusahan dan derita yang menimpa kami beberapa hari yang lampau itu ta' munkin dapat kami lupakan.

TANGGONG JAWAB SA-SAORANG RAAYAT KAPADA NEGARA-NYA

Boleh di-katakan tiap2 orang itu mempunyai tanggong jawab kapada negara-nya. Dengan ada perasaan tanggong jawab itu, negara akan menjadi bertambah kuat, aman dan maamor. Kalau negara itu kuat, aman dan maamor permusohan dalam negara dan luar negara tidak akan berlaku. Kalau tiap2 raayat mempunyai tanggong jawab sa-barang perkelahian dapat di-padamkan dengan mudah.

Tanggong jawab yang penting bagi sa-saorang raayat ia-lah mengikut undang2 atau perentah2 yang di-tentukan itu dengan taat setia. Hormat kapada ketua negara dan bendera serta lagu kebangsaan negara ada-lah perkara yang boleh memupok perasaan bangga kapada negara-nya. Semua raayat dalam sa-sabuah negara itu menghormati lagu kebangsaan-nya. Di-mana2 mereka mendengar bunyi lagu kebangsaan-nya mereka berdiri tegak sampai lagu itu tamat. Sa-patah perkataan pun tidak keluar dari mulut mereka sa-masa lagu kebangsaan itu di-bunyi atau di-nyanyikan. Sa-siapa yang tidak mengikut saperti yang telah di-tentukan, ia-nya akan di-tangkap dan di-hukum. Dengan membuat bagitu mereka akan merasa ragu dan malu hendak mempermain2kan lagu kebangsaan yang di-hormati oleh sakalian orang itu.

Undang2 yang di-buat oleh wakil2 raayat untok raayat dan bagi faedah raayat itu mesti-lah di-turuti. Undang2 ini di-bahath dan di-luluskan oleh wakil2 raayat dalam Dewan Raayat untok di-jadikan saksi dan pelindong kapada raayat jelata. Undang2 ini di-buat dengan adil. Ada undang2 keras dan ada undang2 yang lembut mengikut jenis kesalahan yang di-buat oleh sa-saorang raayat. Kalau kesalahan itu berat, hukuman-nya berat-lah; sa-balek-nya kalau kesalahan itu rengan, hukuman-nya pun rengan-lah. Undang2 ini sa-mata2 untok faedah raayat. Umpama-nya undang2 jeayah ia-lah bertujuan untok menahan raayat jangan melakukan kerja2 jenayah saperti membunoh, menyamun, menchabol dan lain2 lagi. Undang2 jalan raya ia-lah bertujuan supaya pemandu2 memandu kenderaan-nya dengan chermat dan dengan laju yang terhad supaya tidak membunoh atau menchederakan orang ramai, merosakkan kenderaan orang lain atau merosakkan benda2 atau pokok di-tepi2 jalan raya itu. Kerajaan telah menggaji raayat — polis — untok menjaga undang2 itu supaya tidak di-langgar oleh raayat. Sa-lain daripada itu Jabatan Penchegah Rasuah pun di-adakan oleh kerajaan untok menahan kaki-tangan2 kerajaan dan orang ramai juga melakukan kerja rasuah.

Tolong menolong antara satu sama lain pun satu daripada tanggong jawab raayat kapada negara-nya. Tolong menolong boleh membuatkan negara itu kokoh, sa-bagai chontoh lihat-lah kerja sa-chara gotong royong: Kerja yang panjang dapat di-pendekkan, yang berat menjadi rengan, kerja yang memakan masa yang lama dapat di-sengkatkan masa-nya; peserta gotong royong dapat berchampor antara satu sama lain. Orang yang kuat dan berdaya patut-lah menolong orang lemah dalam sa-suatu pekerjaan. Orang yang kaya dan berpengalaman membantu dan mengajar yang miskin dan yang bodoh. Guru2 hendak-lah mengajar dan menolong murid2-nya dengan chara memberi nasihat, memandu dan memimpin dan murid2 pula hendak-lah mengikut dan menjalankan perentah serta mempraktikkan apa yang di-katakan oleh guru. Begitu-lah juga pada yang lain2 lagi.

Sa-saorang raayat mesti-lah sanggup mempertahankan negara-nya daripada musoh luar dan dalam. Sa-bagai raayat kita tidak boleh memberi peluang kapada musoh di-dalam negara mengambil peluang melakukan perbuatan jahat tatkala negara di-timpa oleh kesusahan. Untok menghapuskan musoh2 dalam negara bantuan daripada raayat sangat-lah di-kehendaki. Kalau negara sedang berperang dengan sa-buah negara yang di-musohi sa-saorang yang berdaya dan berkuasa diminta mempertahankan-nya. Mereka boleh mendaftarkan diri sa-bagai ashkar sukarela. Kalau tiada berkebolehan mereka boleh-lah menolong dengan memberi darah kapada mereka yang luka dalam peperangan. Wang, tenaga dan fikiran boleh juga di-berikan. Jika sa-orang penulis dia boleh memberikan fikiran dan nasihat-nya dengan menuliskan-nya dalam karya2-nya.

Sa-saorang raayat mesti-lah rajin dan usaha membuat kerja untok kemajuan negara dan bangsa-nya, yang di-dalam-nya juga termasok untok faedah diri dan keluarga-nya. Raayat yang rajin dan usaha boleh menjadikan negara-nya maju dan maamor serta terkenal dalam dunia. Negara yang kaya dan tegoh boleh mempertahankan diri-nya daripada musoh2 yang durjana dengan tidak payah meminta bantuan daripada negera lain.

Sa-saorang raayat juga bertanggong jawab menghormati kebudayaan-nya. Kalau negara itu mempunyai pendudok berbilang bangsa maka kebudayaan, kesenian dan ugama-nya wajib-lah di-hormati. Sekolah2, pejabat2, firma2, gudang2 dan kedai2 patut-lah di-tutup tanda menghormati hari perayaan sa-suatu kaum itu dan sa-suatu kaum pula patut-lah bersama2 menyertai perayaan2 tersebut. Sa-saorang raayat yang bertanggong jawab menghormati dan memperchayai ugama-nya boleh menjadikan ia kuat dan tegoh dalam iman-nya dan ini menjadikan ia taat dan setia kapada undang2 dan negara-nya. Pada fikiran saya itu-lah perkara2-nya yang menjadi tanggong jawab sa-saorang raayat kapada negara-nya.

TIDAK DENGAR KATA ORANG TUA TA' PATAH RENGKAT

Saperti biasa Ah Beng dengan rakan2-nya sedang berkumpul2 di-sa-buah kedai kopi dekat dengan sekolah-nya. Mereka merokok sambil berchakap2 dengan suara yang rioh. Mereka sedang mencheritakan kelakuan mereka di-sekolah. Bukan sahaja mereka, selalu tidak ka-sekolah malahan kadang2 mereka chabot dari sekolah. Walau pun mereka di-rotan oleh Guru Besar, mereka sadikit pun ta' takut.

Ah Beng itu sa-orang budak yang berumor tujoh-belas tahun dan berdarjah tingkatan lima di-dalam sekolah-nya. Walaupun badan-nya kurus dan badan-nya pendek, dia sangat nakal — suka jadi kachang hantu. Tatkala sa-saorang che'gu mengajar, ta'kira che'gu itu lelaki atau perempuan, dia dengan dengan kumpulan-nya berbising2 di-belakang. Kuat suara che'gu itu mengajar lebeh kuat lagi suara dia berbising supaya temberang-nya itu dapat di-dengar oleh kumpulan-nya dan barangkali juga supaya di-dengar oleh murid2 lain bahkan oleh che'gu yang sedang mengajar itu juga. Apabila di-marah oleh che'gu dia ber-pura2 ta' dengar. Guru2-nya selalu memberi nasihat kapada-nya tetapi usaha-nya itu jadi saperti menjirus ayer di-daun keladi sahaja. Semua nasihat guru2 itu menjadi saperti hujan jatoh ka-pasir — hilang lenyap, tidak berkesan.

Pepereksaan penggal yang pertama hanya tinggal satu minggu sahaja ka-hadapan-nya. semua murid2 dalam darjah-nya belajar bersunggoh2, ingin hendak mendapat tempat yang pertama dalam tingkatan. Ah Beng tidak membuka sa-buah buku-nya pun. Dia berharap budak2 lain akan memberi dia meniru kertas2 jawapan mereka. Sa-lepas pepereksaan, apabila kertas2 jawapan telah di-markah oleh che'gu2, baharu-lah dia mengetahui-nya bahawa dia telah mendapat "markah merah" tertulis dengan kasar-nya dalam buku laporan pelajaran-nya.

Demikian juga dia di-marahi oleh ibu bapa-nya tetapi saperti biasa dia tidak hiraukan marahan kedua2 orang tua-nya itu. Mereka pun ta'tahu apa hendak di-buat-nya kapada anak tunggal-nya itu. Nasihat? Sudah macham2 dan sudah beribu2 nasihat di-beri, dia ta'indah. Pukul? Tidak, kerana dia sudah besar, sudah tingkatan lima. Masokkan dia ka-sekolah budak2 jahat? Tidak, kerana mereka hanya mempunyai "Dia" sa-orang sahaja.

Beberapa bulan telah berlalu, Ah Beng ta'khuatir sadikit jua pun, walaupun pepereksaan sekolah tinggal sa-bulan sahaja lagi. Ibu bapa-nya maseh mahu lagi memujok, "Ingatkan-lah pelajaran, kurangkan-lah bermain dan bersiar2 sampai jauh2 malam, pepereksaan sudah ta'lama lagi. Kata orang kalau ta'ikut kata orang tua ta'patah rengkat". Dia diam sahaja. Kata ya pun tidak, kata tidak pun tidak. Dia selalu berfikir yang dia maseh ada banyak masa lagi. Dia tidak pernah berfikir apa yang akan jadi jika dia tidak lalus pepereksaan itu.

Pepereksaan sudah datang dan sudah berlalu. Ah Beng selalu di-lihat susah hati sahaja. Tiga bulan sa-lepas itu keputusan pepereksaan pun di-siarkan. Di-dapati Ah Beng tidak lulus tetapi mujor juga dia dapat G.C.E. dia chukup menyesal tetapi apa dia mahu kata nasi sudah menjadi bubor. Menyesal ke-mudian tentu-lah tidak ada guna-nya. Ini-lah akibat yang menimpa orang yang ta'mahu dengar nasihat "TAK DENGAR KATA ORANG TUA TA' RATAH RENGKAT."

BERAT SAMA
DI-PIKUL RENGAN SAMA DI-JINJING

Berat sama di-pikul rengan sama di-jinjing ia-lah satu peribahasa yang ber-maana bekerjasama membuat sa-barang pekerjaan sama ada pekerjaan itu berat atau rengan, susah atau pun senang. Banyak kampong2 dan negeri dahulu telah runtoh kerana anggota masharakat di-tempat itu tidak mengikuti ajaran yang di-tunjokkan oleh peribahasa itu.

Kampong Santok ia-lah nama sa-buah kampong. Kampong ini di-tinggali oleh kira2 sa-ratus buah keluarga, tetapi orang2 di-situ kelihatan-nya tidak berapa ramah dan gembira. Mereka ini tidak suka bergotong royong dan oleh sebab itu kampong tersebut tidak chantek dan indah. Jalan raya yang mela lui kampong itu pun dalam keadaan burok kerana tidak ada orang yang memperbaiki-nya dan rumput2 di-tepi jalan itu telah menjadi panjang. Mereka harap mengharap: orang ini berharap orang itu akan membuat-nya dan orang itu berharap orang ini-lah akan membuat-nya. Sadikit pun mereka tidak fikir bahawa kalau mereka buat sama2 tentu-lah kerja itu menjadi rengan dan tentu-lah jalan itu tidak menjadi saperti itu burok-nya dan rumput di-tepi jalan tidak jadi saperti itu panjang-nya.

Pada waktu malam kampong itu gelap gulita kerana tiada lampu2 untok menerangkan-nya tetapi ada pula orang2 berkumpul2 dan berbual2 pada waktu petang dan kadang2 sampai pada waktu malam. Sunggoh pun kampong tersebut sudah ada sa-lama hampir sa-puloh tahun, tetapi belum lagi ada mempunyai sa-buah balai raya untok mereka membahathkan perkara perkara yang mustahak. Orang2 kampong itu hanya melakukan pekerjaan-nya masing2 sahaja dan tidak memperdulikan langsong akan hal orang lain. Hidup mereka boleh-lah di-katakan sa-bagai enau dalam belukar melepaskan puchok masing2 sahaja.

Sa-buah kampong lain yang berbeza jauh dari kampong Santok ini ia-lah kampong Persatuan. Pendudok2 kampong ini sentiasa bersukaria antara satu sama lain. Jika ada apa2 perkara sama ada kechil atau besar, mereka pun mem-binchangkan-nya bersama2 dan membuat-nya bersama2. Orang2 di-kampong ini sangat giat dan selalu mengadakan pertandingan bola sepak di-padang mereka itu. Mereka suka bergotong royong membuat sa-suatu ranchangan saperti membena rumah2, membuat atau membaiki jalan2, membersehkan tanah perkuboran dan membersehkan parit2 di-dalam kampong-nya. Mereka juga bergotong royong dalam satu2 majlis saperti majlis perkahwinan, majlis hari ibu bapa sekolah dan lain2 lagi. Bila ada anak2 sekolah yang tiada wang untok membeli buku2 pe-lajaran mereka semua membantu wang sadikit sa-orang kapada anak2 itu. Sebab itu kampong itu lekas maju, di-kenali oleh pembesar2 negeri dan pendudok-nya sentiasa hidup aman dan gembira.

Mengapa-kah orang2 kampong Persatuan berbeza hidup-nya dengan orang2 kampong Santok itu? Ini ia-lah di-sebabkan oleh orang2 kampong Persatuan ini mengikut sa-penoh2-nya akan ajaran peribahasa yang berbunyi "Berat sama di-pikul rengan sama di-jinjing". Ada-nya.

HUKUMAN GANTONG PATUT-LAH DI-HAPUSKAN

Erti tajok ini ia-lah patut-kah tidak hukuman gantong ia-itu hukuman mati di-hapuskan dan di-ganti dengan hukuman yang lebeh rengan lagi? Di-dalam perbinchangan ini, ramai orang bersetuju dengan-nya dan ramai juga orang yang tidak bersetuju dengan-nya. Semua pehak ada mempunyai alasan2 masing2 untok membuktikan apa sebab mereka setuju dan tidak setuju dengan tajok ini.

Pada mula-nya biar-lah saya menulis tentang alasan2 pehak yang setuju dengan-nya. Satu alasan yang pehak ini telah mengatakan ia-lah bila sa-saorang membuat sa-suatu kejhatan yang menyebabkan kematian orang lain, kita mesti jangan menghukum-nya dengan hukuman mati kerana bila kita melakukan hukuman itu bermaana-lah kita juga sedang membuat suatu kejahatan membunoh. Satu alasan lain ia-lah sa-saorang itu memang tahu hukuman membunoh orang lain itu ia-lah kematian atau hukum gantong tetapi melakukan juga perbuatan membunoh orang. Ini menunjokkan orang itu tidak takutkan hukuman ini; sebab itu kita mesti-lah menunjokkan murah hati kapada-nya supaya dia boleh menukar perangai jadi sa-orang raayat yang baik. Alasan ketiga ia-lah sa-saorang itu tidak sedar apa yang sedang di-buat-nya bila ia membunoh orang lain; sebab itu kita patut jangan menjatohkan hukuman mati ka-atas-nya. Ada juga sa-tengah orang berkata bahawa memendekkan nyawa sa-saorang itu ada-lah suatu perbuatan yang dzalim lagi kejam. Dan alasan yang termustahak sa-kali ia-lah walau pun sudah beribu2 orang di-dunia ini telah di-hukum gantong tetapi maseh ada juga orang yang berani membuat kejahatan membunoh orang lain. Semua alasan2 yang tersebut menunjokkan bahawa hukuman gantong tidak berapa berguna dan patut-lah di-hapuskan sahaja.

Sa-telah menulis alasan2 pehak yang bersetuju, saya akan menulis pula alasan2 pehak yang tidak bersetuju. Alasan2 mereka ia-lah "Takut Mati" ia-lah sifat tiap2 orang. Keadaan ini boleh di-saksikan apabila sa-saorang telah di-jatohkan hukum mati oleh sa-saorang hakim. Kita dapati ia-nya akan puchat lesi dan kadang2 pengsan bila mendengar hukuman itu. Sebab itu, hukuman gantong ini patut-lah di-kekalkan. Kalau hukuman ini di-hapuskan nyawa orang ramai akan berada di-dalam bahaya kerana sa-saorang itu boleh bebas membunoh sa-saorang lain dengan tiada menerima hukuman yang boleh menahan sa-saorang itu melakukan atau mengulangi perbuatan itu. Jikalau sa-saorang itu tidak takut akan hukuman ini lebeh baik-lah dia jangan di-benarkan hidup dalam dunia ini. Walaupun hukuman ini dzalim tetapi tepat dan berguna.

Pada pendapat saya sendiri, saya berfikir bukan sahaja lebeh baik hukuman ini di-kekalkan bahkan terlebeh baik lagi kalau dapat di-luaskan lagi hingga kapada apa juga jenis kejahatan saperti pergadohan, penyamunan, pengkhianatan dan perompakan serta lain2 kejahatan yang membahayakan jiwa orang ramai. Kalau kita boleh menjalankan saperti itu tentu-lah kita boleh mempunyai sa-buah negeri yang aman dan damai.

PENGEMBARAAN KA-ANGKASA LEPAS

Whosh! Terbang-lah kapal angkasa saya ka-angkasa lepas menuju bulan. "Apollo 21" bagitu-lah nama-nya kapal angkasa saya. Saya terbang dengan di-temani oleh dua orang sahabat saya ia-itu Ibrahim dan Ramlie. Kami-lah orang Melayu yang pertama kali mengembara ka-anfkasa lepas.

Pakaian2 kami di-perbuat khas daripada getah yang tebal dan bentok topi2 kami sa-rupa dengan topi2 yang di-pakai oleh angkasawan2 Amerika. Sa-telah lima-puloh kali kami mengelilingi bumi, kami pun mengubah haluan kami menuju ka-arah bulan. Kelihatan oleh kami bahawa bumi tempat kita tinggal ini sa-olah2 sa-biji bola sahaja besar-nya, berpusing2 mengelilingi matahari.

Sedang kami khayal dengan keindahan2 di-angkasa lepas, tiba2 "Apollo 21" kami terlanggar suatu benda lalu terhenti. Dengan gambar "talivishen Micro" kami, baharu-lah kami tahu bahawa sa-orang gergasi bermata satu telah mengha-lang perjalanan kami. Saya bangun lalu keluar dan membunoh gergasi itu dengan pistol — "Pistol Ray" saya. Lepas itu kami pun meneruskan penerbangan kami.

Sudah jatoh di-timpa tangga. Ya, tidak sudah2 kami di-timpa mala petaka. Sa-kali lagi "Apollo 21" kami terhenti. Sa-belum kami boleh berbuat apa2, pintu kapal kami telah di-pechahkan oleh orang2 kenit yang lebeh kurang empat inchi tinggi-nya; lengkap dengan panah2, saperti 'Robin Hood'.

Kami tidak dapat melawan kerana sudah terlalu lewat untok kami me-nembak mereka dengan 'Pistol Ray' kami. Akhir-nya kami di-tangkap dan di-ikat saperti bulu ayam. Kami terapong2 di-angkasa lepas di-pandu oleh beratus2 orang kenit itu menuju ka-istana raja mereka untok di-hukum kerana kesalahan mencheroboh kawasan negara mereka.

Pada sangkaan kami tentu-lah raja orang kenit itu akan membunoh kami, tetapi sangkaan kami itu nyata tidak betul, Kami tidak di-bunoh malahan kami di-layani dengan baik dan hormat serta di-beri makan minum dengan juadah2 yang sedap2. Sa-telah beberapa hari kami di-negara itu, kami pun meminta izin untok kembali sa-mula ka-bumi. Kami tidak mahu meneruskan pengembaraan kami ka-bulan kerana pancharoba2 yang kami akan hadapi kelak mungkin lebeh dahshat dan hebat dan akan mengakibatkan kematian.

Sa-telah kelengkapan kami siap, kami pun menguchapkan terimakaseh ka-pada raja itu lalu menuju ka-arah 'Apollo 21' dan bertolak balek ka-bumi. Dengan tidak di-duga tiba2 kapal kami meletup lalu mengakibatkan sahabat karib saya Ibrahim dan Ramlie meninggal dunia. Saya tidak mendapat apa2 chedera sadikit pun, hanya pengsan sahaja tetapi saya terasa muka saya di-jirus ayer oleh sa-orang perempuan tua yang kemudian-nya saya pun tersedar. Saya dapati, saya hanya bermimpi dan perempuan tua yang menjirus ayer ka-muka saya itu ada-lah emak saya. Emak saya menjirus ayer ka-muka saya kerana saya telah lambat bangun tidor untok menemani-nya pergi ka-pasar.

A NIGHT OF TERROR

The single note from the clock that hung limply on the wall made me throw my glance across the room from the window towards it.

"My God: "I exclaimed, "It's past mid-night, Joe, I think I'd better make a move before it begins to rain. I wonder what the housekeeper might be having on his mind and by the way, please do remember to write to me when you are away. Good-night, and have a happy time." That was all I could say.

I moved away from the old house that was his uncle's some years ago, and headed for the narrow cart track that snaked its way through the strange wilderness that lay about the outskirts of the town. In the house that stood looming in the darkness behind me, Joe was the only occupant at night. The old house-keeper would arrive every morning and leave early in the evening.

A cold drop of water that fell on the nape of my open neck made me look up. My body went cold when I saw the great black, ghastly looking clouds that hung like vultures above, ready to attack. I quickened my steps but all hopes of reaching my place dry, were faint. The rain poured down in torrents, beating down mercilessly on the defenceless earth. I stumbled over logs and through muddy pools along the ghastly highway, completely deserted now except for the beastly looking trees.

A little later I found myself rapping breathlessly on the wooden door. Footsteps approaching the door and as the light from the burning candle inside fell on me, I saw the surprised look on James wrinkled face.

"Don't stand there looking at me as though I am a ghost or something," he said, "come in and take off those clothes before you catch a blooming cold."

He closed the door behind me and walked off towards the fireplace where the battered old kettle stood puffing steam at intervals. I was now shivering and moved closer to the fire. Soon the old man cabe back with a pot of steaming coffee and handed it to me. Crossing over to the window, I was surprised to see that the rain had stopped as fast as it had begun and the smell of sodden grass and mud wafted thickly in the air.

The housekeeper ,a man of few words, soon retreated upstairs to bed, leaving me alone in the faint light of the candle which was growing shorter every minute. The fire too was dying fast from lack of fresh coal and this forced me to go down to the cellar in search of some. Taking the key from the nail where it hung. I descended the stairs. The cellar was far older than the house and was large and lofty. I had two windows cut through the thick brick walls and were protected by double gratings. The door itself was iron-plated with a strong and cunning lock.

The clash of the keys swinging from my hand was the only sound in the chilly silence, except when the noise came, muffled and faint, from the house above. I reached the door and with some effort unlocked it and swung it backwards. For a moment I stood in the doorway, holding the light high and gazing into the cavern like room. It was gloomy inside and it had taken some time before my eyes got used to the darkness. Then I looked up at the windows through which I could see the flicker of lightning across the now clear sky and as I did so, I suddenly heard a crash of glass far up in the house above. Then, as I still listened, there came a faint sound of footsteps rapidly growing louder as if something was coming down the stairs with long leaps.

Without pausing to think, I in a blind fury of terror, flung myself into the room and locked the heavy door. How I managed to do all this at one instant, I never knew. As I moved away from the door, something came against it with a soft thud. As I listened quietly I could hear a quick, heavy panting. The heavy blows that landed on the door, from whatever this monster was, shook and creaked the door on which my life depended.

Then something made me grope in the darkness for a weapon and my palms clasped round an iron bar lying on the floor. I failed to notice that I was now sweating profusely and my heart-beat was faster. In addition to this the candle which was now a stump, suddenly flared, flckered and disappeared. Then slowly the sound outside the door seemed to retreat up the sairs, and was gone for a moment. Then on trying to strike a match, I dropped the matchbox and while groping for it, I suddenly looked up and saw two eyes like burning coals. I stood there stunned, sweating and the cold blood creeping in my frightened veins.

The ghostly monster tore and wrenched at the outer grating which were old and rusty. They soon gave way and crumpled to the ground in a shower of dust. The next instant, the strong glass of the window flew to selvers on to the floor. There was now only the second grating between myself and this hideous beast. In sheer terror, I rushed forward and struck at the grating with all my force. A horrible, hair raising growl answered the blow and the bar was wrenched from my grasp. It soon gave up its assault on the grating and hissing, and scratching at the bars, retreated from the window.

Although I lost all fear for my life now, the sheer horror of that mighty beastial thing, made me grovel down in the darkest corner of the room and pray to God. The cool moist air that blew through the broken glass window caressed my skin gently and dried my forehead of the sweat.

A little later, as I lay there in the corner, there came a loud thundering at the door. Fear crept back into me at the thought of the beast arriving again but along with the thundering, there were voices — human voices. I stretched my arms and staggered towards the door. As I unlocked and opened the door, all the strength seemed to have lost from my body and I fell into the inviting arms of James, the house-keeper. Raising my head slowly, I saw the pale face of my best friend, Joe, and a smile rose to my quivering lips.

"Please don't ask about it, — not to-night," I managed to say, "Let me sleep first," was all I could say at that moment and my head slumped forward.

A NARROW ESCAPE

News blaring over the radio informed us that at Malacca, in a little fishing village, several strangers had landed and had immediately disappeared into the thick nearby jungles. There was an official request from the Government for volunteers to help capture them. Many of us readily joined in the police hunt to track down these intruders. I volunteered, partly because I loved adventure and partly because I wanted to see these dangerous enemies caught and and brought to justice. Little had I imagined, that in joining that hunt, I was about to have the greatest adventure in my life.

It was late evening as our party, many of whom were armed, scoured the jungles near the kampong in search of the intruders. To speak the truth, we were a bit afraid, for many were the stories of the enemies' ruthlessness and cunningness that reached our ears. They had come to destroy the nation slowly and it was said that they did not care by what means they achieved this aim as long as they fulfilled their mission.

A sudden impulse made me to branch off in another direction; something in my mind told me that there was a rustling sound somewhere and it urged me to investigate. Very soon I found myself some distance from the party, amidst thick bushes and wild undergrowths. Suddenly, someone grasped me and clamped my mouth with a strong hand. I was forced low to the ground, so noiselessly that no one in the party could have heard it. I looked up and saw that there were two of them, one holding me fast and still clamping my mouth while the other eyed me in a wickedly truimphant manner. They kept me in this position for some time, waiting for the party to move away. The sharp glinting end of a knife in the hand of one of them made my blood run cold. "Make a sound, and this goes plunging into your stomach," he hissed. "Come along!" My only hope as I was led away by the two men was that I would be missed soon by the party who would then come in search of me. But would they me? My heart was thumping so much that I was thought my captors might hear it. On they led me. I was sure that they were going to take me to their leader who would probably subject me to torture to extract vital information.

A desperate idea formed within me. Perspiration stood out on my forehead as I tensely waited for my captor's grip to slacken. That moment soon came, and before the two men could realise it, I had broken out of their grasp, swift as a spurt of lightning, and was crashing my way through the trees and undergrowth. The two men, cursing and swearing, pursued me. I was fortunate that neither of them possessed a pistol then! Soon fate came to my assistance. One of my pursuers tripped over a root and fell. While the other's attention was thus momentarily distracted, I dived adroitly into a clump of bushes and hid there. I picked a piece of dried tree-stump and flung it into some bushes about forty feet away. The ruse worked and the enemies hurried towards that spot. As soon as they were out of hearing distance, I cautiously made my escape, crawling and creeping as noiselessly as I could.

The climax to my adventure is that, about two hours later, acting on information I had given, the police made a thorough search and captured every one of the intruders.My achievement was commended the next day in the papers where the story of my escape was told dramatically and was read by everyone in my neighbourhood.

GOLDEN ADVICE

In the pocket-book of the Hon. Stephen Allen, who was drowned when the "Henry Clay" burned on the Hudson several years since, has been found a slip apparently cut from the newspaper, of which the following is a copy. It is worthy to be engraved on every young man's heart :

ALWAYS	speak the truth.
NEVER	speak evil of anyone.
MAKE	few promises.
KEEP	good company or none.
LIVE	up to your engagements.
NEVER	play a game of chance.
DRINK	no kind of intoxicating liquor.
GOOD	character is about all thing else.
KEEP	your own secrets if you have any.
NEVER	borrow if you possibly can help it.
NO NOT	marry until you are able to support a wife.
KEEP	yourself innocent if you would be happy.
WHEN	you speak to a person, look him in the face.
MAKE	no haste to be rich, if you would prosper.
EVER	live (misfortunes excepted) within your income.
SAVE	when you are young to spend when you are old.
AVOID	temptation, through fear you may not withstand it.
NEVER	run into a debt unless you see a way to get out again.
SMALL	and steady gains give competency, with a tranquil mind.
GOOD	company and good conversation are the sinews of virtue.
YOUR	character cannot be essentially injured, except by your own.
IF	anyone speaks evil of you, let your life be such that no one will believe him.
DO NOT	be idle: if your hands can't be employed usefully, attend to the cultivation of your mind.
WHEN	you retire to bed, think over what you have been doing during the day.

READ OVER THE ABOVE MAXIMS CAREFULLY AND THOUGHTFULLY AT LEAST ONCE A WEEK.

DO YOU HAVE A DESIRE FOR GOD?

One day a very curious boy happened to meet a priest. The boy said, "Father, shall God come to me?"

The priest replied, "My child, do you have a desire for God? Then God shall come to you."

The boy did not understand the answer fully. The priest said" Son, would you like to come for a swim with me?"

The boy, very anxious to get a clearer answer, agreed to follow the priest.

When they reached the pool, the priest said, "Plunge in," and the boy did so.

In a moment the priest was upon him, holding him down. He did not let the boy to come up. When the boy began to struggle vigorously, the priest gradually released his hold on him and the boy shot out panting for want of air.

"Yes, my child, how did you feel down there?"

"Oh! The desire for a breath of air," gasped the boy.

"Do you have that kind of desire for God?"

"No, Father."

"Have that kind of desire for God, and you shall have Him."

DEBIT PAYS IN HOT LEAD

The burning ball began to appear from below the horizon, throwing out its streaks of golden rays and casting long shadows over the town. The air was peaceful and fresh. It was the beginning of a good day for everyone, all except one man.

The light shone through Cannon's hotel-window and found him sitting on the edge of his bed. He knew the day had come and that the duel had been made. He began to recall past memories some twenty years back : how his parents, brothers and sisters had been tortured, and then, shot through their heads. But the miracle was that he had managed to escape unscathed from the brutal hands of the bandits; and the conspicuous mark on one of them had been indelibly etched in his memory since then. It was not easy to find him, and he had spent half his life time searching. But now, at last, the quarry was in his reach and he was going to settle things once and for all.

As Cannon buckled his belt, he looked into the mirror. What he saw was hatred, hatred for the man who had so brutally killed his family. His hand went down and reached for the gun in its holster, twirled the chamber until he was satisfied with the sound it made, loaded it and replaced it in the holster. Then he walked towards the swing-door.

People lined the street, and at the other end stood a motionless figure. He pushed the swing door ajar and walked out, paused on the veranda and then stepped down into the street. On either side people were silent as he sauntered past them towards the other end. He paused, fifty yards from the figure, and then resumed, taking each step with deliberate slowness.

Now Cannon could see Mc'Call's face. The scar which had betrayed him stood out clearly in the sunlight, long and ugly, right across the left cheek. McCall broke the silence, "It was not . . . . " But Cannon interrupted "Less talk, you dog! " he snarled. In his wrath, anger flared all over him. "I want to settle this business once and for all, quick and fast." Mc'Call was silent.

Both men stared facing each other, hands dropped by the sides. Cannon could see fear in the other's eyes, and the perspiration on the forehead, glittering in the sun. Mc'Call wiped the sweat with a dirty handkerchief, and as he replaced it, quickly reached for his gun. But Cannon was too quick for him. The avenger's hand went down and up again in a flash as both men's weapons left leather. With the Colt in his right hand he slashed his left on the hammer. A sharp pain bit the other's shoulder as the Colt exploded in his face. Cannon slashed the hammer once again and again until the hammer snapped against emptyness. The impact of the bullets had sent the other spinning round. The gun fell and landed on the ground, sending a wild slug over the heads of the crowded people. The bulky figure crumpled like an empty sack and lay face downwards, motionless.

He did not know how long he had stood there, staring blankly at the ground. The job was completed. Slowly he turned, without casting an eye at the bullet-riddled body, walked across the street and swung into his horse. All eyes were fixed on him.

As the distant cloud of dust faded, the crowd began to move towards the body of Mc'Call.

THE BARGAIN

"Flight 137b, Scandinavian Airways System, coming in from Oslo."

Well dressed people stood along the corridor of Airporte Internationale de Paris as they watched the Boeing 727 coming in to land. Three anxious men sat together on the long sofa-bench in the waiting-room-lounge. They had cups of coffee on the table in front of them. The middle man sitting in between the other two wore spectacles. The man on the right of him was in a light-grey suit while the other wore a dark-blue one. The man wearing spectacles looked like a Russian.

The Boeing had already landed and its passengers were coming into the room. Just then a British in a green-checked suit came near the three men and spoke softly, "I think he is coming in now." Far out in the entrance way, a golden-haired Russian wearing sun-glasses walked in, and threw a quick glance around the room. He had a small suitcase with him. A French attendant went near him and said loudly, "Oh, the Russian waiting for you must have gone back".

"In that case do you know where I can find him?"

"I do not know, but I think the operator does. He telephoned her before he left. Please use this phone." The attendant showed him the special booth and he entered. The French, looking back at the three men on the sofa, nodded his head three times.

After a short while, the Russian came out of the booth without his suitcase. A woman wanted to enter the booth, but the quick-witted French attendant quickly stopped her by saying that a man was waiting for her in the car park. The Russian walked towards the luncheon-room and sat on one of the tables, looking at the menu.

Meanwhile, the British in the green-checked suit got up and walked into the telephone booth. He picked up the suitcase, opened it, and looked through the papers inside, quickly but carefully. The Frenchman was still on guard outside. A minute later, the British came out carrying the suitcase, now hand-locked. The three men immediately got up and walked towards the luncheon room, with the British following behind at a distance of about three yards.

The man who looked like a Russian left the other two and sat down casually opposite the Russian who was now eating. The other two men and the British sat on the table close to them. The golden-haired Russian asked the spectacled one in front of him, "Where was the first apple tree planted?"

"In the garden of Czar Peter the First."

A few more secret questions were asked and answered correctly. The golden-haired Russian was satisfied. So his fellow agent was not faked or drugged. He said, "Come on, the Interview is waiting for us." After having paid, the two Russians walked out of the room and were gone.

The British looked at his friends. "Everything is done. We only have to transport this back to England," he said, pointing at the suitcase. "My only fear was that these secret documents could have been forged."

"The French serviceman was a great help. Think of it, if the woman had entered and found this suitcase, everything would be in a mess and we would be having the heads of the B.S.S. departments down our necks!" the man in light grey remarked.

"That Russian we were holding was a top man. The other fellow had to make really sure that it was the same man," the British agent explained.

The man in dark-blue suit enquired, "Say, although these documents were stolen only yesterday, they have microfilmed it already."

"Yes, yes! but we have extracted enough information from the agent we caught to balance our knowledge. So it is a good and fair bargain after all!"

THE IMPORTANCE OF EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Nowadays, schools all over the world have accepted the idea of having extra-curricular activities for their students. Extra-curricular activities are part of the Ministry of Education's plan to develop both brilliant and physically fit youth for the nation's future population.

These activities include the playing of various games and the joining of certain voluntary organisations. This can be done only after school hours and it is like extra work for the keen and energetic pupils of the school. They come, usually in the afternoons, and play a few games or practise a certain one so as to improve their skill and tactics in it.

No student should deprive himself of these activities for, as the saying goes, "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy", and a student who goes to school, studies and returns home to study again, not going out to play any game will eventually become weak and be exposed to the common diseases. No doubt he learns a lot but, what is the use of a great scholar if he is always vulnerable to diseases? In order to abolish this unhealthy habit the Government has introduced the idea of extracurricular activities to the schools and many schools have already made it compulsory for their students to join at least two societies or clubs and to play at least two games. A useful citizen of a country should be fit, both physically and mentally.

The Scout movement is a very good example of an extra-curricular activity. In this movement the members are trained to endure hardship in every way. It builds up a strong and healthy group of young men who in the future would be a great asset to the nation.

Without some sort of pastime in which the body is involved both physically and mentally, the citizens of this country would eventually become bookworms and weaklings, unable to withstand any hardship at all. If the body is frail and weak the mind too would not function properly. This should stress the utmost importance of extra-curricular activities for the body's well-being.

There are many who tend to think that extra-curricular activities are a mere waste of time and that if they involved themselves in spheres of physical action they would be sure to fail their examinations. This fear is certainly unfounded for nowadays we so often read about the achievements of outstanding athletes, not only in the field but also in their studies, illustrating the fact that extra-curricular activities play a vital part in the development of physical and mental finess. At the same time, racial harmony in a cosmopolitan country like Malaysia can be brought about by holding inter-school competitions in games like soccer, hockey, cricket, volleyball and badminton (to quote a few) and by having frequent inter-school quizzes and debates.

Therefore, there is no doubt about it, extra-curricular activities should be encouraged or made compulsory in schools because of their invaluable assistance in building up a strong, healthy and brilliant generation of young citizens for a progressive country.

AN EVENING IN THE COUNTRYSIDE

The crimson sun, exhausted after having provided heat and light for the day, was making preparations to set in the west. As I was walking along a path in the outskirts of Kuala Lumpur, I was struck by the peace and simple beauty of the countryside. Away from the bustling, noisy towns, here was a wonderful world of its own, with people who knew not how to cheat but led honest lives.

Everything here flourished and blossomed under the golden touch of Nature. The flowers raised a fragrant aroma. The waters of a swift stream reflected the brilliance of the setting sun. The leaves swayed gently in the breeze to the rhythm of the water hitting on rocks and pebbles. A lilting melody floated in the air from a transistor.

As I surveyed the general lay of the kampong, a solitary figure with a changkul on his shoulder caught my eye. Here was a farmer returning home after a toilsome day in the padi-fields under a torrid sun. His wife would welcome him home, my thoughts travelled, and once he was comfortably settled in a chair, he would yearn for the future when such labourious work would be no more.

Yonder a woman was sitting crocheting. Her protruding middle and ample proportions bore testimony that that was the only thing she ever did. Her three offsprings were busily engaged in a hectic game of hop-scotch. Presently a quarrel would break out, I was sure, but as is common among children, they would be reconciled in no time.

I saw a parent sing humourous lullabies to entertain his crying baby. Two brothers were fishing in a pond, without much success. Some boys were engaged in a hectic game of football, while reposing under a shady tree was a 'bookworm' reading a thick book. Some enthusiastic amateur gardeners were watering the herbaceous border of their home.

Suddenly I realised that night was approaching. Stars were twinkling and the moon came out from behind a cloud to spread her radiance on the country-side and to become the sentinel of this paradise.

THE LEADER IN MY COUNTRY I ADMIRE MOST

The leader I admire most in my country is Tengku Abdul Rahman, the Prime Minister of Malaysia. I have not had the good fortune to meet the Tengku, but from what I read in the newspapers and hear from the others, I think that he is one of the great leaders of Modern Asia.

Coming from a Royal family, this man has always considered himself as one of the common people of the country. He is humble and has full control over his mind and temper. He admits his mistakes and has a good sense of humour. It is, therefore, not surprising that he has been able to lead his people for more than a decade.

It was Tengku Abdul Rahman who freed his people from foreign rule after years of struggle. When Malaya became independent, many people feared that there would be trouble and chaos in the country. But our Prime Minister was confident about the country's progress as an independent nation and it did not take long for those who felt gloomy about the future to change their views. They soon began to admire him and have complete trust in his leadership. Even the British, respect and admire him.

Under the leadership of Tengku Abdul Rahman, Malaysia has become the envy of many emergent countries. The people here are happy and contented. Though the people of this country are of several races, they live in peace and harmony.

Like all great leaders, the Tengku has the welfare of his people at heart. As an enlightend leader he is doing his utmost to promote the well being of his people. Under his leadership the government is doing its best to spread literacy to remote regions of the country. More and more schools are being set up in every corner of the land. The government is also doing everything possible to remove and prevent diseases of all sorts. Forests are being cleared to give the people more land. Roads are being improved, and the rights of the people have been guaranteed by the constitution of the country. What more can a man do for his country? Malaysia is indeed fortunate to have such a leader.

MYTHS AND LEGENDS

Since the dawn of history, man had feared the clash of thunder, marvelled at the beautiful sunset and puzzled at his own existence. Man could not understand these and other natural phenomena so he created myths and lengends.

Myths and legends are designed to explain many of the things which man did not understand at that time. Some of these tales told of a superhuman who brought forth lightning and thunder in his anger, of an immortal beauty who showed her grace in the sunset and other similar beings whom they called Gods and Goddesses Consequently, these beliefs led to the offering of food sacrifices (sometimes of human beings) to please these legendary superhumans. They did it in the fear that if they did not perform these rites, the anger of the Gods would befall them, bringing disaster to their home and family.

Myths and legends also gave rise to many other superstitious practices as is evident in the case of the Inca religion. The Incas believe that they were protected by a number of Gods with a king above them all. When they were in trouble they often made human sacrifices dressed in kingly garbs. These sacrifices, the Incas believed, would enable them to communicate with the Gods. Strange to say, this belief that they were protected by their Gods actually led to their own conquest by the Spaniards.

As man progessed, these myths and legends inevitably gave place to facts. They are remembered now only as part of the history of mankind and frequently resorted to as a mere means of pastime.

SERVING MEN

I keep six honest serving men;
    Their names are What and Why and When and How and Where and Who.
I send them over land and sea;
    I send them East and West;
And after they have worked for me,
    I give them all a rest.

I let them rest from nine till five,
    For I am busy then,
And also during breakfast, lunch and tea,
    For they are hungry men.
But different folks have different views,
    I know a person small —
She keeps ten million serving men,
    Who get no rest at all.

She sends them abroad on her own affairs,
    From the second she opens her eye —
One million Hows, two million Wheres,
    And seven million Whys.

AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF A CAR

I am a Mercedes Benz and I was born in Germany. When I had been assembled I was sent to the sea-port and a few days later, after a very tiring sea trip, I found myself in Singapore with several of my friends. We were sent to the Cycle and Carriage Company where I was put on show. Many people came to look at me, for I was a fine car with a bright coating of green paint and had a large passenger seating (as many as ten people).

Very soon a Chinese towkay came and bought me for thirty-thousand dollars. I was quite happy with my master. He was very kind and every morning he washed me before driving me to his office. I served him for ten years. My master decided to sell me then for I was getting old. I felt very sad as I did not want to part with the kind man.

I was sold to a young man who proved to be a reckless driver and very soon I began to hate him. He treated me as if I were a dog. A few months later, while he was driving me, we met with an accident and my new master died on the spot. I was crushed beyond repair and had to be towed to the junkyard. So, here I am today, dirty and rusty.

HE WHO LAUGHS — LASTS

Dad: What would you ask if God appeared in front of you?

Son: Surely dad, you should know, it is wealth that I would ask for. What else?

Dad: You fool, if I were you, I would ask for more knowledge.

Son: It's very understandable dad. Everyone will ask for only the thing they lack.

Dan: Who is the richest man in the world, Ben?

Ben: Hmmm . . . . I think it must be the man who prints paper money, right?

A bather ,on a chilly overcast morning, ordered hot coffee from a beachside snack bar.

"Cream or sugar, sir?" asked the waiter.

"It doesn't matter," shivered the bather. "I'm only going to pour it on my feet."

The doctor's explanation to a three hundred pound patient: "These pills I'm prescribing to you are not to be swallowed. You just spill them on the floor twice a day and pick them up one at a time."

Girl: Mum, my cat can count.

Mother: But how?

Girl: Well, I asked my cat what is three take away three. It said nothing.

A boy talking to his friend.

Boy: Last night I felt that my watch was gone.

Friend: And what happened in the morning?

Boy: In the morning, I discovered that my watch was still going.

Mr. Raju said to a student, "Spell Mouse."

Student: M-o-u-s-.

Mr. Raju: What's the end of it?

Student: A tail, sir.

Customer: Just look at this chicken you served me — one leg is longer than the other.

Waiter: Where you planning to eat it or dance with it ?

Jack: Would you like to be in a collision or an explosion?

Jill: A collision of course! In a collision there you are. But in an explosion where you are?

Worker: I haven't slept for ten days.

Boss: Aren't you tired?

Worker: No, I only slept at nights.

Father: Were the test questions hard?

Son: Oh, the questions were easy. Actually it was the answers I had trouble with.

We had our first committee meeting on 9th. January, 1969 during which Mr. James Amoz briefed us on our responsibilities and we also made some amendments to the set of Library rules. Immediately after this meeting the Student Librarians began to strain all their efforts for the improvement of the Library, following closely the plans drawn earlier during the meeting.

The Library was opened to the students in the middle of January. Each Librarian was alloted special assignments and we had to turn up almost every Saturday morning to carry out our respective duties. During these sessions damaged books were mended and new books were classified and the Form Four Librarians were also taught how to do this work.

Owing to limited funds, we were only able to purchase about $1,200/- worth of books, both English and Malay. Our records show that our present stock of books had exceeded the 5,000 mark and 3 new shelves had to be added.

During the second term a 'Jumble Sale' was held whereby old paper-back books were sold to the students at a very cheap price. The result, however, was far from good, but we were able to make some profit. The money was used for buying materials for Library use.

The 'Operation Bookworm' was launched on 24th. February, 1969 for a period of one month but the response from the students and staff was rather poor. Prizes were awarded to the three best individual donors and a half-dav holiday was awarded to Form 4 - A (the class that donated the most number of books and magazines — 153 points).

The individual winners were as follows : -

First prize awarded to	:	Khor Hock Huat (Form 4 - A) —	110 points
Second prize awarded to	:	Mohd. Basheer (Form 4 - C) —	104 points
Third prize awarded to	:	Aruldass (Form 5 - A) —	50 points

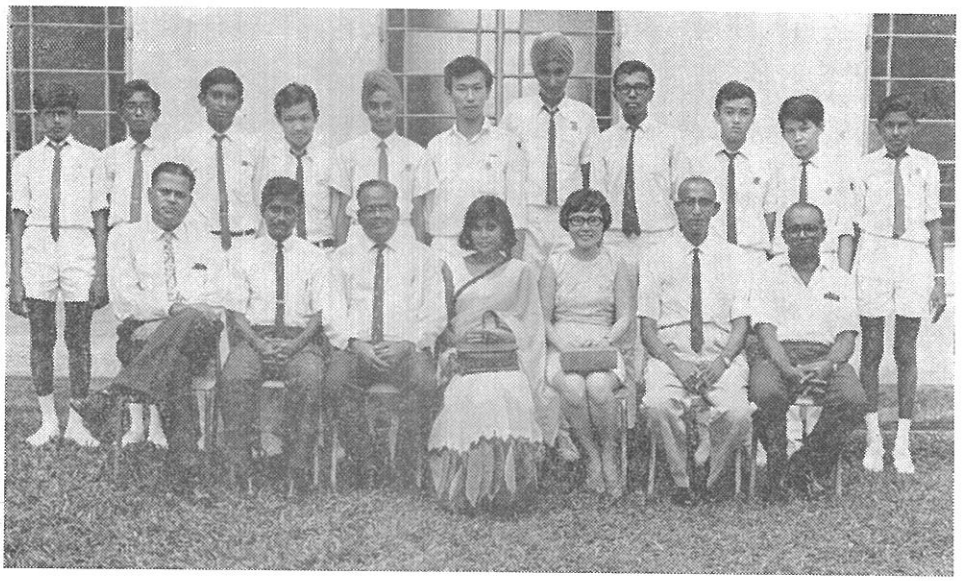

Recently we received a donation of 106 books from the Asia Foundation. We are indeed grateful to them for their help.

Unfortunately, we were unable to open the Reference Section to Students for their self-studies and research in the Library because our present Library is already too congested for such purposes. However, we intend to have the entire second floor of the Science Block for our Library next year and we hope all these facilities will be made available to them by then.

On behalf of the Library Committee I would like to thank our Principal Mr. Kwong Sea Khoon, for his encouragement and support and also the large number of books he so kindly donated to the Library during the Operation Book-worm. We are also greatly indebted to our Master-in-charge, Mr. James Amoz, for the efficiency of the Library is mainly due to his invaluable guidance and untiring efforts to improve the Library. Finally I would also like to thank the teachers and students for their co-operation during class sessions.

THE CHAPEL COMMITTEE, 1969

Seated (L. to R.): Mr. Zachariah K.G., Mr. James Amoz, Mr. J.N. Singam, Miss Jemi Gunakken, Miss Tan Ee, Mr. Arthur Lee, Mr. William David.

Three boys from the Juniors and eight from the Seniors make up this committee. The Juniors meet on Fridays in the afternoon and the Seniors in the mornings. During the first term we had several speakers, many of whom were from various churches throughout Kuala Lumpur. Our Chaplin, the Rev. Chin San Seong, was responsible for this. He is also the Chairman of the Eumenical Movement in Sentul. Our gratitude goes to him for his work in getting the speakers.

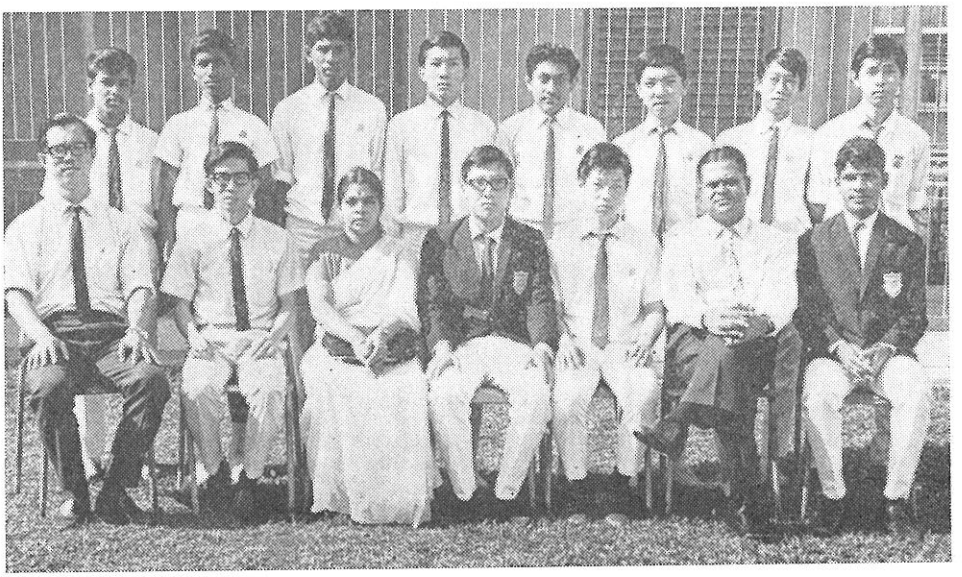

We celebrated the Religious Emphasis Week in our school from the seventh to the eleventh of July. It was the most important series of Chapel Services we had this year. Our guest speaker was the Rev. David Slope. The Juniors had two services while the Seniors had four. We also had a "Question Time" in connection with the R.E.W. This programme was conducted in the classrooms of the boys by Pastors and Christian workers from various churches. Following the Religious Emphasis Week, a group was formed to discuss students' problems. The group met every Friday afternoon under the charge of our Chaplin, the Rev. Chin.

In the beginning of the year, the Committee drew up several programmes for the current year but due to the recent disturbances we regret to say that very little has been accomplished.

In conclusion we would like to thank the Rev. Chin and the teachers concerned for all the effort and enthusiasm they have put in to make our Chapel Service a great success.

The main aim of the society is to promote and instil interest in science and maths among the pupils of Forms Three, Four and Five.

The society began with many programmes and all the way everything went on well. Attendance was always satisfactory.

We had the annual Inter-House Science and Mathematics Quiz on 27th. March, 1969. Blue House emerged as champions with Yellow House as the runners-up. The members of the winning team were awarded book prizes. Mr. Quah Sek Leong, one of the advisers, gave an interesting lecture on Organic Chemistry in one of the meetings.

We regret to report that the school Science and Mathematics Exhibition which was to be held on a small scale on the Speech Day, the 25th. of July, 1969 was cancelled due to the recent disturbances. The Science and Mathematics bulletin was published.

Finally, I wish to thank the advisers for their help and guidance. It is my fervent hope that the society will continue to grow and forge yet further ahead in the coming year.

The Society has a membership of eighty. We had a fairly successful year of activities. During the early part of the year, we had interesting quizzes and talks given by the Advisers.

The Society held a Maths Quiz but unfortunately we were not able to complete the Quiz. We were also very unfortunate in being unable to invite Guest Speakers to talk to us.

Finally, on behalf of the President and the members, I wish to thank the Advisers for their invaluable advice, guidance and keen interest in the Society which enabled its smooth running through the course of the year.

The year was not a very successful one for the Society and we were not able to hold many meetings. This was mainly because very few boys were interested in becoming members and only a handful turned up for meetings. We also had to turn down several invitations to debates and quizzes from several schools due to lack of volunteers.

The first meeting was held on the 11th. of February, when office-bearers were elected for the running year and suggested activities for the term brought to review. During the first term we managed to hold a debate and an oratorical contest.

There were no meetings for the second term in view of the new school regulations due to the state of Emergency in the country.

During the third term, circumstances permitting, we expect to hold more meetings and arrange a few talks from interesting personalities. We also expect to hold an inter-class quiz on General Knowledge.

In concluding this report I would like to write on behalf of the members of the Society thanking the advisers for their help in conducting the meetings and also for the advice rendered.

The interesting activities in the course of the year were : -

1. The first debate, "Co-education should be abolished," was a mock debate Form Two classes.

2. A debate, "Country Life is better than Town," was held between Form One A and Forms One B and One C Combined. The former who proposed this topic, emerged victors.

3. The first quiz in General Knowledge was held among Forms 1 & 2 with the combination of 2-A & 1-B against 2-B & 1-A. Forms 2-A & 1-B.

The occasion was high-lighted by a variety programmes in which various classes participated. Members showed keen enthusiasm and many came forward with inspiring speeches, songs and short plays. The programme was indeed very successful.

Our programme for the second term was curtailed due to the May disturbances.

During the third term we intend to hold more debates and quizzes and to go on excursions.

On the whole, we had a successful and eventful year. The response of the members was encouraging but we still hope more new members would volunteer to participate in the programmes.

Finally, on behalf of the society, I wish to thank the advisers for their advice, guidance and keen interest shown in the society.

At the General Meeting held on the 20th. February, 1969, the above office-bearers were elected for the current year.

The committee, since the inception of the Society, has tried to promote and foster historical and geographical interest by organising educational tours, playing recordings of Historical and Geographical relevance and conducting quizzes of Historical and Geographical interest.

During the first term we had several interesting programmes. The highlight was the Inter-House Quiz. Red House emerged the Champion and White House was the runners-up.

At the beginning of the second term, we planned an excursion to Genting Sempah but permission was not granted. We hope to visit interesting places during the third term.

At this juncture, our members will be participating in the Annual Inter-School Fourth Form Quiz and a Historical Quiz organised by the Historical Society, University of Malaya. We wish them the very best success.

Our second term activities were hampered by the recent disturbances and the Society was crippled for a long time.

The committee notes with regret that not all members are giving their full support to the activities ot fhe Society. Without the support of the members, the Society cannot function properly. It is hoped that in future, the members will give their whole hearted support.

Finally the Committee wishes to thank the Advisers for their invaluable help and support to the Society.

The Society commenced its activities for the year immediately after the General Meeting.

We organised Quiz Competitions and sponsored talks. The Red House was the overall winner in the Inter-House Quiz and Benjamin was the individual Champion.

During the end of the first term, we were fortunate to have A.S.P. Mokhtar who gave us an enlightening talk on the "The Police Force in Sentul."

Immediately after the beginning of the second term, we combined with the Form V - B Concert Committee to sponsor a 'Cavalcade,' a Talentime in aid of the needy students of our school. Last minute arrangements had already been finalised and the first tickets were being sold when the disturbances set in and dealt the death blow to this keenly anticipated event.

We hope that next year, the committee members will carry out this task successfully.

Last but not least, we would like to thank the Advisers for their guidance in making the Society a success.

Hingga akhir Penggal Pertama tahun 1969, ahli Persatuan ini berjumlah sa-ramai 70 orang yang terdiri daripada segala bangsa murid2 sekolah ini. Hingga pada masa laporan ini di-tulis keanggotan Persatuan ini tidak berubah, tetap sa-ramai itu juga.

Di-bawah peraturan sekolah yang telah di-tetapkan, Persatuan ini hanya berpeluang mengadakan perjumpaan sa-kali sahaja dalam tiap2 dua minggu. Ja-watankuasa telah menyusun beberapa ranchangan yang berfaedah kapada ahli2-nya untok di-laksanakan dalam tahun 1969 ini saumpama ranchangan mengada-kan peraduan sharahan dan bahath, menduga akal, karang mengarang antara rumah2 sukan dan antara sekolah2. Ranchangan mengadakan kelas2 Bahasa Me-layu juga di-adakan bagi menambah pelajaran Bahasa Melayu kapada murid2 Melayu dan murid2 Bukan Melayu, kerana sekolah ini hanya mengadakan pela-jaran Bahasa Kebangsaan sahaja. We carried out all our planned programmes for the first term. The I.S.C.F. meets every Mondays at 1.10 p.m. We have an average attendance of thirty-five at every meeting. This year we had a variety of programmes including, Bible Studies, Quizes, Singspiration and talks. We had two guest speakers who spoke on the themes, "Is God Concerned About Me?" and "Failure is not Final." We found these talks interestings and helpful.

Our programmes planned for the second term were not carried out because of the recent disturbances.

However, we hope we will be able to have our regular meetings again during the third term.

The office-bearers were elected during the annual general meeting of the club. We have a fair number of members this year. Although new chess sets were introduced, the club still suffers from a lack of both International and Chinese chess sets. Practices were held twice a week, namely, on Fridays for the upper secondary and on Wednesdays for the lower secondary.

The school took part in the Inter-School Chess Tournament organised by the M.B.S., K.L. and V.I. which which was held in March.

The following boys represented the School : —

(2) Ng Ling Kiat
(3) P. Gunasegaram

The school did not do very well in the Tournament. However it is hoped that more pupils will take an interest in the Chess Club next year.

The Inter-House competition was held during the second term. Red House and Yellow House emerged as the champions. The individual championships was cancelled owing to recent disturbances.

Finally, on behalf of the members of the Chess Club, I wish to thank the Principal, Mr. Lee Hung Yen and Mr. Quah Sek Leong for their support and invaluable guidance.

For the Aquarists' Club, it was the word 'GO' from the very first school day of the year. Our club was the first in the school to convene a General Meeting on January 8th this year. The above office bearers were elected and Mr. Tan gave an outline of the programme of activities for the year. The response was very good and to date we have a total of 112 paid-up members as compared to 90 for last year.

Aims of the Club :

(i) To stimulate and encourage an interest in the fish keeping hobby.

(ii) To widen members' knowledge on the various aspects of the hobby.

(iii) To enable members to minimise on the cost of the hobby.

To achieve these aims, the committee drew up early in the year a full and varied programme of activities which it has so far been very successful in carrying out. We still have a full Term ahead of us and we are certain that much more will be achieved before the year ends. Credit must be given to members of the committee and to Mr. Tan for their untiring efforts in making the Aquarists' Club to be the most active and popular club in the school to-day.

Activities to promote interest :

SHOWS AND COMPETITIONS : At the end of each term the club organised a fairly big scaled Fish Show or Competition in the school hall. So far all these shows were very successful and very well attended. The hall was usually packed with boys for the whole duration of the show. There was never any lack of entries for the competitions — in fact quite often we had to reject a few as the club has only sixty tanks. One reason for the good response was the many handsome prizes given away to the winners for all our Fish Shows. The club is very grateful to the Selangor Aquarists' Society for sending their fish experts to judge at our shows as well as for donating a handsome challenge trophy to us.

In November 1968 our club made its debut at the 3rd Annual Fish Exhibition of the Selangor Aquarists' Society in the Stadium Negara and we carried away 13 prizes, including 7 Firsts. This was indeed an achievement to be proud of. Given below are the results in detail :

Goldfish — Shubunkin	First & Second
Goldfish — Lionhead	First & Third

Activities to widen knowledge :

LIBRARY : Recently we purchased 22 books on Aquaria and fish to form the nucleus of our library. This proved to be very popular with our members, who are allowed to borrow them home. With the availability of more funds we hope to have a big and good collection of such books in the near future.

BULLETINS: Every month members are issued with a news bulletin free of charge. Our two editors, Khor Hock Huat and Khoo Hong Kee, have succeeded in producing such a good piece of work that members look forward eagerly to the news bulletin every month. The purpose of the bulletin is to disseminate news to members and to keep them abreast with the activities of the club. Members are also encouraged to express their views or voice their problems here. Another popular feature of this bulletin is the word puzzle, the brain-child of Khor Hock Huat.

FILM SHOWS : On February 13th the Aquarists' Club organised a free film show for members in the Science Lab. The room was packed. Several reels of film borrowed from the Selangor Aquarists' Society were screened.

TALKS : On May 9th our adviser, Mr. Tan, gave a very interesting talk on 'The Decorated Tanks' to members of the club. He also answered many of the questions put forward to him. In the course of the year, we are hoping to get a few fish experts to talk to us in the school.

Activities to minimise on cost :

FISH SHOP : Ever since its inception in March 1968, the Aquarists' Club Fish Shop was always crowded on the two days in the week that it opened for business. Fish, fish food and a wide range of aquarium accessories were sold at well below the outside market price to members only. Members were also encouraged to bring their excess fish for sale to help them recover a little on their initial outlay. The margin of profit was small but because of the brisk business, we were able to accumulate enough founds to finance all our club activities. Recently with the purchase of an air pump and other accessories, we have at last been able to supply aeration to most of the tanks in our club room. Thus we can now keep all our fish there and not have to take them all home after every fish sale.

Because of the success of our fish shop, we managed to have even a little excess funds which we decided to give away to charity in the form of scholarships. Hence in March this year the sum of $67.50 was presented to Sin Eng Joo of Form 2-A to pay for his school fees from April to December 1969. The committee had also decided to try their best to award a scholarship to at least one deserving boy every year.

Other Activities :

On March 25th four of our committee members were invited to Federal House to talk on the M.B.S., Sentul Aquarists' Club over Radio Malaysia. The talk went on the air on Saturday April 5th under 'Teenage Programme'.

THE ART CLUB 1969

Seated (L. to R.): Mr. Choong Foh Leong, Low Sheng Boon, Parameswaran, Ng Huat, Ooi Lean Seng Yong Chwee San, Samuel A., Mrs. Soong Mun Wai.

Secretary	Yong Chwee San
Asst. Secretary	Low Sheng Boon
Treasurer	Parameswaran

This year the Art Club members are mainly from the Senior Forms. As a result we have only about thirty members. However this does not mean that we are inactive and have been left behind by the other societies in regular activities. The high spirit and willing co-operation amoung the members have helped a great deal in enabling us to keep pace with the other societies.

Our main aims were to help and encourage those interested in Art; to assist and prepare those taking Art for their examinations and to teach the boys to be more observant.

We have our meeting once a week, and usually on Friday. During the meetings, we discuss problems facing some of the members. Sometimes practical work is done on wood carving and lino printing. Suggestions for the following week are made on the day of the meeting. At the beginning of the year, lectures were given on the different types of art and craft. Various interesting objects, if cleverly 'changed' by the hands of an artist, would make the practical side of art an interesting part of education itself, both during school days as well as for a career in the Future.

Before I conclude, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the headmaster for his financial assistance, the Adviser Mr. Choong for his valuable advice and to all members of the Art Club for their enthusiastic support.

Captain:	...	...	...	Athiselvam
Vice-Captain:	...	...	...	Wan Chee Meng
Hon. Secretary:		...	...	K. Arumugam
Adviser:	...	...	...	Mr. Low Thin Wing

At the first General Meeting, the above office-bearers were elected for the current year.

Immediately after the Annual House Meeting (30th January, 1969), the boys trained hard for the Cross-Country, each individual aiming for the 'Goal' (the Challenge Trophy presented by Mr. Kok Ah Too). The Cross-Country route was lengthened this year.

At the end of the First Term, the School Annual Cross-country race was held. After a hard struggle, favourite Samuel romped home, followed by Khaled and Ponnusamy respectively.

Once again, Green House was first in both team event and overall placing.

In the Standard Sports held during each class P.E. lessons, the overall winner was Green House with 359 points and Blue House was runner-up.

Due to the recent disturbances, our school's 23rd Annual Athletic Meeting was held during school hours. But, the Athletes who participated in the meet deserved special praise for the spirit and mettle they displayed and making the competition keen and lively.

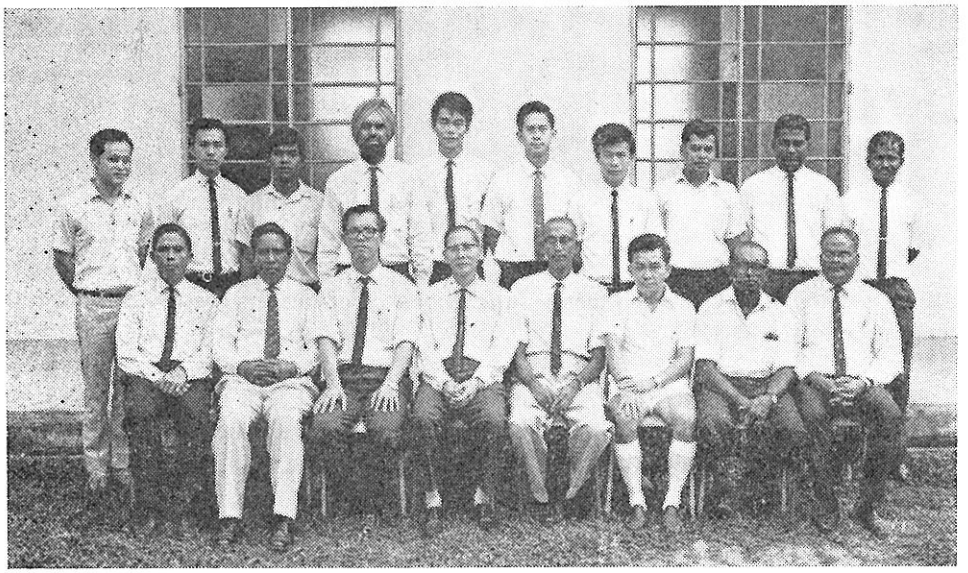

No records were broken because of the sudden 'Mini Scale' Sports. But distinction should be given to Athiselvam who emerged first in 400 metres, 800 metres, 1500 metres and led his House Team (4 x 400 meters) to victory.

We wish all the Athletes the very best success in the early future.

Lastly, the committee takes this opportunity to thank Mr. Low Thin Wing for his invaluable help.

K. ARUMUGAM,
Hon. Secretary.

The year began with a general meeting on 10th February, 1969. There was tremendous enthusiasm from all quarters. Due to the excessive number of members, the membership had to be restricted to Forms 3 to 5 only. New equipment consisting of two large target boards, 2 dozen steel arrows, bows and other accessories were purchased from the funds given by the school to replace the old ones.

The club is divided into two groups, namely the seniors and the juniors. Practices for the seniors were held on Tuesdays and on Thursdays for the juniors. These practices were held on the grounds of the Primary school valley. Attendance was marked and the attendance cards were signed by the masters-in-charge. Members were shown how to handle the equipment and taught the basic rules of the sport by the club officials during the practices.

Friendly inter-class tournaments were held during the course of the first term and it was most encouraging to find so many potential "Robin Hoods" and "William Tells" in our mids. However, we regret to report that all activities had to be suspended during the second term. Our plans and the various competitions such as the Inter-house Championships, Open Championships and the Inter-class Championships which were due to be held, had to be cancelled due to the state of emergency in the country.

In conclusion, we wish to thank the Principal and our advisers, Mr. Lee Hung Yen and Mr. Yang for their encouraging support, help and guidance given to the club in enabling it to be run smoothly and efficiently.

THE MALAYSIAN RED CROSS SOCIETY

SELANGOR BRANCH, KUALA LUMPUR DISTRICT.

DETACHMENT I.

"In a changing world, Red Cross stands for tomorrow."

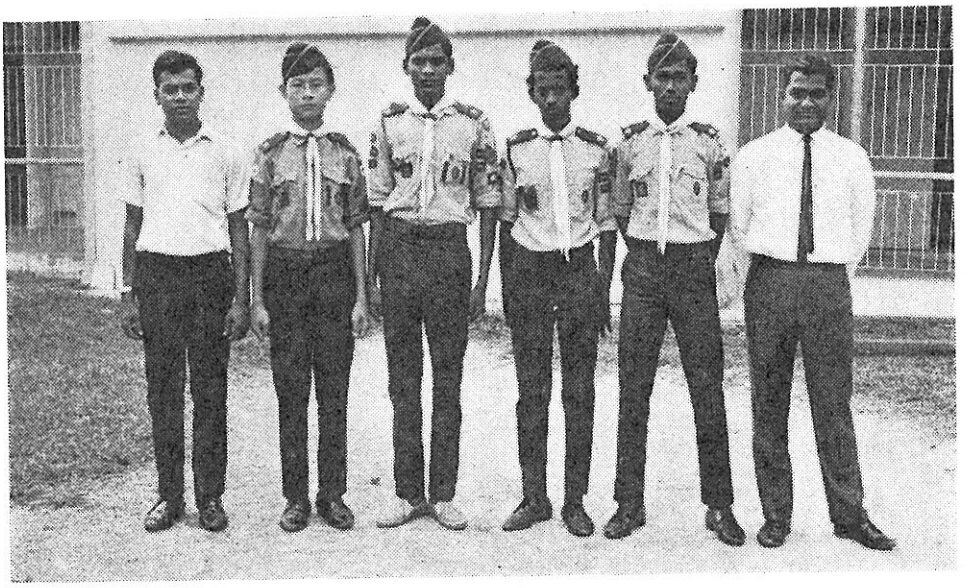

Red Cross is a light to the suffering, victims of disaster and those who need help. At present our detachment has two officers and 35 members. We had a very good recruitment this year from the school. The meeting is held on every Saturday, First Aid courses, foot-drill and training are taught to the recruits. Those who qualify for promotion to N.C.Os will be sent for training by the army. We perform duties at public functions such as, Thaipusam, Grand Prix and selling flags, etc.

On 13rd May when the state of emergency was proclaimed members and officers went for the ambulance service. Others went to 24 hours curfew imposed areas to distribute Red Cross food parcels and some went to help the refugees at the refugee centres. All the members risked their lives to pick up the wounded ones who were in the sensitive areas. Our performance was praised by the Government and the public. Our aim is to serve mankind without expecting any reward.

Lastly our detachment would like to thank the school Principal very much for allowing us to the school premises for our activities. I do hope more boys will join our society in the near future.

Management :

The 12th K.L. Scout Group has a total enrolment of more than 60 scouts of which 20 are seniors and the rest juniors. Meetings are usually held every Saturday at 0900 hrs in the school permises.

The Group is run by a body known as the Court-of-Honour which comprise of the Scouters, Troop Leader, Patrol Leaders of various patrols, and other office bearers. This body ensures the 'proper running' of the Group.

Achievements :

This year another 4 more of our Senior Scouts have been qualified to be standardised for the King Scout Badge. But due to the recent disturbances, the date of the standardisation has been postponed. So the number of Pengakap Rajas still stands at four.

Besides this, five boys have obtained their Bushman Thong and four others qualified for the Venture Badge.

Activities :

Hiking and camping are the main activities of the group. Besides this, First-Aid, venturing, tracking, exploring and pioneering are also included.

Earlier this year a number of the 2302 Singapore Scouts visited us. They were entertained through our guildance around the capital city. Lastly a camp fire was organised before their departure.

Annual Camp for this year is undecided yet, owing to the present state of Emergency.

Good Deeds :

The Group has always voluntarily and whole-heartedly rendered its services to the public through public functions, goodwill rallies, and various other national and youth celebrations. Other than these our scouts have also volunteered to help in the selling of flags and flowers on behalf of the Apex Club and the Malaysian Association for the Blind.

Some of our scouts bravely rendered their services during the recent disturbances.

Last year our scouts helped to sell raffle tickets on behalf of the K.L. Boy Scouts Association. The total value of tickets sold by us is estimated to be more than $4,000/- and as a result we have earned $1,149 (40% of the total sales) for our Group to meet its finances.

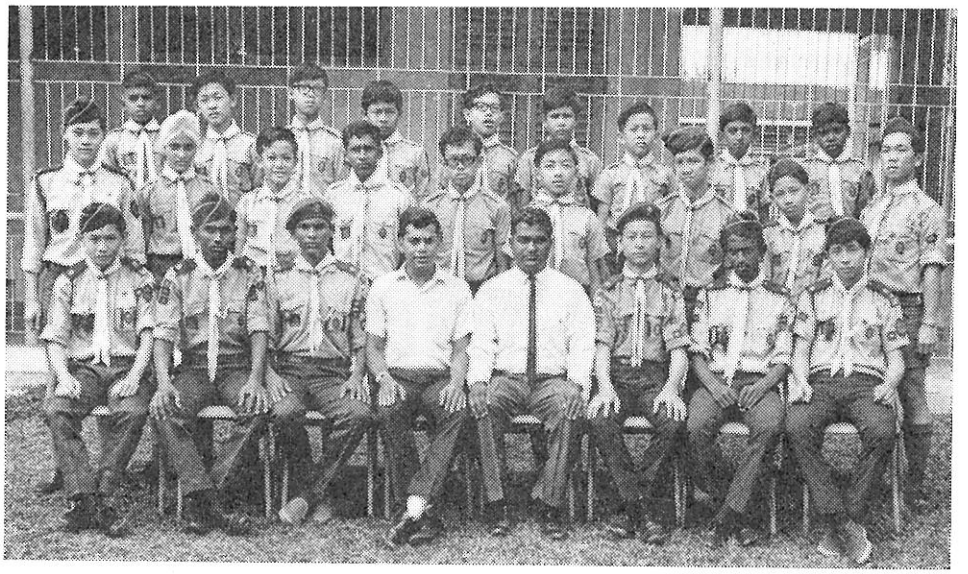

Conclusions :

We hope that in time to come more members would join the Group and keep scouting on its progressive path towards building a worldwide brotherhood regardless of class, country, colour or creed in creating a sense of mutual understanding among the human race as a whole.

Last but not least, we would like to express our sincere gratitude to the various Scout Leaders who have contributed so much to the successful scouting of the Group. We would also like to thank the patron for his invaluable help.

Lieutenant:	Boon Kok Fui
Warrant Officers:	Anthony Karasu Tan Geok Soon

This year the company has been given a new face. The company welcomes Mr. Henry Chia a former Rover Scout instructor into the company as captain.

Ten boys attended the National Camp held in Penang Island. All of them have been awarded with a camper's certificate.

Though the company's band is still in its pre-mature stage it has been engaged in many public performances especially in the Sentul district. In one of the displays the Hon. S.Y. Chan kindly consented to present a mace to the band. The band has also been invited to participate in their special functions by our brother Companies. The 2nd K.L. Coy, was most fortunate to be televised in the programme "Youth on the March." Members of the company took part in the National Solidarity Week Rally held in the Merdeka Stadium and they were also present in the final rally of the Grady Wilson Campaign.

During the May crisis boys and officers of the company volunteered their services to distribute food and clothing to the victims. This incident suspended the company's activities for the term.

The company had the opportunity to welcome our International V. President Mr. Dennis Webb to Sentul. He inspected the band and later gave away Target Awards and service badges to the boys. In the evening our guest was entertained to a campfire sponsored by the Church Youth Council.

The company would like to thank the Principal of the school for allowing us to use school premises for our regular meetings. We are also grateful to the staff of the school, church members, friends and supporters for their generous donations during the B.B. Week.

The Boys' Brigade movement takes this opportunity to invite all boys from the ages of 12 to 18 to join the Brigade. Come with your friends and enroll in the 2nd K.L. Coy during February next year. The B.B. organisation provides you with fun, fellowship and adventure. It also teaches stamp collecting, signalling, arts and craft, marching etc.

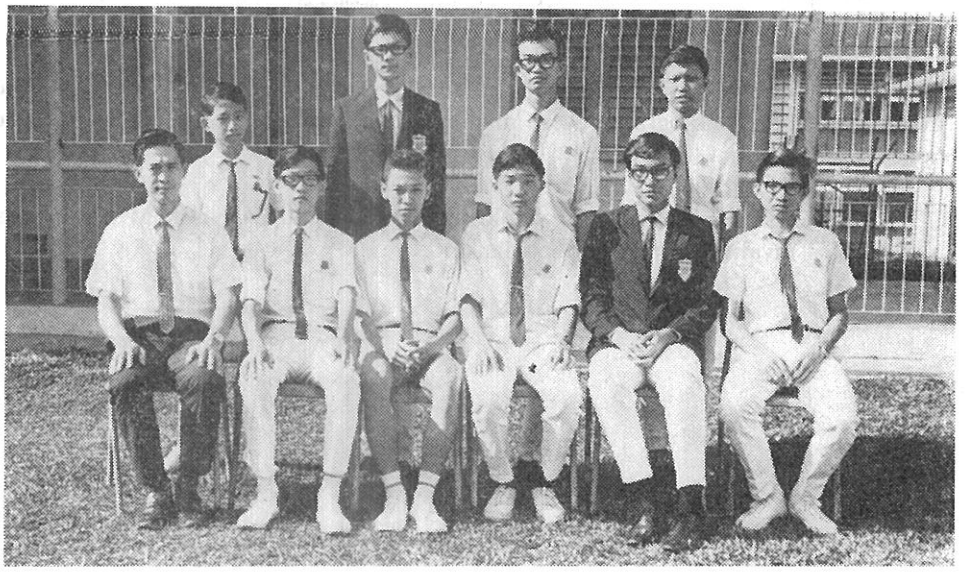

We meet every Saturday and Sunday at 3.00 p.m. and 8.30 p.m. respectively in M.B.S. Sentul.

Object: The object of the Boys' Brigade shall be the advancement of Christ's Kingdom amongst boys and the promotion of the habits of Obedience, Reverence, Discipline, Self-respect and all that trend towards true Christian Manliness.

Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy Youth.
In all thy ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct thy paths.

The annual general meeting was held on the 4th February, 1969. The above mentioned officials were elected.

The membership of the society is 30. It comprises of boys from Forms One to Five. The society started its activities at the very beginning of the academic year.

Members showed keen interest and enthusiasm. The darkroom was heavily booked at printing sessions. Meetings were held for the benefit of the members. They were taught some photographic techniques such as processing films, printing photographs and handling of cameras.

The recent disturbances in the country made it difficult for the society to carry out its activities. Whatever plans the society had in mind were put aside. Nevertheless we hope members will not be discouraged and lose interest.

The society was responsible for some of the photographs in the school magazine. These photographs were mainly taken during the various school functions.

On behalf of the society, I would like to thank our Adviser, Mr. Lee Hung Yen for his invaluable help and guidance.

With the purchase of a new table and new equipment, it was noted that the standard of this game in the school has risen considerably. Durng the selection of the school team, a number of good players turned up making the task rather difficult.

A friendly match was held against the Methodist High School and we emerged victorious. Encouraged, we drew up plans for matches in the Second Term against other schools but had to forego them due to the recent disturbances in the country.

The cancellation of the O.B.A. Dudley Shield Competition was a frustrating disappointment to the team because we had high hopes of reclaiming the Championship title lost last year.

Neverthleless, we hope to find time in the Third Term to compensate the lack of activities in the Second Term.

SOCCER

We started the season in February with practices every alternate weekdays The School is proud to have such eager and enthusiastic members with whose efforts and sportsmanship the team fared well altough we did not reach the finals of the Dato Yahaya Cup competition.

Our under- 15 team made marvellous attempts in all the games but unfortunately their attempts were not well rewarded.

Apart from inter-school games in which we did quite well, we also had inter-house soccer competitions in the School itself. After playing a series of matches Blue House emerged as the champion.

The team owes a lot to Mr. J N. Singam and Mr. N. Raju under whose coaching, supervision and untiring efforts we have been able to produce good teams. On behalf of the team I would like to extend my sincere thanks to both of them.

House Captain . .	. .	Selvam
House Secretary	. .	Yee Fook Onn
House Treasurer	. .	Chan Leong Hee

At the first House meeting the above boys were elected as office bearers. This was yet another year of tremendous achievement for us for we have emerged as the Champion House for the second successive year. This achievement is largely due to the encouragement given to us by the House Master, Mr. James Amoz.

We emerged champions in the cross-country event and also in the Standard Sports. The Choss-Country Individual Championship was also captured by Samuel of Green House. The following were members of the Class 1 victorious cross-country team: Samuel, Khalid, Balakrishnan, Joseph, Lee Leong Hoon, Gunaseelan, Selvam and Long Foo Lum. In the Class 11section of the above event, Sivagurunathan and Segaran came out first and second respectively.

We also did fairly well on the Sports Day. Credit goes to Talip and Sivalingam of Class II and Khalid of Class I

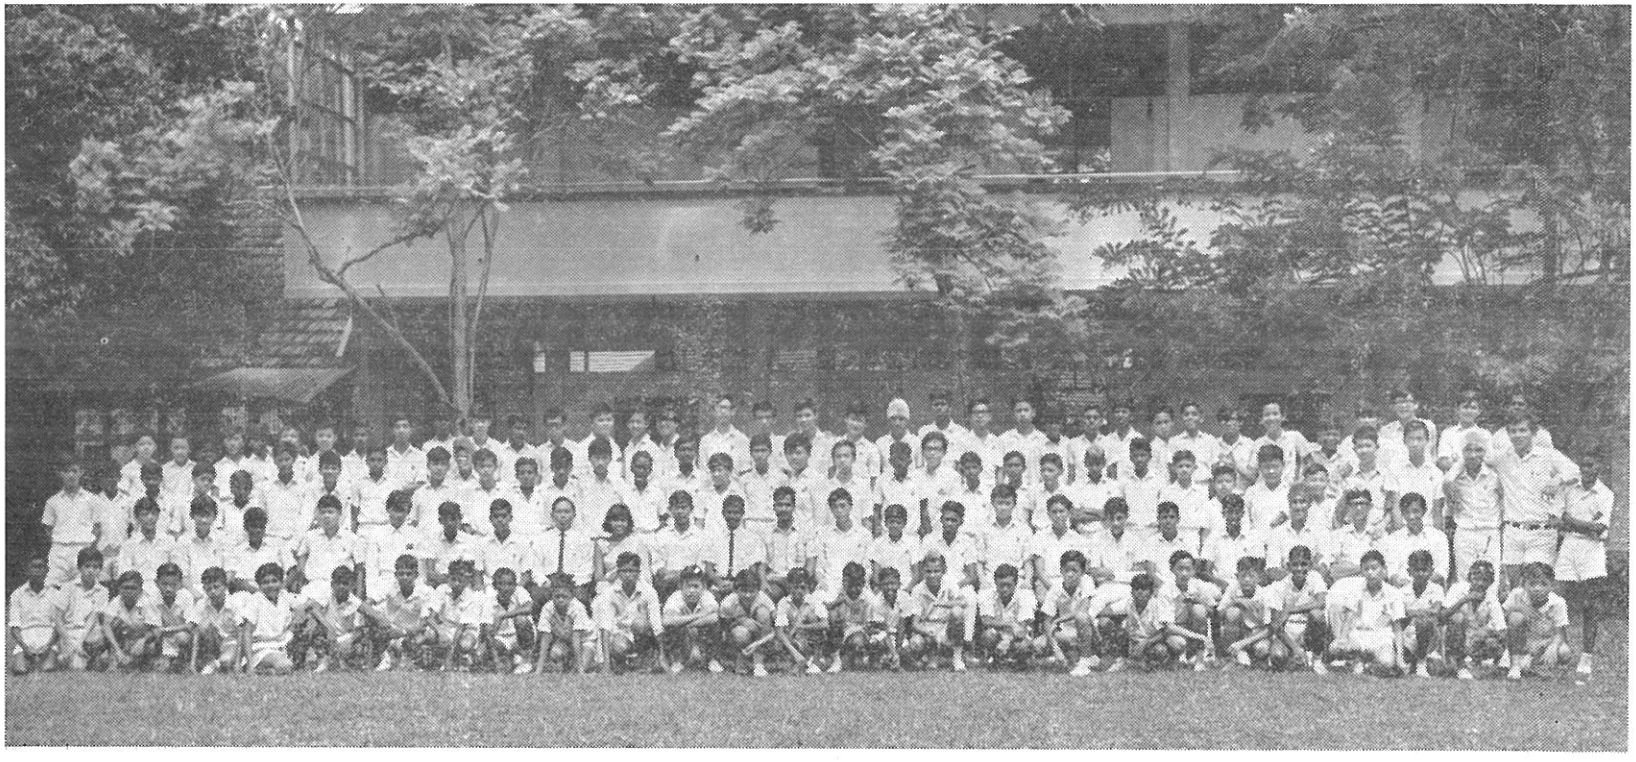

In the inter-house games we were the champions in Hockey and Sepak Raga. We had a finalist in Badminton but the game was cancelled.

We hope that the future Green House boys will follow the example set by the boys of the past two years.

Finally on behalf of the Housemembers I would like to thank the House Masters and House Mistress for their invaluable advice, guidance and encouragement rendered.

The first meeting was held on 30th January 1969. The office bearers were selected by the House Master, Mr. Lee Hung Yen. We are happy to report that attendance during the House practices was fairly good. This year, our House was placed second in the Annual Sports. Meet.

ATHLETICS

Our Class I and II boys put up a very good show during the sports though they did not emerge first in the events they took part.

SOCCER

We are glad to announce that our Blue House Soccer Team Class I emerged the Champions in the Inter-house football match.

VOLLEYBALL

In the Inter-house Volleyball tournament, our House again emerged the Champion House this year. Our thanks should go to the House Masters and Mistresses who gave encouragement to the players.

BADMINTON

Unfortunately this year, the Badminton matches were postponed due to the present state of Emergency. If the matches were held, we were quite confident in becoming the Champion House because three of our players belong to our School Badminton Team.

HOCKEY

Though our Class I Hockey players lost in the Inter-house Hockey Competition, our Class II Hockey players managed to win in the finals against Red House.

Before concluding, we should thank the House Masters, especially Mr. Lee Hung Yen for the great enthusiasm and interest they had shown for the welfare of the Blue House, and the House Mistresses. We will strive for the best to become the Champion House next year.

This year our house did not achieve very much. This was because most of the boys did not do well in the Standard Sports and the Annual Cross-Country Race. If only they had done better in these, we would have earned a more favourable position at the Annual Athletic Meet as our athletes did put up a good performance in the track events where they nearly dominated the whole field to gain the Class I Champion House Trophy. We should not, however, forget to mention that our athletes came first in the Class I 100m., 200m., 400m., 800m., 1500m., and the 4 x 400m. finals.

We are also proud to say that the Individual Championship Trophy this year was awarded to two of our Class 1 athletes as joint holders. The Open Events Championship was also captured by us. We were also the runners-up in soccer and on the academic side the champions in the Historical and Geographical Quiz.

However, let no member of the Red House be discouraged by the disappointing results of this year. As we know "The better man wins" and therefore let us all be satisfied with the fact that we had taken part in the competitions not with haughty intentions of winning but only with a sporting spirit, to test our abilities and also to give some competition for the best of the athletes.

Finally I would like to thank the House Masters and Mistress for their help and thoughtly advice.

The above boys were elected as office bearers for the year 1969. We wish to thank Mr. V. Thevarajah the House Master and all other House Asstistants. To them we convey our warmest thanks for their first class guidance and keen interest.

The year turned out to be discouraging for us. We were unable to stand a chance against the other Houses in any one of the competitions held. However we managed to become runners-up in the Class I volley ball and Class II soccer tournaments. On the sports day some of our Class II boys earned a few prizes and we were lined up fourth.

However let no member of the Yellow House be disheartened by the disappointing results of this year. Let us look to the future and remember that the failure we have undergone should act as a stepping stone towards success. We ought to reinforce the strength and brush up the old glory of this House in order to reach the top.

The above office — bearers were elected during the Annual General Meeting of White House, on 30th January 1969.

1969 was a more promising year for White House than last year. From last, we secured third place this year. This due to the encouragement and support given by the Captains and House Masters and Mistresses.

In the Annual cross country, we did exceptionally well, with few members, securing the third place. Ponnusamy and myself were third and sixth respectively in the Class I. In the Class II our favourite Wong Chean Khoon was third.

We regret to inform that in the Standard Sports our members obtained a disappointing result. Had the boys been more enthusiastic about athletics we would certainly have done better. We hope this will never occur in future.

Due to lack of good runners, we kept stable in the third position in the Schools 23rd Annual Athletic Sports. But distinction should be given to the team members (4 x 100 metres) when they emerged first. Our favourite, Kok Chai, was placed third in the 100 metres event.

We won the following competitions : —

(i) Soccer Class II — Champion;

(ii) History & Geography Quiz — Runners-up;

(iii) Hockey Class I — Runners-up.

We are proud to announce that our tug-of-war team carried the Challenge trophy presented by the M.B.S. Sentul O.B.A.

We like to take this opportunity to welcome Mr. N. Raju as one of our Asst. House Masters.

Last but not least, we thank the House Masters and Mistresses for their invaluable guidance and support.

Owing to the May 13th disturbances the activities of the O.B.A. as planned by the above committees were considerably curtailed. However, efforts were conscientiously made to maintain the steady progress of the O.B.A. Plans have now been drawn and finalised to hold some of the activities of the Association which had to be unavoidably postponed.

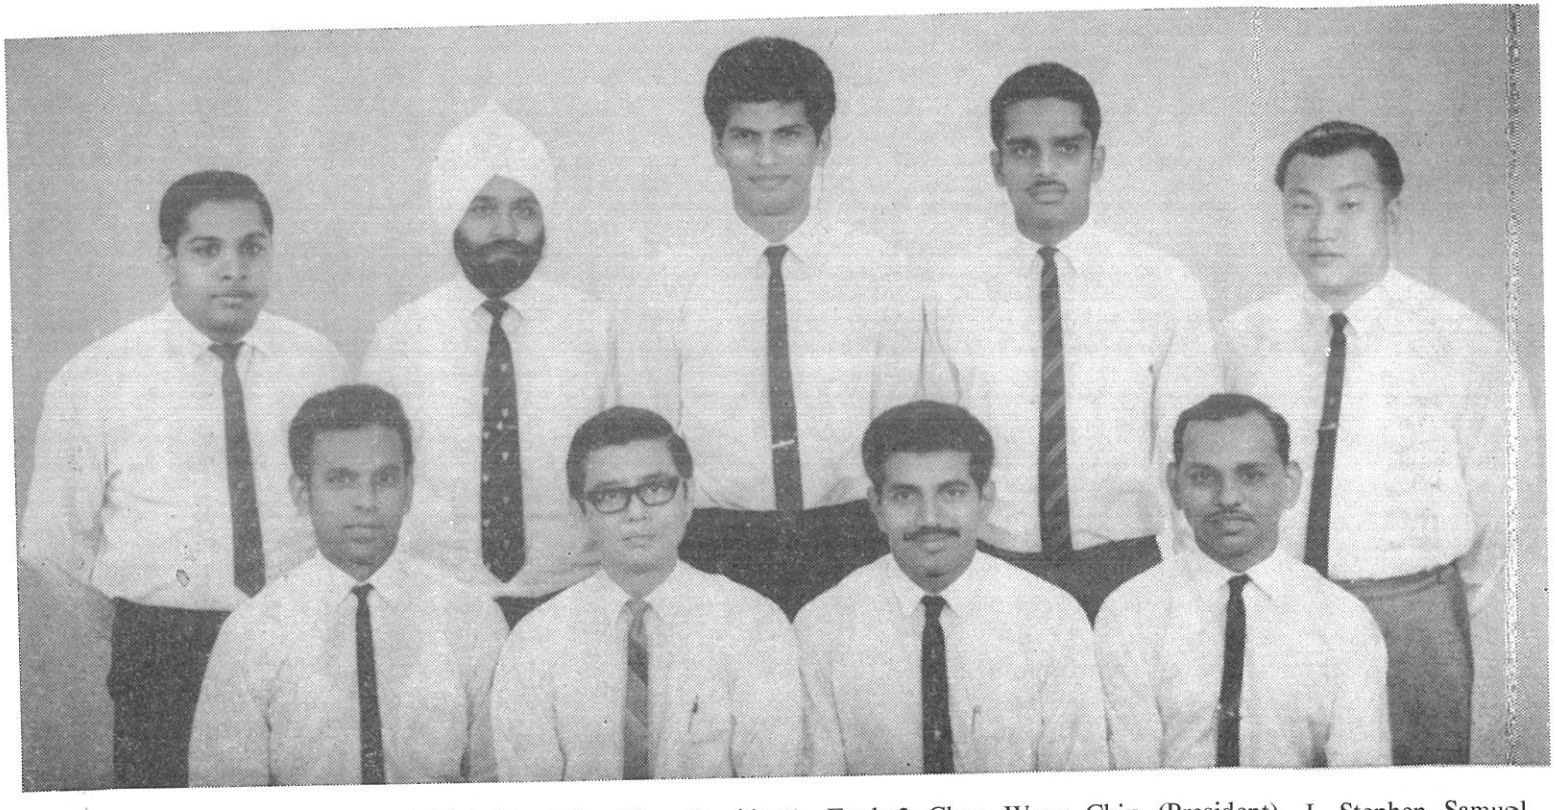

The Annual Buffet Dinner was held on Saturday the 7th of December, 1968 at the School Hall. About 75 persons made up of teachers, old boys, 5th Formers and present boys who participated in the Dudley Shield Competition attended.

The presentation of the Challenge Cups and the trophies to the winning captains of the Dudley Shield Competition took place during this function. The Dinner was a success and the O.B.A. remains convinced that such occasions are to be encouraged since it enables the old boys to mix up with the present boys and the teachers in an informal atmosphere.

At the Prefects Installation Service held on 21st February, '69 the Peach Scholarship awards were presented by our President to the 1969 Peach Scholar, Master Chan Kiat Yeong and the 1968 Peach Scholar, Master Koh Kah Hock had his award extended for another year. This Scholarship is awarded to the boy who obtains the best results in the Lower Certificate of Examination as an inducement for the boys of the Secondary School to strive towards academic excellence. The value of the Peach Scholarship award is $120/- per year for each boy.

An outing to Port Dickson on the 8th and 9th of March, 1969 was planned and organised, but due to the non-availability of accommodation at the Methodist Centre, Port Dickson, the trip had to be called off. It is hoped to organise another outing in the near future.

Badminton and table-tennis practices were held under the charge of Mr. Venugopal at the school hall on the 1st and 3rd Saturdays of each month from 2.30 to 7.00 p.m. and from 7.00 to 10.00 p.m. on the 2nd and 4th Saturdays. The response was encouraging. Later on the practices were held on Wednesdays from 7.00 to 10.00 p.m. for the convenience of old boys. Unfortunately the proposed badminton and table-tennis tournaments had to be postponed because of the May 13th disturbances, but it is hoped to hold these tournaments soon.

Owing to the disturbances which meant a curtailment in our activities, only one newsletter was sent out. However the second newsletter is expected to be out soon.

The long awaited Annual Dinner is being held at Imperial Room, Hotel Malaysia on 15th December at 6.00 p.m. This dinner has always been a success and there seems no reason why it should not be so this year. About 125 old boys and their wives are expected to attend the dinner. Those interested in joining the dinner are kindly requested to contact the committee members whose names and addresses will be listed in the dinner cards which will be distributed very shortly. It is hoped that our old boys will spare their time in attending this dinner.

The Annual General Meeting will be held at the School on December 17th i.e. two days after the Annual Dinner. It is hoped that all our old boys will make an attempt to attend this very important meeting. It must not be forgotten that the success of the O.B.A. depends very much on the support and encouragement given by each and every old boy of the school.

The Dudley Shield Competition which is normally held during the months of June and July is now tentatively scheduled to be held in January, 1970. The O.B.A. has indicated to the School Principal that it has no objection to the present Fifth Formers participating in the various games concerned. The tentative dates and venues for these games are as follows : —

All old boys who are interested in participating in the above games are requested to contact any of the committee members.

As many old boys are probably aware the O.B.A. will be reaching an important and praiseworthy milestone in 1970. The O.B.A. will be celebrating its 10th anniversary. It is really gratifying to know that the O.B.A. has not only survived all through these years but has also steadily grown so as to rank among the top Old Boys' Associations in Selangor. For this we offer our thanks to the old boys themselves who have been a source of strength to the O.B.A. We really hope and trust that the O.B.A. will grow even more in the years to come and will continue to be of service to all old boys. In keeping with this important milestone the O.B.A. has appointed an ad-hoc '10th-anniversary sub-committee' to plan and organise various activities for 1970 which will be on a much grander scale than in the previous years. More activities and the publication of a Souvenir O.B.A. magazine are some of the things in store for 1970. The O.B.A. will appreciate very much any assistance or advice offered by our old boys towards this end.

In conclusion the O.B.A. wishes to record its gratitude to our President, Mr. Chan Weng Chiu, for his able and energetic leadership. There is no doubt that he is a 'tower of strength' in the O.B.A. We also wish to thank the Principals of the Methodist Boys' Secondary and Primary Schools for their co-operation and assistance in allowing the O.B.A. the use of the school hall for badminton and table-tennis practices and other social events. We wish to thank also Mr. A. G. Lee, our Adviser, for his valuable advice and the keen interest he has shown in the O.B.A. We also wish to record our sincere appreciation to Messrs Loh Poh Khan, Ng Sik Kong and R. Padmanabhan the out-going committee members for their untiring services to the O.B.A. Last but not least we wish to thank our old boys themselves whose faith in us has helped us a lot in planning our activities. We look towards 1970 with high aspirations.

J. STEPHEN SAMUEL,
HON. SECRETARY.
