KATA–KATA ALUAN DARI PENGARAH PELAJARAN SELANGOR DAN WILAYAH PERSEKUTUAN

Sekali lagi kita berjumpa melalui ruangan majallah sekolah bagi tahun 1977. Sukalah saya mengucapkan terima kasih kepada sidang pengarang kerana meminta saya memberikan kata-kata aluan.

Melalui ruangan ini, saya suka menarik perhatian murid-murid semua dengan alam Malaysia ini, yang mana penduduk-penduduknya adalah berbilang kaum.

Oleh itu kamu hendaklah memandang yang kamu semua adalah sama sebangsa walau pun berbeza ugama dan kebudayaan.

Kamu hendaklah berkawan, bermain, belajar bersama-sama dengan tidak pilih-memilih atau benci-membenci antara kaum.

Dasar Kerajaan sekarang telah jelas kepada kita iaitu untuk mengujudkan satu bangsa Malaysia yang mana akan bertanggung jawab kepada negara ini.

Keagongan negara kita pada masa hadapan terletak kepada bangsa Malaysia yang sedang di bangku sekolah sekarang.

Tanggung jawab berat ini hendaklah kamu terima dengan penuh semangat cintakan negara ini.

Perasaan tolak ansor perlu sangat diamalkan sejak dari bangku sekolah lagi. Semuga apa yang dirancang oleh Kerajaan hari ini akan berjaya bila kamu dewasa nanti.

Dan lagi kamu murid-murid sekolah jangan cepat terpengaruh dengan anasir-anasir jahat. Kamu hendaklah menumpukan perhatian kamu kepada pelajaran, supaya kamu menjadi bangsa yang berguna kepada negara ini.

Kamu mesti sedar bahawa orang yang paling tidak berguna adalah orang yang mencampuri anasir-anasir jahat yang bertujuan hendak merosakkan ketenteraman negaranya sendiri. Saya berharap bila kamu dewasa nanti kamu tidak akan menjadi orang seperti ini.

Akhir kata saya mengucapkan tahniah atas kejayaan sidang pengarang untuk menerbitkan majallah sekolah ini bagi tahun 1977.

Terima kasih.

MESSAGE FROM BISHOP C. N. FANG FOR THE METHODIST SECONDARY SCHOOL, SENTUL, KUALA LUMPUR.

Greetings from the Methodist Church in Malaysia to the staff and pupils of the Methodist Boys' Secondary School, Sentul, Kuala Lumpur.

First I must thank the Principal, the teacher-in-charge and the Editor for giving me this opportunity to write a short message in The School Magazine, 1977. This magazine has already been successfully produced in the past years. I congratulate all those who have taken part in its successful production.

The School Magazine is the light-power of the School. It shines as brightly as the power it receives. This power comes from no other sources than the joint efforts of the teachers and the co-operative activities of the pupils. The School is more and better equipped from year to year. It has also been provided with more and better qualified teachers. The number of pupils has also increased tremendously. All these naturally create more opportunities for creative activities thus generating more power to this magazine—the light-power of the school. The conscientious efforts of the staff and the full participation of the pupils in all the activities of the school with the Blessing of God will make this light-power—the School Magazine—shine as brightly as ever.

Thank you.

Yours sincerely,

C. N. FANG.

MESSAGE FROM
MR. CHAN WENG CHIU, CHAIRMAN, BOARD OF GOVERNORS, PRESIDENT, OLD BOYS' ASSOCIATION

A review of recent events gives us a feeling of assurance that further progress can be achieved in the near future. The efforts shown in raising funds at the Walkathon has been very encouraging and plans are going ahead for additional facilities to be added to the School.

All efforts should be directed towards the attainment of higher academic, standards. This is not an impossible task. The 1976 M.C.E. results has proved that the teachers played a very important role in guiding students towards sound intellectual development and higher achievements in their examinations.

The Old Boys' Association has realised this need many years ago and have instituted Scholarships and Annual Awards to be presented to students for Academic Excellence. Many of our students have done well in their further education in institutions of higher learning and are well placed in the professions and positions of responsibility.

We must set our targets very high if we are to improve ourselves and in order to do so, we must improve our facilities all round. We must strive to bring about the day when we can see Form 6 classes in the School.

Our Principal and Teachers, realising this responsibility will no doubt put in their best efforts and I would appeal to all concerned your utmost co-operation and support. I take this opportunity to record my gratitude for all that has been done.

KATA–KATA ALUAN DARI PENGERUSI, PERSATUAN IBUBAPA ENCIK ALI ABDULLAH

Saya sukacita mendapat peluang menyampaikan sepatah dua kata dalam Majallah Sekolah Menengah Laki-Laki Methodist, Sentul, keluaran 1977.

Semasa kecil, sejauh ingatan saya, Sekolah-Sekolah Methodist, dimana-mana pun, tidak mendapat sambutan ramai kerana sangkaan mereka, Sekolah-Sekolah tersebut, ialah Sekolah Agama Methodist saja.

Sekolah Menengah Laki-Laki Methodist, Sentul berasaskan 40 tahun yang lampau, telah dapat membuktikan kebolehannya menambah bilangan pelajar-pelajar yang produktif serta tinggi mutunya, bukan saja dalam bidang akademik, tetapi juga dalam berbagai aktiviti-aktiviti yang lain. Ini menunjukan setanding dengan kemajuan Sekolah-Sekolah di Negara kita. Lebeh-lebeh lagi, setelah saya mengikuti Majallah "The Sentinal" keluaran 1976.

Saya difahamkan, bahawa guru-guru Sekolah ini mempunyai kelulusan yang setaraf. Bersesuaian dengan zaman sekarang adalah juga dirasakan amat penting, jika Ibubapa-Ibubapa, turut bersama-sama memainkan peranan mereka yang aktif, secara praktik untuk objektif yang sama.

Asuhan, aspirasi, memupuk nama baik di setiap Sekolah-Sekolah pada zaman sekarang adalah tertakluk bukan saja kepada penilaian Guru Besar atau guru-gurunya, bahkan lebeh-lebeh lagi kepada kerjasama Ibubapa keseluruhannya.

Dengan adanya peranan seimbang dari semua pehak, maka saya mempunyai keyakinan, mutu kemajuan Sekolah ini akan meningkat lagi. Jesteru, murid-murid Sekolah ini, akan muncul sebagai pelajar-pelajar yang kuat memegang disiplin, lahiriah dan Rohaniah berhemah tinggi sebagai Warga Negara, harapan bangsa dan Negara.

Akhir kata "Marilah kita bersama-sama menceburkan diri berpegang teguh kepada prinsip pendidikan sejati".

MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL, MR. K.G. ZACHARIAH

Saya berasa sangat gembira dijemput menulis satu perutusan ringkas untuk majallah 'The Sentinel' bagi tahun 1977.

Saya mengucapkan tahniah dan terima kasih ke atas sekelian anggota jemaah pengarang dan lain-lain yang telah membantu mengusahakan pengeluaran majallah ini.

Tahun 1977 merupakan tahun ke 41 dalam riwayat hidup Sekolah Menengah Lelaki Methodist Sentul ini. Kami sungguh mengenang jasa bakti peneroka ulung dan pembina yang berani di masa lampau. Kami berbangga terhadap ratusan murid yang telah menempuh gerbang sekolah ini. Memang telah menjadi cita-cita dan harapan kami supaya mereka itu sekalian akan terus mengamalkan segala sifat-sifat tinggi lagi murni yang sekolah ini telah cuba sedaya-upaya menyematkannya ke dalam sanubari mereka.

Kini sekolah-sekolah telah tidak dianggap sebagai yayasan-yayasan yang membosankan di mana pendidik-pendidik berwatak garang mendidik murid-murid supaya belajar dengan tujuan untuk lulus peperiksaan sahaja. Menurut UNESCO, segala tindak-tanduk pendidikan hendaklah ditujukan untuk membentuk perwatakan lengkap seseorang, supayai ia dapat mengambil tempat yang sesuai dalam masyarakat.

Kita sekarang hidup dalam zaman perubahan. Kederasan arus perubahan, merubah nilai hidup kita dan mencengkam jiwa kita, yang demikian wajarlah diingat bahawa pendidikan adalah suatu proses yang berkembang dan berterusan. Seseorang anak yang meninggalkan persekolahannya sepatutnya telah mempelajari kaedah belajar.

Guru-guru, ibubapa dan murid-murid adalah merupakan partner dalam bidang pendidikan.

Konsep pendidikan, kaedah penyampaian dan sistem pembelajaran mungkin berubah, nilai boleh bertukar dan masyarakat boleh menjadi tidak stabil melainkan kebenaran (truth), kebaikan (goodness) dan keindahan (beauty) sahajalah yang tetap tidak berubah.

Kebanyakan murid-murid yang ada sekarang akan meninggalkan sekolah ini. Tujuilah cita-cita tinggi hidup kami dan berusahalah sedaya-upaya mencapainya. Dalam sebarang pekerjaan yang dibuat bagi mencapai kemajuan kamu memerlukan disiplin, ketabahan hati dan dedikasi. Yang demikian saya berharap guru-guru dan murid-murid yang dahulu dan yang sekarang akan mencapai segala kemajuan.

SCHOOL CAPTAIN'S MESSAGE

Time really flies. As my eleventh and last year in MBS Sentul terminates, I realise that I shall no longer be a part of the school, no longer be under the guidance of our teachers, and no longer able to enjoy school life in this school. This feeling, I am sure, will be shared by all the fifth-formers.

Throughout all my years in MBS Sentul, I have indeed learnt many things. With the guidance and encouragement from our dedicated teachers, I have been educated, both academically and mentally, to adapt myself and to face the outside world today. We owe a lot to our teachers though some of us may not realise this. The only way we can ever repay their efforts and hardwork is to become good and useful citizens.

Here, I would like to wish my fellow schoolmates the best of luck and success for the future. No doubt for some of us, our paths may never cross again. My parting wish to you all is utilise the knowledge obtained from this school to become useful citizens and not society dropouts. Remember, you are what you do, and not what you think you are.

In conclusion, I would like to express my gratitude to the Principal, Mr. K.G. Zachariah and the staff for their advice, encouragement and inspiration which have assisted me so much during my years in MBS Sentul. Memories of MBS Sentul will be cherished and forever remain deeply rooted in my heart. It is time for me to say goodbye.

FAREWELL MBS SENTUL.

EDITORIAL

This year marked the start of the Third Malaysia Plan. The Plan calls for the participation of all Malaysians to help put the nation one step further into the 'developed stage'.

Our national leaders can only formulate the ideas and aims. It is up to the citizen to strive and try to achieve the goals. The students today will be these citizens tomorrow. They will be the 'new-blood' and powerhouse, in short, the nation's future lifeline. Therefore it is the responsibility of all schools to produce good, responsible and adequately educated young citizen and not undisciplined, irresponsible and poorly educated ones. Poorly educated in the sense that they are trained only to pass examinations instead of learning to apply what they learn into practical use.

It is interesting to note that 'Malaysianisation' of school subjects has already begun, especially in the lower forms. This will greatly help in the future progress of the country. As a student, I can only hope that we will live up to our nation's expectation—at least we can try.

SPEECH DAY

The holidays were just round the corner. Unusual amount of activities marked the days, for the school was determined to make a good showing on Speech Day—21st July. Everywhere gardeners could be seen trimming hedges and plants in and around the school with enthusiasm, which can be found only once a year. Students who were unfortunate enough to be caught breaking school rules during that time were asked to contribute some of their energy to clean the fields and the compounds of papers during interval time. This they did with a smile, forced though it may be, because the teachers were watching and grumbling meant more 'voluntary work'.

The great occasion arrived. To prize winners it meant medals, shields and book prizes. To the others an opportunity to 'show off'. The hall had been beautifully decorated, plants and all. An exhibition on hobbies was held where students exhibited their collections—from fishes to toys! They had a great time guarding their properties against some swift hands. An art show was also arranged. Here some really 'abstract' masterpieces were shown. Most of them understood only by the artists themselves and sometimes even this was doubted!

By three in the evening, the brightly lit hall was nearly filled Parents sat in front followed by invited guests from others schools. Prize winners figgetted restlessly on their seats on the left, their eyes constantly straying to the right where 'they' sat, consciously in their evening gowns. Prefects 'showed off' with all sorts of official bustlings and activities and giving directions here, there and everywhere. The librarians had their time-running here and there with program sheets. On the stage, the librarians took their time rearranging the already arranged prizes, touching this and pushing that. One of two young gentlemen teachers gave small scoldings and other little displays of authority. They all had a whale of a time.

The day officially opened with a short speech by the headmaster followed by his annual report. Here Mr. Zachariah related the school activities and achievements of the year. He announced that the overall performance of the M.C.E. bettered by 20% which is indeed good news.

The Pengarah Pelajaran Negeri Selangor, Mr. Tan Teik Beng and his wife honoured us with their attendance. He gave a speech in which he promised to allow MBS Sentul to set up sixth form classes if the school maintained a good progress in the MCE. This was greeted with applause, for MBS Sentul is indeed the best and most suitable school in this district to have these classes.

Chairman of the Board of Governors, Mr. Chan Weng Chiu, said in his speech that the time has arrived for the school to aim and strive for higher Academic Standards. The school must try to add another 20% to the MCE results this year. He expressed this satisfaction and confidence in the school administration and teaching staff. He further encouraged the students to meet the stiff competition for places in institutions of higher learning.

After this, the students had the honour of receiving their long awaited prizes from Mrs. Tan Teik Beng. A number of them were seen blushing! Others put on a bold front which was quite picturesque in some cases.

The audience was then treated to an hour of songs and melodramas. One drama was produced by the Islamic Society. It was about drug addicts and drunks. Though the story was good, the acting was.. .er... Young talents—at least they tried to be—did sing some sentimental songs. By that time most of the audience was glancing at their watches and the Master of Ceremony took the hint. Thus ended the Speech Day of 1977.

RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS WEEK

It was the Monday, 25th of April, 1977. Religious Emphasis Week (an annual affair in every mission school) was launched. We truly thank God for this wonderful opportunity of being able to share the Good News of God's Salvation with the students. Our theme this year was, Faith for our Times." The school Hall, almost full, echoed to the sound of music led by Mr. Boon Kok San and later Mr. Andy Chan of Wesley Church gave a message on 'How BIG is your God.'

Tuesday morning brought better response from the boys, they sang with spirit and in unity. Indeed this year the Lord not only provided us with good speakers but also a group of young Christians from the M.Y.F. Wesley. They led in the singing sessions and some of them gave testimonies of themselves.

Wednesday and Thursday was more disciplined as well as amusing, Rev. Dennis Dutton, Paster of Wesley Methodist Church spoke to the Form 3's, 4's and 5's. He gave a few testimonies and examples coinciding with our theme. One example was of an old and tuneless violin which was brought back to life by the hands of an violin expert meaning a SINNER can be transformed into a NEW PERSON in just accepting Jesus Christ into his life.

One the last day of the R.E. week came 'Reaction Time', the students had gone through four days of R.E.aand now was the time to 'bring in the sheaves'. First, Rev. Dennis Dutton spoke on our theme 'Faith for our Times' emphasising on the role of a student. What attitude students should have and how Jesus Christ could help students. After the 'Challenge' of taking up the Cross was made, the distribution of personel question-and-answer papers were followed.

An analysis by the Chapel Committee revealed that quite a number had taken up the 'Challenge'. Some admitted that a personal need for God had arisen in their lives and that they wished to learn more about the Christian Faith. These, and other students who indicated interest in the Christian Faith were counselled in separate groups by Rev. Dennis Dutton, the M.Y.Furs' and the Chapel Committee including it's advisers.

But all in all, these were the few. For there were, as always, those who were not reached at all—somehow, the Christian message had slipped right pass them. They showed indifferences to the offer of eternal life. And they were, the majority. With God—nothing is impossible (Mark 9:23, Luke 18:27) and apart from God I can do nothing (John 15:56).

> "This is a true saying, and worthy of all men to be received, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners."

Annual Cross Country: The performance of this event was encouraging if not excellent in terms of the efforts made by our house participants. The Junior Section scored the most points for the house and the seniors were not far behind themselves. With a few points more we would have had the Championship in our hands.

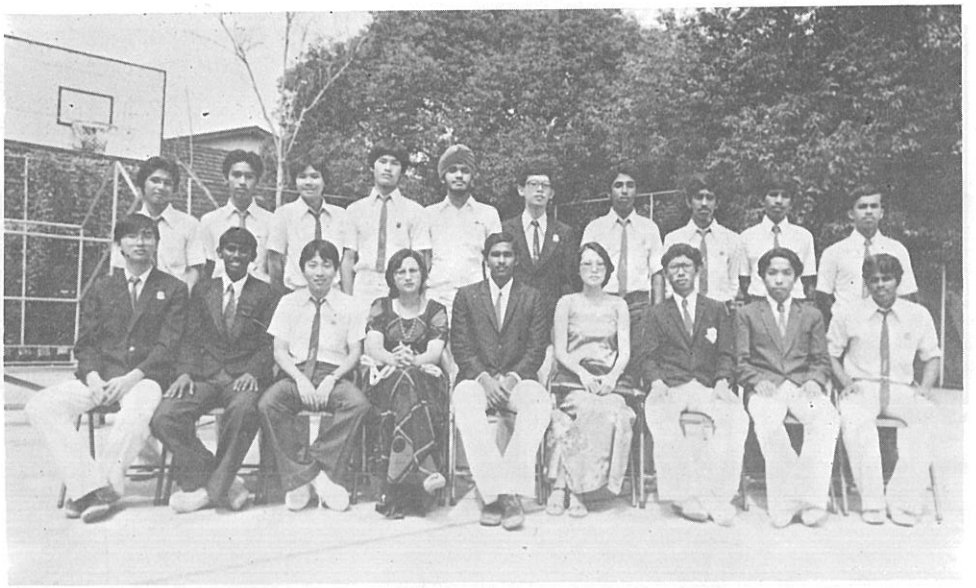

Atheletics: Our house atheletes produced some spectacular performances on Sports Day. Syed Ahmad of Class II was awarded the Individual Champion trophy. Due to some unforseen injuries, we were placed third. However, we are proud of the results even some events did not turn out as expected.

Games: Here the seniors beat the juniors by a mile. They contributed nearly all the successes. The younger members did a poor job and were far below expectations This, we hope, could be remedied in time. The house was champion in Table Tennis, Tennis, Volleyball, Hockey and runner-up in Carrom.

On behalf of the house, I would like to thank all our teacher advisers for their cooperation and tireless efforts in the house activities.

Teachers-in-charge: Mrs. Kirpal Singh, Mrs. Pui, Mr. Andrew James, Puan Khadisan Awang, Mr. Boon Kok San.

Cross-Country: In the Annual Cross-Country Race, we were less fortunate. We managed to clinch the second place. Credit should be given to the representatives of Class I for their tireless effort in the race.

Sports Day: Our performance at the Annual Sports this year was very discouraging.

Inter-House Games: In the Inter-House Tournaments, however, we were much more successful. We were: CHAMPION IN: HOCKEY, BADMINTON, SEPAK TAKRAW, CARROMS, RUNNERS–UP IN: TENNIS.

In conclusion, I would like to thank the teachers-in-charge for their invaluable guidance, encouragement and advice.

SEATED L–R : Michael, Andarro, Muthiah, Puan Bhsan, Mrs. Goh Thuan Jig, R. Vigneswaram, Cikgu Satari, Mr. Thevarajah, Lim Chuan Heng.

Motto: Win if you can, lose if you must but always be a good sportsman.

Cross-Country: We were placed second but we lost to the champion by only a few points.

Sports Day: Another successful year for the House as we emerged to retain our position as the Champion House. Our victory was expected due to the number of talented athletes in our house. We hope to retain the cup for another year.

Our attempt at the Singam's trophy was a failure but we are determined to try harder.

Finally, we would like to thank the teachers in charge for their invaluable assistance which led to our overwhelming success.

For the year 1977, Green House was quite successful in her undertakings. These successes were attributed to the full cooperation of the members, the efforts of the respective games captains and the encouragement of the House Masters.

Athletics: In the field of athletics we captured the second place. Our star athlete, M. Nedun, brought fame and honour to our house by winning the Individual Championship Trophy for Class I.

Football: 1977 proved to be a splendid year for football. The house found many promising players and we captured the inter-house championship.

Basketball: In the Inter-House Basketball League, our boys literally thrashed the other teams without conceding a single game.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank our Housemasters and those members who had given us their cooperation and services.

BAHAGIAN BAHASA MALAYSIA

'RAMAI MURID–MURID DALAM BANDAR TIDAK MENGHORMATI GURU–GURU'

'Dalam jangka saya dua puluh tahun saya mengajar ini, tidak pernah saya melihat murid-murid yang sebegini nakal. Mereka langsung tidak menghormati guru sedikit pun'. Inilah pendapat kebanyakan guru-guru yang pernah saya interbiu sedikit masa dahulu. Nampaknya murid-murid sekarang tidak lagi menghormati guru-guru mereka. Perkara yang seumpama ini menjadi lebih buruk lagi di bandar-bandar dari mana kemungkinan ketua-ketua negara masa hadapan akan lahir.

Untuk menjelaskan masaalah sebenarnya,saya ingin memberikan serba sedikit analisa yang telah saya buat mengenainya. Kebanyakan guru-guru sekarang telah pun menceburi bidang pendidikan lebih dari lapan tahun. Dalam masa yang sebegini lah seseorang guru itu memperolehi berbagai-bagai pengalaman. Mereka juga telah mengalami satu masa di mana murid-murid sekolah cukup berdisiplin. Mereka datang kesekolah dengan tujuan untuk belajar. Keinginan mereka untuk mendapatkan ilmu pengetahuan adalah tebal dan sangat membanggakan. Di ketika itu disiplin adalah kuat, oleh itu untuk mendapat pelajaran yang baik, terpaksalah mereka berkelakuan baik serta menghormati guru-guru mereka. Disamping itu, bilangan murid adalah sedikit, jadi, hubungan diantara guru dengan murid sangat rapat dan mesra. Dengan cara yang sedemikian, seseorang guru itu dapat memberikan perhatian lebih kepada setiap murid-murid. Tetapi jika dibandingkan dengan sekarang keadaan yang sebegitu rupa boleh dikatakan tidak ada.

Malahan situasi pelajaran sekarang telah berubah. Keadaan ini berlanjutan dengan meluasnya. Polisi kerajaan sekarang ialah setiap kanak-kanak yang telah cukup umur untuk memulakan pelajaran diharuskan bersekolah. Ini tidak terbatas kepada orang yang berkemampuan sahaja malahan orang-orang yang tidak mampu juga dibolehkan untuk mengikuti sebarang pelajaran dengan bantuan kerajaan. Ini semua mengakibatkan pertambahan murid-murid dalam jangka waktu yang singkat. Ini seterusnya mengakibatkan kepadatan murid-murid dalam setiap kelas dan masalah yang sebegini boleh mendatangkan kebosanan seorang guru itu. Kebanyakan sekolah-sekolah juga berpusat dibandar-bandar. Keadaan-keadaan ini menyebabkan jurang perhubungan guru dengan murid-murid tidak rapat lagi. Ini menimbulkan satu situasi dimana murid tidak faham akan pelajaran yang mereka pelajari serta tidak mengerti akan kesusahan yang dialami oleh guru mereka. Sedang guru pula tidak menghirau atau tidak mahu memahami keadaan mental masaalah-masaalah murid-murid mereka di sekolah mau pun di rumah.Akibatnya terjadilah penentangan terhadap perintah guru setelah keadaan menjadi tegang serta tekanan diri. Ini boleh dimasukkan kedalam sebab-sebab mengapa murid-murid tidak menghormati guru-guru dewasa ini.

Buat masa ini, keinginan murid untuk belajar adalah nipis. Perhatian mereka yang dahulunya cenderung kearah pelajaran telah berubah. Sifat guru-guru yang dahulunya sabar juga telah berubah menjadi tidak sabar. Ini seringkali menyebabkan 'Konfrantasi' dimana murid-murid membantah pendapat-pendapat yang diberikan oleh guru. Sudahlah begitu guru pula dengan tidak berfikir panjang terus berpendapat bahawa mereka tidak dihormati. Pendapat yang sedemikian adalah salah kerana guru yang begitu hanya memandang pada zahir seseorang murid itu sahaja. Emosi seseorang murid itu juga harus ditimbang.

Murid-murid sekarang telah sampai kesatu tingkat dimana mereka boleh mem-perolehi pengetahuan dengan sendiri dari bahan-bahan bacaan seperti buku-buku, iklan-iklan dan juga surat-surat khabar. Guru ada kalanya mengajar sesuatu yang kurang tepat. Apabila kesalahan guru itu dikemukakan kebanyakan mereka tidak mahu mengaku salah seolah-olah apa yang mereka ajarkan semuanya betul. Sememangnya kita tidak boleh menyalahkan mereka kerana setiap guru itu mahu menjaga status mereka sebagai seorang guru yang berkaliber. Sifat guru-guru yang sedemikian menyebabkan murid-murid mula berkelakuan tidak senonoh dan tidak menghormati guru mereka. Seterusnya murid-murid dikatakan tidak menghormati guru-guru bila kesalahan guru itu diperbaiki oleh mereka. Oleh itu, satu tindakan haruslah diambil iaitu memperbaiki sifat-sifat guru yang seperti ini. Jika tindakan segera tidak diambil kejadian-kejadian yang lebih buruk mungkin terjadi.

Satu lagi sebab mengapa murid-murid dibandar tidak menghormati guru-guru ialah guru-guru sekarang adalah terdiri dari guru yang bersikap mementingkan diri sendiri. Seperti yang telah diketahui kebanyakan guru-guru sekarang adalah terdiri dari guru perempuan. Lebih-lebih lagi kebanyakan guru perempuan tidak berupaya untuk mengawal murid-murid lelaki yang telah dewasa. Ketidakupayaan ini mengakibatkan kelakuan murid terhadap guru-guru perempuan menjadi liar dan bebas. Guru-guru sekarang juga dihalang atau dilarang memukul murid-murid mereka melampaui batas. Ini memberikan semangat serta keberanian kepada murid untuk mengganggu. Ketenteraman pelajaran dan melakukan apa saja yang disukai mereka.

Selain dari itu pengaruh dari luar juga bertanggung jawab diatas perubahan sikap serta kelakuan murid. Filem-filem yang menunjukkan keadaan sekolah dinegeri-negara barat yang begitu bebas pergaulannya telah meracuni daya pemikiran murid-murid kita. Mereka semua inginkan situasi yang sebegitu rupa. Kebebasan dalam segala peraturan sekolah adalah merupakan keinginan mereka padahal kebebasan itu diberi sudah tentu sifat menghormati guru itu akan hilang lenyap. Dapatkah Kita bayangkan apa yang akan terjadi kelak?

Kekurangan pengajaran dari ibubapa tentang disiplin juga merupakan faktor utama murid-muird tidak menghormati guru. Ibubapa yang tinggal dibandar biasanya tidak ada masa atau berpura-pura tidak ada masa untuk mengajar anak mereka. Tetapi mereka ada masa untuk menonton dan berjudi. Anak-anak mereka dibiarkan pergi tanpa tujuan, membuang masa dipanggung-panggung wayang, dikomplek-komplek perdagangan. Hubungan yang tidak rapat diantara ibubapa dengan anak mereka mengakibatkan sikap tidak menghormati bersemadi dihati mereka. Sikap ini juga terbawa-bawa kesekolah. Orang yang mereka sanjung serta hormati ialah seniman seniman.

Dari apa yang telah diterangkan tadi jelaslah mengapa masaalah tidak meng-menghormati guru-guru dibandar-bandar sering timbul. Keadaan akan menjadi lebih buruk lagi jika sekiranya tindakan tidak diambil oleh pihak-pihak yang tertentu seperti Kementerian Pelajaran, ibubapa dan guru. Tindakan-tindakan keras haruslah diambil supaya murid tetap menghormati guru-guru.

REZEKI SUDAH SECUPAK, DIMANAKAN BOLEH JADI SEGANTANG

Peribahasa 'rezeki sudah secupak, dimanakan boleh jadi segantang', merupakan salah satu peribahasa yang selalu bermain dibibir masyarakat Melayu yang tinggal di kampung-kampung maupun di bandar-bandar. Ianya membawa pengertian yang agak luas dan agak sukar difahami oleh setengah-setengah golongan, khususnya masyarakat Cina, India, Serani dan sebagainya. Malahan terdapat juga masyarakat Melayu yang Masih tidak faham atau tidak dapat menangkap dengan tepat maksud peribahasa ini. Walau pun demikian peribahasa ini tetap digunakan oleh orang orang tua Melayu yang benar-benar tahu akan setiap maksud yang dibawa oleh peribahasa ini. Secara kasar bolehlah ianya dimengertikan bahawa sekiranya pendapatan yang kita perolehi dari titik peluh kita sendiri sudah sedikit, masakan kita boleh memperolehi lebih dari itu. Dari segi yang lain pula ia membawa pengertian bahawa jika sudah ditakdirkan hidup kita ini miskin dan papa masakan pula kita boleh hidup kaya dan senang.

Lahirnya peribahasa ini ialah setelah orang tua-tua menyaksikan keadaan hidup masyarakat. Selain dari sebab pertama lahirnya peribahasa ini, terdapat juga satu lagi sebab iaitu untuk tujuan mengejek atau memperli sikap seseorang yang hanya pandai bercakap sahaja, menyuruh buat kerja itu dan ini tetapi kehidupan keluarganya begitu juga. Sesungguhnya jika peribahasa ini diutara untuk perbincangan atau pendebatan, sudah tentu ianya menjadi satu bahan perdebatan yang hangat. Bagi setengah golongan, sudah tentu mempunyai pendapat yang berlainan dengan setengah golongan yang lain. Golongan yang pertama mungkin berpendapat begini. Dalam zaman yang serba moden ini, manusia sering berlumba-lumba mengejar kemajuan dan tidak ketinggalan kekayaan serta ilmu pengetahuan. Akibatnya pendapatan yang dahulunya mereka perolehi hanya sedikit telah dapat dibanyakkan melalui berbagai usaha yang dijalankan. Jadi, jika peribahasa ini masih digunakan, pendapat yang diberikan olehnya itu amat meleset sekali. Ini adalah kerana masyarakat sekarang mempunyai pendapat yang berlainan serta bertentangan dengan pendapat masyarakat dahulu.

Sekarang mari pula kita dengar pendapat yang diberikan oleh golongan yang kedua ia itu golongan yang menyokong penuh pendapat yang diberikan oleh peribahasa ini, khususnya golongan yang kuat berpegang pada ugama. Mengikut kepercayaan ugama Islam rezeki serta jodoh pertemuan itu ditangan Tuhan. Kadangkala kalau difikirkan masak-masak memang ada betulnya. Sekiranya Tuhan sudah menetapkan rezeki sianu sebanyak ini dan rezeki sendiri sebanyak ini, sebanyak itulah yang akan diperolehi. Malahan tiada siapa pun didunia ini yang dapat menandingi kuasa Tuhan. Sesungguhnya Tuhan itu maha esa. Walaupun demikian, Tuhan tidak pula menyuruh malahan melarang umatnya berpeluk tubuh menantikan rezeki itu jatuh keriba. Masaalahnya sekarang, adakah dengan berpeluk tubuh itu rezeki akan sendiri datang? Jawapannya sudah tentu tidak. Sememangnya seseorang itu tidak akan dapat menentukan sebanyak mana rezeki yang akan diperolehinya jika sekiranya dia sendiri tidak bekerja dan berusaha mencarinya. Jika ada orang yang berpendirian sedemikian nyatakan kepadanya bahawa pendiriannya itu adalah sebenar-benarnya salah. Salah disisi ugama serta salah disisi masyarakat moden yang jarang berpeluk tubuh malahan terus menerus mengejar pengetahuan serta kemajuan.

Pada orang yang benar-benar dapat memahami pengertian peribahasa ini, sudah tentu dia mengatakan bahawa peribahasa ini merupakan satu cabaran untuk membuktikan kepada orang lain bahawa rezeki yang secupak itu dapat dijadikan segan-tang malahan lebih dari itu. Baiklah, kita ambil contoh kehidupan masyarakat kampung sekarang ini. Sedikit masa dahulu mereka hidup dalam kemiskinan dan agak sukar untuk mencapai kesenangan sebagaimana yang dimaksudkan oleh peribahasa diatas tetapi keadaan itu agak berlainan sekali dengan keadaan sekarang. Ini mungkin disebabkan oleh semangat inginkan kemajuan tambahan pula peribahasa ini merupakan cabaran buat mereka. Ketika ini mereka hidup dengan serba kesenangan, serba berkemajuan hasil usaha mereka kearah satu taraf hidup yang lebih tinggi lagi. Dengan berbangkitnya kejayaan peribahasa ini 'rezeki sudah secupak, dimanakan boleh jadi segantang' sekali lagi meleset pengertiannya. Tetapi kemelesetan itu hanya buat seketika sahaja kerana terdapat kembali satu golongan lain yang sememangnya dapat diterima oleh akal fikiran manusia. Misalnya, ada setengah-setengah keluarga yang bekerja tungkus lumus untuk mencari pendapatan yang lebih. Sesudah mendapat lebih malang sekali wang lebih itu terpaksa pula digunakan untuk mengubat sakit, mengansur hutang dan berbagai-bagai masaalah lagi. Akhirnya apabila dikaji semula rezekinya yang secupak nilainya secupak juga.

Sebagaimana biasa, peribahasa seumpama ini ada buruk dan nilainya. Jika ianya digunakan selalu, mungkin dapat mempengaruhi kehidupan anak-anak muda sekarang ini yang kebanyakannya malas hendak bekerja. Malahan apa yang mereka lakukan ialah menghabiskan masa-masa lapang mereka mundar mandir kesana kemari atau duduk menantikan kalau-kalau ada rezeki datang mencari. Disamping ia mempunyai daya pengaruh yang luar biasa ia juga merupakan satu cabaran dan perangsang kepada orang-orang yang waras pemikirannya.

Sebagai pengakhir kata, saya berpendapat peribahasa ini adalah satu satunya peribahasa yang sangat unik pengertian dan agak sukar untuk dibuang terus kerana ia mempunyai faedah-faedah yang sukar dilihat oleh golongan-golongan yang tidak faham akan maksudnya. Jadi saya harap peribahasa 'rezeki sudah secupak, dimanakan boleh jadi segantang akan terus dipraktikkan dalam semua golongan disetiap keturunan.

SIKAP MEMENTINGKAN DIRI SENDIRI

Sikap mementingkan diri sendiri ini sebenarnya telah wujud di kalangan manusia semenjak zaman-zaman silam lagi. Sikap ini telah wujud semasa manusia lahir ke dunia dan mula mengenal apa itu hidup. Ianya tidak mati, malahan terus menerus kehidupan manusia sehari-hari. Contoh yang dapat diambil ialah dari segi politik. Keadaan politik didalam sesebuah negara adalah ditentukan oleh para pemimpinnya yang mungkin bersikap mementingkan diri sendiri ataupun bersikap mementingkan rakyat serta negara ini menunjukkan dengan jelas betapa penting sikap ini didalam pergolakan politik sesebuah negara maupun didalam masyarakat amnya.

Sikap ini adalah terbahagi kepada tiga jenisnya yang utama, pertama, sikap mementingkan diri sendiri sahaja. Kedua, sikap mementingkan orang lain dan ketiga, kedua-dua sikap ini disatukan. Kalau dikaji dengan teliti, ketiga-tiga jenis sikap ini ada baik buruknya. Sebagai contoh, bolehlah kita ambil tindak-tanduk seorang pembesar Cina, iaitu Pengerusi Mao Tse Tung. Sikapnya bolehlah dijeniskan sikap jenis ketiga seperti yang diterangkan diatas. Ini menyebabkan dasar-dasar politiknya berlainan dari pembesar negara yang lain dan agak ganjil. Pengerusi Mao memerintah negaranya dengan tegas dan mengenakan undang-undang yang ketat. Sebaliknya beliau telah dapat menjaga rakyatnya dengan baik dan dapat melindungi dari ancaman-ancaman musuh. Ini dapat dijeniskan sebagai sikap mementingkan orang lain pula. Dalam pada itu di arena antarabangsa, beliau tidak mahu ambil tahu atau dalam ertikata yang lain pula tidak menghiraukan negara-negara lain di dunia kecuali negaranya sendiri.

Seperti yang telah dinyatakan diatas sikap-sikap ini ada yang baik dan buruknya. Jika seseorang itu terlalu mementingkan dirinya, ia mungkin dibenci orang ramai . Tetapi sebaliknya, jika seseorang atau sesebuah negara mementingkan diri sendiri, mungkin hal ini disukai oleh negara-negara lain. Contohnya, Amerika Syarikat. Jika ia berhenti dari campurtangan dalam hal politik negara-negara lain dan sebaliknya menjaga keadaan politik sendiri, sudah tentu ia mendapat kembali kehormatan dari setengah-setengah negara.

Bagaimana halnya seseorang yang hanya mementingkan orang lain. Seseorang yang bersikap begini mungkin pula disukai oleh orang lain. Itu semua terpulanglah kepada beberapa faktor penting. Tetapi adakalanya ia amat dibenci oleh orang. Kadang kala sifat ini menyebabkan kehormatan yang selalu dibangga-banggakan. Dari itu seseorang manusia itu harus memiliki kedua-dua sikap yang berlainan itu. Penggunaannya secara bijaksana akan membawa kejayaan besar kepada seseorang indivisu itu sebagaimana yang telah berlaku keatas beratus-ratus ahli politik diseluruh dunia.

Akhir sekali cara-cara pengunaannya dalam masyarakat sehari-hari. Didalam masyarakat sikap ini boleh dibahagikan kepada dua bahagian. Bahagian yang pertama, iaitu sebagai seorang individu adalah lebih baik jika mementingkan orang lain. Ini akan dapat memberikan suatu kehormatan kepada diri seseorang individu itu. Tetapi sayang sekali, bila seseorang itu sudah ternama ia lupa akan kepentingan orang lain. Ini tidaklah dapat disangkal lagi kerana ada ketikanya seseorang itu mesti menukar sikap lamanya kepada sikap mementingkan diri sendiri. Bahagian yang kedua pula menyentuh perihal masyarakat keseluruhannya. Ahli-ahli masyarakat harus mengamalkan sikap mementingkan diri orang lain, kerana inilah sahaja jalan yang boleh menyatupadukan sesebuah masyarakat. Sikap ini seterusnya dapat menjadikan seseorang itu mempunyai perasaan muhibbah dan kerjasama diantara satu sama lain.

MASAALAH–MASAALAH BUTA HURUF

Buta huruf telah berleluasa dikalangan orang ramai. Sebagaimana yang kita tahu seorang yang buta huruf itu adalah seorang yang tidak tahu membaca dan menulis. Dengan wujudnya buta huruf disesebuah negara banyak masaalah-masaalah rumit telah timbul kepada negara dan masyarakat dari semua lapangan. Justru pihak yang berkuasa telah mengambil tindakan-tindakan yang sewajarnya untuk mengatasi masaa-lah-masaalah tersebut.

Seseorang yang buta huruf sudah pasti akan mengalami kepedihan hidup dan akan melalui liku-liku kehidupan. Misalnya, seorang yang tidak tahu membaca tidak akan mendapat kesempatan untuk mengetahui tentang hal-ehwal didalam atau diluar negeri. Apa yang dimaksudkan ialah ia tidak dapat membaca surat khabar yang memberi berita-berita yang bersabit dengan politik, sosial, ekonomi, sukan dan lain-lain lagi. Seseorang yang buta huruf itu juga tidak kukuh pendiriannya dikalangan masyarakat. Mungkin ia akan di keji ataupun tidak diendahkan. Taraf kehidupan tidaklah seimbang dengan taraf kehidupan orang-orang yang bukan buta huruf.

Disamping itu, seorang buta huruf tidak dapat menceburkan diri dalam bidang politik. Ia juga akan mendapat atau menemui kegagalan dalam bidang ekonomi. Jika ia hendak berniaga, kebolehan membaca dan menulis perlu ada. Walaupun seorang buta huruf boleh bertutur dan bercakap dalam bahasanya sendiri tetapi bagaimana pula apabila ia bercampur-gaul dengan orang lain. Oleh kerana ini semua kanak-ka-nak dari masa kecilnya lagi harus dibimbing dan dididik oleh ibu-bapa dan kemudian perlu diberi pelajaran disekolah.

Jika kita meninjau secara teliti, buta huruf ini telah banyak ujud dikawasan luar bandar dan kampung-kampung. Ini tidak bermakna buta huruf tidak langsung muncul di kota-kota. Golongan masyarakat dari kampung-kampung telah menghadapi beberapa kesusahan apabila mereka berhijrah ke bandar. Nama sendiri pun tak tahu. Hanya menandatangani sesuatu surat dengan cap ibu jari. Cabarannya sungguh kuat. Kadangkala terpaksa pula menerima segala tindasan dan tekanan yang menyedihkan atau memalukan jiwa seseorang yang buta huruf itu. Lantaran itu dapatlah kita tahu sekarang betapa pentingnya dan peranan yang dimainkan oleh pelajaran. Tanpa pelajaran yang membolehkan seseorang itu membaca dan menulis, seseorang itu dianggap ia telah dewasa secara negatif atau dengan tidak mengalami segala daya-usaha kerajin-an dalam belajar semenjak kecil lagi.

Sesebuah negara yang mempunyai masyarakat buta huruf adalah di golongkan mundur atau tidak maju dari segi politik, ekonomi, sosial, dan kebudayaan kerana masyarakat dinamis, progresif dan terpelajarlah yang akan mengukuhkan keadaan bidang-bidang tersebut. Tindakan-tindakan yang sesuai seperti kelas-kelas dewasa telah di tubuh untuk mengatasi masaalah yang rumit ini. Dinegara kita buta huruf adalah warisan yang ditinggalkan oleh Penjajah-penjajah menggunakan hasil negeri untuk negaranya tanpa mengambil endah soal memberi pelajaran anak jajahannya. Bila mereka ia menjadi beban kerajaan rakyat negara kita. Malaysia bernasib baik telah sedar dari awal-awal lagi dalam menghadapi masaalah masyarakat ini. Sebab itulah ia telah membelanjakan banyak wang untuk kemajuan luar-bandar yang mana satu daripa-danya adalah membasmi buta huruf. Supaya penyakit buta huruf tidak menurun ke jenerasi akan datang, soal mendaftar anak-anak yang patut bersekolah telah dibuat lima tahun terlebih dahulu dari sepatutnya seseorang anak itu masuk sekolah. Dengan pendaftaran ini kerajaan mudah menyediakan rancangan untuk menampung persekolahan mereka kelak.

Sungguhpun rata-rata kanak-kanak masuk sekolah tetapi masih dijumpai buta huruf dalam zaman sains ini. Contoh yang paling baik ialah kita pernah jumpa berpuluh-puluh murid belajar tingkatan tiga yang tidak tahu membaca. Setengahnya tahu menulis tetapi tidak tahu apa yang ditulis olehnya. Ini pun menjadi masaalah kepada negara.

Kesimpulannya segala daya-usaha dan langkah-langkah harus diberi pertimbangan oleh masyarakat sesebuah negara untuk membasmi buta huruf dikalangan orang ramai demi kepentingan masyarakat dan negara di masa hadapan kelak.

Disebuah desa yang terpencil tinggal seorang gadis yang berwajah ayu. Gadis yang bernama Zaira ini tinggal bersama ibunya yang sudah tua. Bapanya telah lama pergi menyahut seruan Illahi. Kehidupan mereka anak beranak sungguh menyedihkan. Mereka hidup dengan pemberian jiran-jiran mereka dan kadang-kadang Zaira mengambil upah menjahit dan mencuci kain. Mereka tidak mempunyai apa-apa harta cuma sebuah pondok usang untuk tempat mereka berteduh.

Zaira bercita-cita untuk pergi ke bandar mencari pekerjaan tetapi apakan daya dia cuma kerkelulusan sekolah pondok atap sahaja. Tiba-tiba pada suatu hari hatinya melonjak kegembiraan apabila mendengar seorang pemuda yang datang dari Kuala Lumpur sedang mencari beberapa orang gadis di kampung itu untuk diambil bekerja dengan majikannya. Pemuda yang tampan, segak dan berpakaian kemas itu pergi rumah ke rumah dan menceritakan peluang-peluang pekerjaan kepada ibu bapa gadis-gadis itu termasuk ibu Zaira. Ramai ibu bapa yang terpengaruh dengan pemuda itu dan ada juga sebilangan kecil yang membantah termasuk ibu Zaira. Ibu Zaira khuatir yang pemuda itu hanya berlagak sahaja untuk memancing gadis-gadis untuk di bawa ke Kuala Lumpur. Akan tetapi setelah dipujuk rayu oleh Zaira ibunya terpaksa mengalah.

Seorang demi seorang gadis ditemuduga oleh pemuda itu. Gadis-gadis itu sungguh tertawan dengan gelagat pemuda itu dan ramai daripada mereka mengatakan sanggup bekerja dengan majikannya. Setelah ditapis dan dikaji gadis-gadis itu akhirnya lima orang telah terpileh termasuk Zaira. Tetapi yang anihnya mereka yang di pileh itu semuanya cantik-cantik belaka.

Ibubapa gadis-gadis itu sungguh gembira kerana anak-anak mereka terpileh

dan ada pula membuat kenduri doa selamat. Zaira sungguh gembira tetapi ibunya penuh dengan kekhuatiran mengenai keselamatan anaknya di kota besar itu. Pada suatu pagi yang tenang kelima-lima anak gadis itu dibawa ke Kuala Lumpur yang penuh dengan berbagai-bagai godaan dan cabaran dengan sebuah kereta Mercedes yang dipandu oleh pemuda itu. Zaira bersama gadis-gadis itu sungguh gembira menjejakkan kaki mereka yang pertama di Kuala Lumpur. Mereka kagum dengan keindahan dan kemajuan Kuala Lumpur. Mereka ditempatkan disebuah rumah batu yang sederhana besarnya dan ditemani oleh seorang perempuan yang separuh umur. Mereka tidak dibenarkan keluar dari rumah itu kecuali bersama pemuda itu. Pada suatu hari pemuda itu datang bersama seorang lain iaitu majikannya. Orang itu memerhatikan mereka dari atas kebawah kemudian orang itu menganggukkan kepala kepada pemuda itu.

Pemuda itu memberitahu mereka yang mereka telah diterima bekerja. Pada keesukan hari mereka telah dipindahkan ksesebuah rumah yang mempunyai banyak bilik-bilik kecil. Dirumah itu juga terdapat beberapa orang lagi gadis-gadis yang manis-manis belaka. Kelima-lima orang gadis itu diberi sebuah bilik tiap-tiap seorang. Pada waktu malam majikan pemuda itu telah masuk ke bilik Zaira sedang dia tidur nyenyak. Dia terjaga dari tidurnya apabila dia terdengar tapak kaki berjalan kearahnya. Dia menjerit apabila dia terasa tangan kasar menyentuh tubuhnya. Manusia yang penuh dengan dosa ini tiba-tiba merangkul tubuh Zaira. Zaira meronta-ronta untuk melepaskan dirinya tetapi apakan daya dia hanya seorang perempuan yang bersifat lemah. Orang itu memukulnya hingga pengsan dan telah mencabul kehormatannya semasa dia dalam keadaan tidak sedarkan diri.

Pada pagi esuknya kelima-lima orang gadis itu telah dipanggil. Mereka sungguh terperanjat apabila kerja yang ditawarkan ialah kerja yang terkutuk dan hiba disisi ugama dan Tuhan. Kerja itu tidak lain tidak bukan ialah melacurkan diri. Baharu gadis-gadis itu tahu yang mereka telah tertipu dan merasa sungguh menyesal. Tetapi apakan daya nasi telah menjadi bubur. Hendak keluar dari rumah jahanam itu bererti mereka akan menempah maut. Rumah itu dikawal dengan ketat oleh pemuda-pemuda yang tidak berperi kemanusiaan. Tiap-tiap hari mereka terpaksa melayani pelanggan-pelanggan mereka. Wajah orang tua mereka dan kampung halaman selalu bermain diruang mata mereka.

Ibubapa di kampung sungguh gembira kerana anak mereka telah ditawarkan pekerjaan tetapi mereka tidak tahu yang anak-anak mereka menangis siang dan malam mengenangkan nasib untung mereka. Sekiranya orang-orang kampung mendapat tahu akan pekerjaan mereka ini alangkah malunya orang-orang tua mereka. Mereka berharap pada suatu masa nanti mereka akan terlepas dari genggaman ini dan perosak-perosak gadis itu ditangkap dan dihukum dengan seberat-beratnya.

'TIADA AEDES TIADA DENGGI'

'Tiada Aedes Tiada Denggi' dikalangan kita merupakan rangkaikata yang telah biasa dilihat maupun didengar dalam talivisyen. Ia juga merupakan satu nasihat atau cogan kepada kita supaya menghapuskan nyamuk Aedes kerana ia adalah pembawa penyakit deman denggi.

Kebanyakan penyakit deman, contohnya deman kepialu adalah disebabkan oleh nyamuk. Begitulah juga dengan penyakit deman denggi. Aedes ialah sejenis nyamuk yang membawa penyakit deman denggi. Penyakit Denggi kalau hendak dikirakan sangat merbahaya hingga boleh menyebabkan kematian. Setakat ini, pakar-pakar perubatan didalam dunia masih belum dapat mencari ubat yang sesuai untuk mengubati penyakit deman denggi itu. Dinegara kita, penyakit deman denggi telah merebak dengan luasnya dan telah menyebabkan beberapa kematian. Kebanyakan orang-orang yang mati akibat penyakit ini terdiri dari kanak-kanak, Dari itu satu langkah tegas haruslah diambil untuk menghapuskan atau mengurangkan penyakit deman denggi ini. Kerajaan kita juga telah melancarkan satu gerakan atau kempen yang dinamakan kempen Anti-Aedes tidak beberapa lama dahulu. Tujuan diadakan kempen seumpama ini ialah untuk menyeru rakyat bekerjasama dalam setiap usaha kerajaan menghapuskan nyamuk Aedes. Pembiakan nyamuk-nyamuk Aedes akan membawa petanda-petanda buruk yakni kesihatan setiap ahli masyarakat mungkin terganggu. Melalui kempen ini kerajaan berharap akan dapat menyelesaikan masaalah penyakit deman dengan ini dengan bantuan kerjasama yang sepenuhnya dari rakyat jelata.

Kerajaan juga telah mula menyedari bahawa kebanyakan rakyat khasnya rakyat yang tinggal di kampung-kampung dan kawasan-kawasan pendalaman masih belum mengetahui bahaya penyakit ini. Mereka juga mungkin belum lagi mengetahui bahawa penyakit ini dibawa oleh nyamuk-nyamuk Aedes. Untuk menyedarkan mereka semua tenatang bahaya Aedes kerajaan telah bersusah payah memperlihatkan fflem-filem pendek mengenai nyamuk-nyamuk Aedes ini didalam talivisyen, radio-radio serta bahan-bahan yang utama seperti surat khabar, Disamping itu iklan-iklan kecil juga diedarkan dengan percuma kepada orang ramai supaya mereka mengetahui bagaimana rupanya nyamuk Aedes itu dan apakah tanda-tanda penyakit deman denggi itu serta cara-cara mencegahnya.

Kalaulah semua rakyat sedar bahawa Aedes ini adalah pembawa penyakit denggi maka sudah tentu nyamuk-nyamuk itu boleh dilenyapkan sama sekali. Selalunya nyamuk-nyamuk Aedes membiak disekelilingi atau didalam rumah. Nyamuk-nyamuk Aedes ini juga membiak didalam air yang tenang dan tidak berkocak. Contoh-contoh yang boleh diambil ialah seperti membuang air didalam tin-tin kosong, tayar-tayar buruk dan sebagainya.Pendekata nyamuk Aedes ini boleh membiak dimana-mana sahaja asalkan airnya tidak berkocak atau dalam ertikata yang lain air tenang.

Dari itu, nyamuk-nyamuk Aedes boleh dihapuskan jika tin-tin kosong dan bekas-bekas takungan air dibuang atau dikambus (ditanam) didalam tanah. Selain dari itu, longkang-longkang yang tersebut hendaklah dibersihkan supaya air dalamnya dapat mengalir dengan baik. Kerajaan juga telah memperkenalkan satu jenis ubat jentik-jentik yang diberi nama "Abate" yang boleh membunuh jentik-jentik nyamuk dalam air. Ubat itu hendaklah ditaruh kedalam bekas-bekas takungan air yang mana airnya tidak ditukar dalam masa yang singkat, seperti di akuarium ikan dan tong-tong bekalan air.

Disamping menggunakan ubat-ubatan, kerajaan juga telah mengambil satu langkah ketat iaitu mendenda orang ramai jika para pegawai kesihatan mendapati jentik-jentik nyamuk Aedes sedang membiak dengan banyaknya disekelilinggi rumah. Dengan cara ini rakyat yang malas juga terpaksa memastikan supaya nyamuk Aedes tidak membiak dikawasan sekeliling rumah mereka.

SIJIL KELAYAKAN SAHAJA TIDAK MEMADAI BAGI MENJAMIN SESEORANG ITU MENCAPAI KEJAYAAN DALAM HIDUPNYA. BINCANGKAN.

Dalam dunia yang sering mementingkan dan mengukur kejayaan seseorang adalah penting untuk tiap-tiap orang berlumba-lumba mencari kejayaan dalam hidup supaya dipandang tinggi oleh masyarakat. Pada masa ini ada perbahasan disurat khabar mengenai kepentingan sijil kelayakan dalam kehidupan. Ada orang berpendapat bahawa kepentingan sijil kelayakan telah menukar corak belajar mencari pengetahuan lama kecorak belajar untuk mendapat sijil kelayakan seperti Sijil Rendah Pelajaran.. Ini adalah jelas kelihatan di Jepun dimana terdapat banyak pemuda-pemudi membunuh diri setelah gagal mendapat sijil kelayakan. Dari itu ada orang berpendapat bahawa sijil kelayakan tidak sepatutnya memainkan peranan penting dalam kejayaan hidup.

Pada masa ini sering terdapat orang terpelajar menyatakan bahawa sijil kelayakan sahaja tidak memadai bagi menjamin seseorang itu mencapai kejayaan dalam hidupnya. Mereka ini berpendapat bahawa segala usaha untuk mendapat pengetahuan dan pengalaman bertulis dan bukan untuk kejayaan. Mereka ini berkata sijil kelayakan merupakan kertas sahaja dan kejayaan sepatutnya dicapai mengikut pengalaman praktikal dan kebolehan. Misalnya Ravi Tikoo dapat berjuta-juta ringgit dari 80 ringgit modal yang pertama. Beliau juga berjaya mengumpul harta dan mempunyai kawan yang banyak tanda pertama kejayaan beliau dalam kehidupan tetapi beliau tidak mempunyai sijil kelayakan atau seumpamanya. Bukan hanya beliau sahaja tetapi beratus-ratus orang seperti Paul Getty mendapat kejayaan tanpa sijil kelayakan. Malah orang besar dan ternama seperti Julius Caesar menggemparkan zaman Rom kerana kebolehan berperang yang tidak datang dari sijil kelayakannya.

Pada masa ini sijil kelayakan tidak dapat menentukan seseorang itu mendapat pekerjaan tangga pertama mencapai kejayaan. Dengan itu orang berkelulusan Univer-siti mengganggur kerana kurang berpengalaman. Malah benar juga bahawa sijil kelayakan sahaja bukanlah paspot kejayaan dalam zaman moden ini.

Dalam zaman ini banyak ibu-bapa menghantar anak-anak mereka kesekolah kerana mereka berpendapat sijil kelayakan sahaja mencukupi untuk mencapai kejayaan. Kesimpulan mereka ini dipersetujui oleh setengah orang yang mementingkan sijil kelayakan. Misalnya seorang pemuda yang berkelulusan Sijil Rendah Pelajaran mendapat kerja sebagai budak pejabat. Dengan gaji yang didapatinya dia telah menanam modal yang sekarang berharga lima ratus juta ringgit. Orang itu adalah salah seorang bekas ketua menteri. Beliau mencapai kejayaan kerana sijil kelayakannya yang merupakan batu loncatannya mendapat kejayaan. Dengan itu juga ada kebenaran dalam kesimpulan bahawa sijil kelayakan memadai untuk mendapat kejayaan.

Dari kedua-dua kesimpulan diatas, kejayaan seseorang bergantung kepada ekonomi ataupun nasib. Sijil kelayakan merupakan satu alat sahaja untuk mendapat kejayaan dan memadai atau tidak bergantung kepada keadaan.

yang penuh dengan pasiran putih
juga batuan ditepian berdiri.....megah.

Feringgi!.....
dihujung sana
dihiasi siput-siput laut serta pohon-pohon Ru bersama senyuman dan jelinganmu.

Feringgi!.....
dilawati riak-riak ombak putih rebah dan tidur dipangkuanmu kerana menunggu hari esok.

Aku!.....

denyutan rasa melonjak-lonjak
belum tercapai masakan pudar.
Mana bisa biduk tiris ditepian

yang mesti biduk merempoh
buat menentu berkecai dibadai atau terus menurut irama alunan.

Meski tanpa iringan jaya
berpatah mengalah mana bisanya

SAMBUTAN HARI GURU–GURU DISEKOLAH SAYA SAYA PADA TAHUN 1976

Pada hari Ahad 16hb Mei 1976 iaitu Hari Guru-guru, kami tidak menyambutnya pada hari itu kerana pada tarikh itu sekolah kami cuti. Pada hari Isnin 17hb Mei 1976 kami menyambut Hari Guru. Pada hari itu Guru Besar menyuruh kami jangan membawa beg kesekolah. Setelah menyanyi Lagu Kebangsaan seorang ketua murid bernama Wong Kok Loon keluar membaca ikrar bagi pihak murid terhadap guru-guru.

Setelah itu murid-murid darjah satu hingga tiga dibawa oleh guru-guru masing-masing masuk kedewan untuk menyaksikan tayangan gambar. Murid-murid darjah empat hingga enam pula beratur ditepi gelanggang bulu tangkis antara menyaksikan perlawanan bulu tangkis antara murid-murid dengan guru-guru. Disebelah gelanggang yang lain pula murid-murid menyaksikan perlawanan ping pong antara murid-murid dengan guru-guru dan juga Guru Besar.

Perlawanan yang pertama ialah bergu bulu tangkis. Pasukan murid-murid diwakili oleh pemain Sam Chee Kwong dan S. Paramsivam bertemu dengan Cikgu Lim Chong Moh dan Puan Yap yang bersekudahannya dimenangi oleh pasukan murid-murid.

Perlawanan yang kedua ialah diantara Lam Kai Seng dan Ghafar Basiron dengan cikgu-cikgu lain. Cikgu Lim Chong Moh bertemu dengan Sam Chee Kwong dalam perlawanan perseorangan. Disetengah perlawanan itu, Cikgu Lim berasa letih. Walau bagaimana pun dia teruskan perlawanan itu. Disebelah gelanggang yang lain ada juga banyak murid-murid bermain ping-pong dalam darjah saya ialah Chow Hing Choon, Lo Kee Fong dan ramai orang dari darjah lain. Murid-murid yang bermain permainanbbulu tangkis dan ping-pong dapat seorang sebotol minuman percuma dari Guru Besar. Ada guru-guru yang dapat hadiah daripada murid-murid darjahnya. Ada hadiah yang besar dan mahal dan ada yang kecil tetapi mahal dan lain-lain lagi.

Pada hari itu juga ada setengah-setengah kelas yang membawa sedikit kuih untuk jamuan ringan dengan cikgunya. Setelah habis perlawanan bulu tangkis dan ping pong, murid-murid darjah empat hingga enam pula dibawa oleh guru masing-masing naik kedewan untuk menyaksikan pertunjukan wayang gambar yang bertajuk ' CAHILL". Murid-murid dari darjah satu hingga tiga pun turun dari dewan dan balik ke rumah masing-masing.

Selepas pertunjukan wayang gambar, kami pun turun dari dewan dan di benarkan pulang. Hari itulah hari yang bertuah sekali bagi saya kerana dapat bermain dengan Guru Besar dan guru-guru lain. Hari itu jugalah hari yang saya suka. Bila saya balik ke rumah, saya menceritakan semuanya kepada emak saya. Emak saya mengatakan bahawa masa bersekolah lebih seronok daripada masa bekerja.

KEGEMARAN SAYA

Semua orang di dunia ini mempunyai kegemaran mereka masing-masing, begitu juga dengan saya. Kegemaran saya ialah mengumpul setem. Kegemaran ini saya habiskan pada waktu lapang saya. Saya mula mengumpul setem semasa berumur lapan tahun, bila bapa saya menghadiahkan sebuah album setem pada harijadi saya. Sekarang ini saya mempunyai banyak setem-setem dari berbagai-bagai negeri. Kebanyakan daripada setem-setem saya ialah dari negeri-negeri England, Malaysia, Cina, India, Amerika, Australia, Singapura, Nepal, Iran dan dari lain-lain negeri.

Setem-setem saya yang terbanyak sekali ialah dari negeri England kerana kakak saudara saya sedang menuntut di England. Tiap-tiap bulan dia akan menghantar beberapa keping setem untuk saya.

Kadang-kadang saya menukarkan setem-setem saya dengan kawan-kawan saya dan saya juga membeli beberapa setem dari pejabat pos. Saya mengumpul kerana saya dapat meluaskan lagi idea dan pengetahuan saya dengan membaca tarikh bilakan seseorang yang masyhur itu dilahirkan dan bila seseorang itu meninggal dunia dengan tarikh diatas setem itu. Kata bapa saya kadang-kadang seseorang pengumpul setem itu menjadi kaya dengan menjual setem-setem mereka yang lama dengan harga yang mahal.

Saya ingin menyambungkan lagi kegemaran saya tetapi bila saya besar kelak mungkin saya tidak akan menyambungkan lagi kegemaran saya ini kerana saya mungkin bekerja dan tidak ada masa.

Oleh yang demikian saya akan memberi setem-setem saya kepada anak-anak saya yang suka mengumpulkan setem untuk menyambungkan lagi kegemaran saya.

THE GHOST BUSTER

"Well, folks, that's all for now. Next week I'll be back with more after spending a night in another so called haunted house, so be sure to tune in and hear all about it. Here's your friendly ghost buster signing off. Good night". The 'on air' light went off in the BBC television studio and Mike Shannon rose with a sigh of relief for his cramped muscles were beginning to protest at having sat such a lengthy period on the chair. He stretched to let the blood course through his stiff body. One of the news broadcasting chaps beckoned to him from across the room and said, "Mike! The big man wants you in his office'.

Mike, whose weekly programme was among the top-rated television shows, wondered what his producer wanted him for and walked briskly to the office. After having been greeted with a half-nod and gestured to a seat by the producer, his boss opened the conversation without further ado. "Mike, you've done real good. As a ghost buster going around proving that ghosts are merely thwarted figments of the human mind, you are a great hit with the viewers. Well, here's another assignment for you to sink your teeth in. There's a Mayor Johnson from Mason County who claims that there is a haunted house and he wants you to investigate it". A large bulky envelope was tossed over to Mike who caught it. ' You'll find the details inside". With that Mike was dismissed. He proceeded to his office and began to read the contents of the envelope.

The next evening found Mike motoring down to Mason Country. According to information given, the haunted Verlaine Manor was the solitary one on the long and winding Mather Road, so Mike was imperturbed when darkness encroached for he was confident of finding the house, As he rounded a bend where grew an old gnarled oak tree, through the thick blanket of darkness, Mike saw lights glimmering from a house some distance from the road. That must be it. As he drove up the unkempt drive beside the oak tree, he scrutinised the mansion. A shiver of apprehension spiralled up his spine as he looked at the formidable and grim-looking building. There seemed to be an overpowering aura of evil emanating from it. Irritably Mike shrugged off the fear that had overcome him and switched off the running engine. There was an instantaneous silence which hung in the air, so silent that Mike could almost feel it. Determindedly, he got out of the car and strode to the door.

As he lifted a hand to the heavy lion-shaped knocker, the door slowly creaked eerily open and he stepped back with a startled cry. An elderly wizened man peered out at him and said in an oddly parched voice, "Ah, Mr. Shannon, I am expecting you, come in, come in. I am the caretaker here".

Mike entered the hall. It was a magnificient piece of architecture. Enchanting pictures were lovingly carved into the pillars of the hall. Portraits of resplendently gowned ladies adorned the walls. The old carpet that stretched the length of the hall hinted of the past luxurious tastes of its occupants. Mike, enthralled at the vastness of the hall, could imagine the balls that must have been held there countless years ago. He could almost see the pretty ladies waltzing with their beaus in the hall. At the end of the hall was an exquisitely sculptured staircase which ascended to the top floor and this was where Mike was led.

His earlier fears dissipated and lulled into a sense of security with the nearness of another fellow being, Mike began to ask questions. ' I heard that this place is haunted, is it true? Aren't you afraid of ghosts, staying here alone by yourself?" he enquired.

"No, my lad. I've been here all these years and there aren't any strange happenings. Ghosts, huh!" Having heard these words, Mike was satisfied and he relapsed into silence.

"Hmm, if things go well, I'll be back tomorrow and this is something to tell the Mayor and viewers. A supposedly haunted house with no unnatural incidents. Yet, folks around here are terrified by it. Boy! What a coup' , thought Mike jubilantly as he envisaged his next show,' and I don't even have to explain away things such as blood-curdling screams and eerie music".

Having shown him his room, the caretaker withdrew discreetly and Mike was left alone. He walked across the creaking floor to the bed and sat down. Unaccountably, a feeling of impending terror assailed him again, and with an oath, he forced himself to calm down. He resolved to sit through the night to see if anything would happen. Time passed slowly and hardly a sound disturbed the uncanny silence of the room except for the regular thumping of his heart and the occasional hoots of owls.

A few hours before dawn broke, Mike had a sudden urge for a cigarrette He reached into his rumpled pocket and groped for his cigarrette box. He opened it and found none. Exasperatedly, he decided to go to town to buy the cigarettes.

"Anyway," he reasoned, ' my job here is finished as it's almost dawn. ' Without waking the caretaker for fear of disturbing his sleep, Mike slipped quietly out the front door and drove to town. A small commotion at the mayor's house met him as he reached his destination. He went over to see what was the matter and saw a familiar face, his employer's among the crowd.

"Mike!" Nick's thunderous voice was tinged with relief as he stalked up to Mike followed by the mayor and the rest. "Where have you been? I got a call from the caretaker at the Manor who said you didn't turn up, that's why I came here!'

Mike's mind was in a turmoil and he felt an icy fear grip him. His hands were clammy and cold sweat began to break out of his forehead. "It's impossible' , he convinced himself, "there must be some mistake". He quickly related the night's incident to Nick. The mayor suggested visiting the Manor to clarify the matter and they agreed.

As they drew level with the distinct oak tree, Mike began to slow down the car. He looked up the drive and stared in utter disbelief. His mouth fell open, for there was no house there at all! The mayor's disapproving voice interrupted his muddled thoughts, "Don't stop here, Mr. Shannon, the Manor's still a couple of miles away". Dazedly, Mike drove on.

Was the house and the caretaker a sinister trick of his mind or was it something else? There was no answer to it and since then Mike never appeared on television as the ghost buster again.

LEADERSHIP

'Anybody can be made a leader, but a good leader is born, not made'—Wordsworth

Man is born to be led. His intentions and mind are easily influenced. He needs inspiratory power and orders to guide him. Not anything can provide these. Only an exceptional few can—they are called leaders.

To be a leader is not easy. To be a good leader is difficult. A leader must be someone who can command respect and obedience from his people. He must have their confidence in all aspects. A commanding character is required. A good leader should be able to grasp the situation of a problem, think clearly and take the initiative to act in response. Irresponsibility in a leader is disastrous. Usually, if not all, his actions will be ill planned and badly executed.

Leadership—good and bad—is evident from the earliest of civilisation. Ancient leaders of men like Perricles, Alexander, Emperor Chin, Caesar, Asoka and Genghiz Khan ruled the vast empires so well that their policies were practised by their successors for centuries. Others like Nero were so hated that they were murdered well before their time. These famous leaders are intellectually brilliant, great strategists and philosophers. They can even qualify as psycholigists for their acute awareness of human nature. Their skill lie in knowing what their people want and don't want and how to provide the wants and how to persuade the 'don't wants' to be accepted. The latter is extremely important.

One might say how cruel Emperor Chin was and how merciless was Genghiz Khan. But the beauty of their rule is that they managed to unite their people into one organized group and to rule it wisely. What our-siders say is not important. The opinion of the ruled is what that counts. Take Genghiz Khan for example. The Mongols (they can't even agree on using the same name!) were so busy and constantly fighting each other that they could not protect themselves from the Chinese invaders. However, they soon found a natural leader in Genghiz Khan who was so physically imposing that he awed his people who were not underdeveloped themselves. Genghiz Khan united the Mongols, trained them and led the conquest of nearly the whole of Asia! Impossible! He did it. Perricles brought Athens under a single rule and expanded the boundaries far and beyond. This great statesman and soldier ruled Athens so wisely and smoothly that his reign is called The Golden Era of Athens. Perricles even introduced public voting and social philosophy.

One may wonder how these people can rule over such immense empires with such primitive communication systems as foot messengers and horsemen. They did and with incredible results. Augustus Caesar, just before his death was able to give a complete account of his rule—the present conditions of the empire, the state of his treasury and how many soldiers there were in active service and so on. Alexander knew roughly how many people there were in each of his province and how many horses and soldiers were available. Not one case of famine, or disaster escaped his attention. Leaders who go so far as to obtain such detailed information despite communication obstacles are justly successful. Their great skill at organisation is admirable.

Accounts of bad leadership are much more numerous and notorious. Hitler with his fascinating and excellent oratory power coaxed, charmed, bluffed and cheated his way into the chancellor's chair. His miraculous salvation of postwar Germany's crippled economy can be credited to his cunning and merciless treatment of workers. Forced labour was implemented and trade unions abolished. Human rights were violated everyday. Though laterxhis days were numbered, he refused to accept the inevitable continued to send thousands to their death to achieve his maniacal ambitions. In this he has one modern follower—Idi Amin. This madman, in his own words, the 'rollicking, good natured, kind father of Uganda and leader of Africa' has ordered the massacre of more than 200,000 of his own people to secure his own presidency. 'Accidents' are hapenning to his people everyday. Leaders like Amin are easily manipulated by outside power who care not for human rights but material gains and political influence.

A problem now arises—how to choose a wise and capable leader? Here opinion varies. Some say one can be chosen through democratic voting, others insist on the power struggle method. No matter how, a very careful selection must be made by the ruled masses to ensure a peaceful future. In this modern era, a slip somewhere, and the whole world might be embroiled in an extermination war. So far, our nation is still in dire need of good, capable leaders. It is hoped that the Government will take steps to mould the present young generation into better shapes than they now are, otherwise our future looks very dark.

Two points about income: make it first and make it last.

THE TRUE END OF EDUCATION

In this modern era, many age old concepts or views have been revised and in some cases discarded. But there are certain concepts that have survived the passage of time and have remained unchanged through the centuries. One of the most striking and discerning example of this is the purpose or directive of education.

Education is defined as the training of a child mentally and morally but most people think of education as otherwise. They seem to have the ideasthat education is the gateway to independence and a good job without realising the true meaning of it. Education teaches us how to live, not how to earn a living. It ought to guide and prepare a child to utilize to the full all the facilities that nature has given him, physically, mentally, and spiritually. So many people only want to be educated so that they can command a higher salary in the labour market, or that they may be a little better than their neighbours. Education for those ends will bring no happiness; at best it will bring a sense of superiority which only causes conflict with others. Education which seeks to develop to the full the faculties of mankind brings with it countless interests and opens up innumerable avenues of adventures.

First and foremost comes physical education. Physical exercises and games should be a part of every schooling child's life. They provide a change from classwork, allow relief of nervous tension, help to correct certain physical deficiencies and protect against illness. Training in gymnastics and games gives a man full control of his muscles, enables him to act swiftly, and neatly, and tones up all parts of his body. A man with a good physical education can taste the joy of life to the full when he strides out through the countryside, exulting in the sense of power which he has attained. Beyond that, games socialize the child and teach him how to behave in a group. They prepare him for living as an adult in a larger community.

Mental education has even more treasures to offer. A person who has studied history, literature and art has access to many beauties that are a closed book to his less fortunate brethren. He has the opportunity to study the lives of great men, and to read the works and see the pictures which have been inspired by the loftiest thoughts that man have had through the ages. His training in finding out the best from among all that has been done and thought about in the past will enable him to obtain the greatest possible satisfaction out of all that is good and beautiful in the arts.

If however, his education takes a scientific turn, he has all the wonders of the universe laid out before him. Today's scientists have discovered and achieved things which were discovered impossible a few decades ago. They have built countless atomic bombs, discovered new lands under severe conditions and have sent unmanned satellites to Mars. That is wonderful enough. but there is still a great deal more to discover and a well-educated scientist has the possibility of winning a way through to a fuller understanding of the phenomenon that make up our world. The delight of discovery must indeed be one which would be hard to equal.

Finally, comes spiritual education. This is hard to teach and indeed the only true teacher of it is Life itself. It teaches its pupils to see that, out of evil, good can be gained by those who have the will and the courage to look for it. It teaches that all the great things of the world have been found by those who were willing to face pain and hardship in the pursuit of truth. This is the most valuable of all forms of education because it moulds character. Equally decisive is the knowledge of right from wrong, to money management, to writing easily and to speak well and to getting on well with others. Those who look upon life as an adventure and meet all its diversities with joy, will have the best education it is possible to procure.

COLOUR OF DEATH

The aborigine strew dead leaves onto the wire-trap set carefully into the earth. He knew it was illegal to trap deer but he was thinking of the meat that would stock his larder. He didn't dream what consequences would result from his setting the trap.

The farmer perspired profusely, toiling under the burning sun. He was ploughing his land in readiness for the planting season. His farm, in Cameron Highlands, was situated on the fringes of a jungle and fenced in by the adjacent farms. As he bent to dislodge a stone in the earth, something caught his eye. There was a slight movement at the edge of the jungle. He took his parang and advanced cautiously towards it. There had been a spate of vandalisms in the area recently and he was intent on protecting his land from these vandals who had been terrorising the farmers.

As he neared the dark undergrowth, a bright flash of colour leapt from the darkness and he felt his chest caved in as something solid slammed against him. His mouth opened to emit a cry of abject terror and died down abruptly as death crept in.

The Red Cross attendants flinched noticeably as they carried the gory remains of the farmer to the waiting ambulance. Even the sheet covering the body had been coloured crimson by the blood still oozing from it. The identity of the killer had been established as a carnivorous animal as the body had retained a multitude of teeth and claw marks beside the flesh which had been torn from it. And it was obvious from the prints left in the muddy ground that the killer was a huge animal. But what was still uncertain was the motive of the killing since an animal like this could probably hunt its own prey in the jungle unless it was crippled or aging.

A hunt was opted for immediately but was decided against as dusk was already falling.

The next morning, two armed Game Rangers with provisions set out to track the killer down with the aid of an aborigine tracker. They entered the jungle at the spot where the trail led and after checking carefully to make sure they were on the right track they began to follow it tirelessly. The hunt had begun.

Their boots crushed dried twigs and leaves as they trudged on wearily through the mass of trees and bushes. Blood trickled down slowly from the numerous scratches inflicted by the prickly branches. Their grim faces expressed weariness but they were intent on capturing their prey before it made another kill. They had been following the tracks for over four miles, lost it several times only to pick it up again. They had rested twice and the need to make camp soon was imminent as all three were quite exhausted by now.

Suddenly, above the noise of their heavy breathing, they heard a faint sound of running water. They quickly moved towards that direction with renewed zest. They figured that the killer would most probably slake its thirst after its meal. Their surmise was proved correct when they found fresh prints in the wet earth by the mountain river. They quickly set up camp and were soon soundly sleep after a quick meal. Their mistake for not putting a guard was soon to prove fatal as a pair of green eyes, shining in the dark, started malevolently at them from behind a cover of bushes.

After a while, the creature strode into view. It was a huge tigress. It walked with a slight limp caused by a crippled left front paw. It would have been a magnificent animal had it not been for its crippled paw which was almost completely cut through. It had obviously been caught in a wire-trap and had somehow managed to tear itself free. This must have been the animal which killed the farmer for it couldn't possibly have hunted its normal prey—the fleet-footed animals of the jungle. And, thus, it would have to kill human beings for food.

The aborigine opened his eyes, uncertain as to what had awakened him. He turned around slowly, scrutinizing the bushes carefully for any intruders it might conceal. Suddenly, he saw death staring at him. He sat frozen, not daring even to move a muscle. Then the tigress came at him in a flash of colour and he screamed as he felt his life draining away with his blood that was gushing out like a miniature river.

Then shots rang out. The tigress's powerful frame shuddered as bullets sank into her flesh and then she fell lifeless to the ground.

The aborigine was given a decent burial, not that he deserved it since he was the cause of the trouble. But that would remain a mystery to the people. A mystery that would never be solved.

The good die young – or else outgrow it.

ADRIFT ON A SAVAGE SEA

For twelve years Don Peterson and his wife, Jane, had endured a deteriorating standard of living on their small dairy farm in the United States. Then, in 1975, they decided to buy a boat and circle round the globe. The idea, in part, was to broaden their children's horizons, already stunted by the limitations of their environment.

Three months later, after selling their farm, they purchased a boat and named it the 'Pacific Queen'. On the 15th. of February they set sail from Mobile together with their three growing children.

They sailed through the Yucatan Channelaand called at Kingston—the capital of Jamaica. After spending a week in Kingston, they sailed on to Panama. They spent four days here while deciding on their next destination. After a lengthy discussion, they finally agreed to sail to Australia. They passed the Galapagos Islands and headed south. Then the unexpected, the totally unforseeable disaster occurred off the Marquesas Islands in the South Pacific Ocean.

A school of killer sharks had attacked the 'Pacific Queen'. When Peterson lifted the floorboards to examine the damage, he found himself gazing in horror at the blue Pacific through a large, splintered hole, With no time to waste, he quickly rushed up to deck and slashed at the lashings holding a dinghy to the main-mast. He then grabbed at anything worth salvaging and threw them into the dinghy. Then all of them abandoned the 'Pacific Queen' and climbed aboard the dinghy. Not long after that she sank.....to the depths of the savage Pacific.

For quite a while they sat in the dinghy, gazing in silent disbelief at their surroundings. Of the sharks which had so recently shattered their existence, there was no sign. Peterson knew that it was foolish to stay put and wait for rescue. Thinking hard, he drew a chart from memory and headed north.

Food soon ran out; so Peterson had to catch fishes and turtles. He then dried the meat in the sun for food. They were also short of water. To ease the burden of their thirst, they had to lay gasping in the torrid air, sucking at pieces of rubber to create saliva.

For thirty-two days they drifted on the open sea, fighting for survival without losing hope. Then on the 33rd. day, as Peterson was mending his fishing rod, he caught sight of something that was not sea. He stared hard at the distant object and then shouted joyfully, "A ship! It's a ship, and it's coming towards us". Quickly Peterson fired a flare to attract its attention. The crew in the ship—a Malaysian cargo vessel, obviously saw the flare and altered course towards them. They were shocked and surprised at the state of the survisors. Without delay, they helped them on board and gave them warm clothing and a good meal.

All through their ordeal, Peterson and his family never lost hope. When he had eaten and rested, Peterson said, "Given the opportunity, we'll all go out to sea again". And he meant what he said.

A COWBOY'S REVENGE

Down the valley and up a hill,
Rides a cowboy ready to kill,
For his brother he will avenge,
Who was killed by an Apache.

He rode and he rode throughout the day,
And town after town came his way,
For day after day he searched for the killer,
Who without mercy had shot his brother.

Soon he reached a town name Crill,
And there is where he got the thrill,
For the man he was looking for was there,
Sitting quietly on a chair.

So the cowboy shouted his name,
And then slowly told him his game,
Now the Apache knew what he meant,
And understood that he had come for revenge.

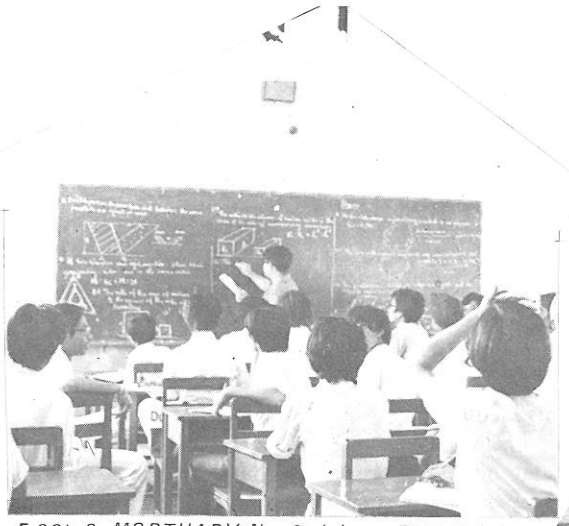

So the Apache pulled his gun,
But that was the thing he shouldn't have done,
For the cowboy was too fast for him,
Thus he was killed by Little Tim.

Since his task was already done,
Little Tim then holstered his gun,
He turned his horse and away he went,
Back to his little home in a town named Kent.

PREFECTORIAL BOARD

At the beginning of the year itself we began our duties to achieve our aim in maintaining discipline and fostering better realtions with the students, the Staff and the Principal. Our jurisdiction ranged from Form One to Form Five.

Under the guidance and assistance from the Advisor, Mr. James Amoz and the Principal, we endeavoured to carry out our duties efficiently. Our duties were manifold. We implemented the Ministry's circular on the 'standard hair style'. To do this, whose hair did not comply with the directive were picked out during assemblies and during surprise checks which were conducted regularly. The stampedes which occured at the sound of the dismissal bell were curbed. Instead, the pupils queued up and marched smartly out of the school compound.

A social gathering was held during the second term. Prefects from various schools in K.L. were invited. The object of this social was to promote better understanding among the prefects of different schools. During the course of the year we were also invited to other school functions.

On behalf of the Board I would like to thank our Advisor, Mr. Amoz and the Principal for their invaluable guidance and assistance. We hope that our successors will not only maintain good discipline but also further enhance the reputation of the Prefectotial Board.

From the beginning, the Board has patiently strove to provide the needs of both students and teachers, a venue where library skills are developed and an interest in reading encouraged. Sad to say, the same spirit has not always been shown by the student body in reciprocation.

Our library, with approximately 11,000 books and numerous periodicals, serves as a focal point of learning in this school. New arrangement plus new chairs and desks were added to the library to increase the seating capacity of the library to 90. Our Annual Librarian Night was successfully held on the 27th of May, 1977.

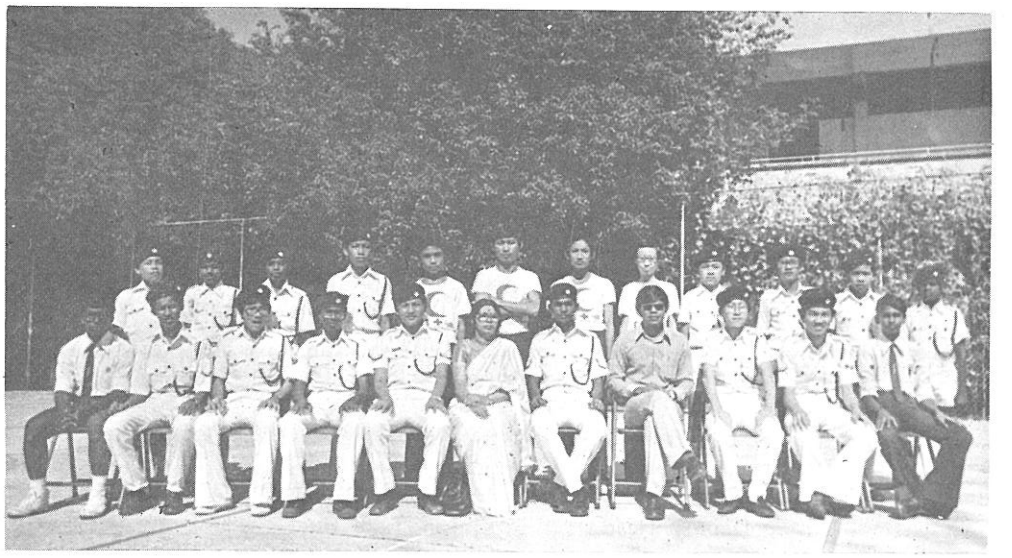

A menace still faced by the Board is the difficulty in maintaining discipline in the library. It is our policy that quiet discussion be allowed so long as it does not disturb others students. We therefore urge each student to co-operate so that they in turn may benefit. Another menace faced by the Board is the book security problem. A number of books, especially the paperback and revision books have been found missing. In future, we hope that students will not love the books so much as to take them back home, thus depriving others of the use of them.

As in so many years in the past, the Board owes to its Adviser, Mr. James Amoz the efficient functioning of the library. To him, as well as to the Principal and members of the Staff, the Board records its most sincere gratitude.

The first project organised by us was our Installation Night. To our delight, everything went smoothly. From then on, it was plain sailing. For our community service project, we repaired the broken glass panes of the school, hall, sold flags, bookmarks and note-pads for charitable organisations. We also visited the St. Joseph's home for the retarded.

For the funding project, a hamper sale was held in school, old newspapers were collected and sold, and a waffle sale was held during the luncheon meeting of the Rotarians of Gombak in the Hilton. Our major funding, and also our I.U. project was a co-venture Talentime held in our school with the Interact Club of Ampang Road Girls' School.

Other activities included vocational guidance talks given by experienced personnels, an interview with Brad Roberts, a US exchange student and a seminar held in Hilton. Four committees of the club attended the 3–day conference held in Penang. Talks on interesting topics were also arranged for the boys.

Lastly, on behalf of the club, I would like to express our ardent appreciation and gratitude to our rotarian adviser, Mr. David Tan and our teacher advisers for their painstaking assistance without which the success of our club would not have been realised.

This year, needless to say, has yet been another successful year for the Science and Maths Society. We started off our projects in the first term, though the bulk of them were in the second term.

During the first term, there were demonstrations on the dissection of a frog by our President, Hong Boon Cheow, and a chemical reaction by a Form 4 member.

However, we received two blows in the second term. We requested permission to visit Lever's factory and the New Starits Times office in Kuala Lumpur, but were refused, because it seemed that the places mentioned had other commitments. We also held an Inter-house Science Quiz during this period, where Blue House emerged as champions.

Later in the second term, 3 of our junior members were elected as secretaries for the Association of Science and Maths Society. We also visited exhibitions on Science and Maths, and sent an entry to the Science and Maths exhibition organised by the Ministry of Education. This exhibition was held in Bukit Bintang Boys School in PJ from 23rd to 25th June. Under the guidance of our teacher advisers, Mr. Boon, we successfully managed to obtain a certificate for this exhibition.

Finally, I would like to take this opportunity to thank all our teacher advisers and members for their active participation throughout the year.

LITERARY AND DEBATING SOCIETY

Aim: To promote interest in literary work.

Teachers in charge	:	Mrs. Wong
		Mrs. Nirmal
		Mrs. Kirpal
President	:	R. Muthiyah
Vice President	:	Parkash
Hon. Secretary	:	Dalbir Singh
Asst. Secretary	:	Patwant Singh
Treasurer	:	Arvinder Singh
Artists	:	Velu J.
		Wong Kum Leong
		Shahrir
		Jaspal Singh

Activities: The year 1977 was yet another successful year for the L.A.D.S. The following office bearers were elected on the annual general meeting on the 7th March. From the start, programmes were decided upon and carried out successfully.

Our first major project related closely to our aim was the Inter House Debate which was held over a course of three weeks, from 5th–31st May, where the 5 'houses' of the School took part. The finals was between the Green House and the Yellow House where Green House emerged the champions. The best speaker was DalbirSingh also from Green House. Prizes were awarded to the winners on the Prize Giving Day.

The Essay Writing Competition was yet another successful project which was held in the middle of the second term. The winners of the competition were:

1. Hong Boon Cheow
2. Cheng Tai Ming
3. Low Chin Guan

They too were awarded prizes. The next project on our programme was the Elocution Contest which was again held successfully on the 16th. of June 1977. The response was quite encouraging and the winners were:

1. Dalbir Singh
2. Wong Kum Leong
3. Patwant Singh

Attractive prizes were awarded to them on our Prize Giving Day. Dalbir Singh was also asked to speak on our Prize Giving Day.

With all these competitions already held, yet another one was held on the 8th. of July and this competition received an overwhelming response. This General Knowledge Contest was opened to the whole school and the first three winners received their prizes on the Prize Giving Day also. We also hope to hold an inter-society debate during the third term.

With all these competitions and contests held, I am sure that we have done our part in promoting our aim, that is, to promote an interest in literary work. All these would have been difficult to accomplish if not for the support and encouragement from the teacher advisers. I also would like to take this opportunity to thank all the judges who spared their precious time to come and judge the contests. Lastly, I hope that the incoming board would yet achieve a bigger success next year.
