EDITOR'S NIB

After being a part of M.B.S. Sentul for eleven years, it is sad indeed to know that in just such a short time more, I shall be leaving. In the years of my school days here, I have gained a lot of knowledge and experience. I have also shared some of the finest moments in my life here; but now things will not be the same anymore.

It is not an easy thing to be parted from this beloved school of mine, the teachers whom I have admired so much and the dear friends whom I have met along the way. But then nothing goes on forever, not even the rocks. As such, one must learn to accept the new challenges in life that are thrown upon us and live with them.

Our time here is only one step in the long path towards an indefinite world ahead. The knowledge that we acquire here will serve as a torch, in our preparation for the great quest. Its radiance will determine the steps we take in the path. Therefore, it is in school that we should accumulate all we can to ensure that the torch is bright enough.

Face the world realistically, not with a fantasy, for the world holds no place for the ones with fantasies and their dreams that never materialise. Equally important is to aim high. Then proceed with courage, determination and discipline. Haste not, nor hesitate but instead patience and endurance should be observed. After all. Rome was not built in a day.

Let not failure deter us, for failure too is the path to success. Be wise, strive, and success will be all ours for the taking. Above all, we should always do our best.

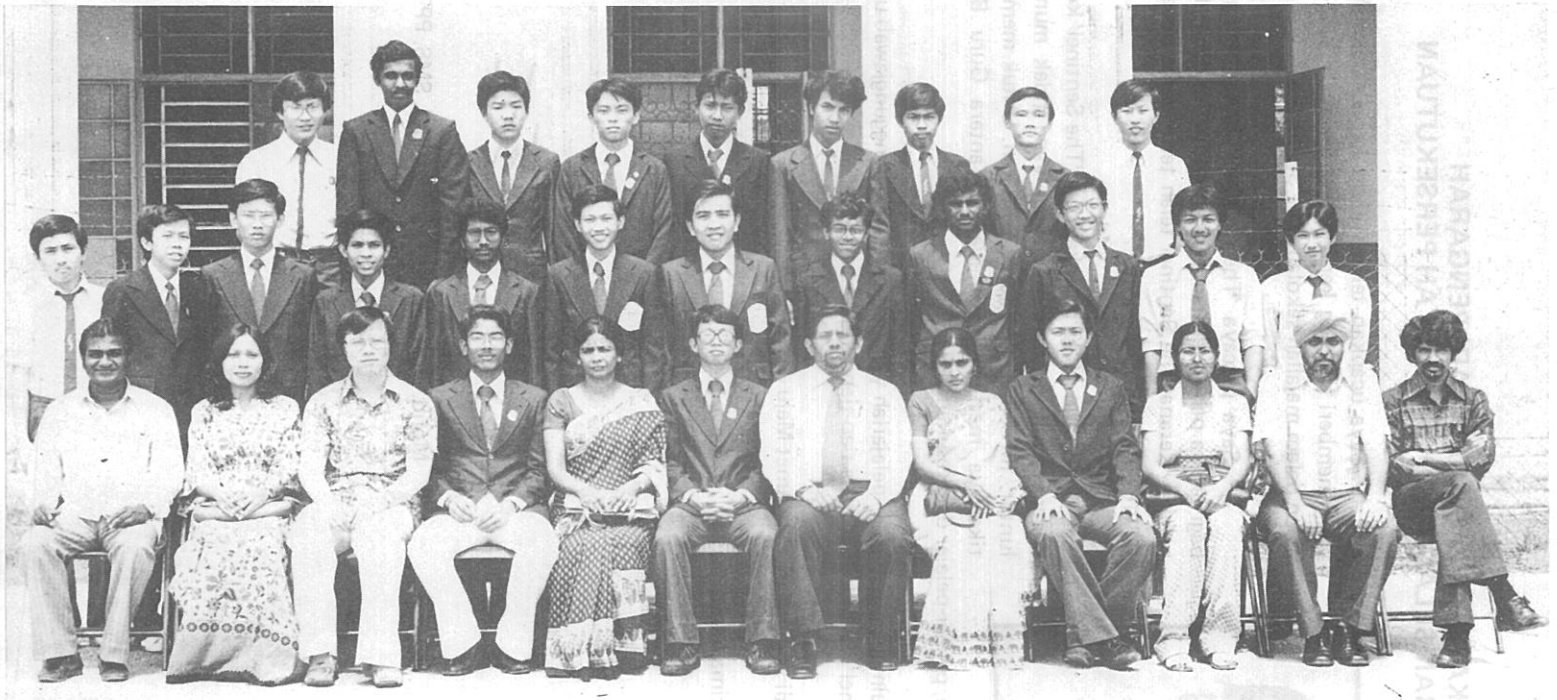

The three real great things in the world are a mountain, the ocean and an earnest man at his work. The potentialities of each are beyond human calculation – E.W.B.

Here I would like to thank all the teachers for their noble services to mankind. To all my friends, I wish you all the best.

Foward MBSers, and remember the Sentinel – the Guard to Righteousness.

KATA-KATA ALUAN DARI PENGARAH PELAJARAN SELANGOR DAN WILAYAH PERSEKUTUAN

Saya ucapkan terima kasih kepada sekolah ini yang memberi peluang kepada saya memberi kata-kata aluan dalam majallah sekolah 'The Sentinel'.

Saya percaya 'The Sentinel' bukan asing lagi bagi semua pehak terutama sekali guru-guru dan Pelajar-pelajar. Kerana The Sentinel telah terbit lama beberapa tahun yang lalu.

Tahun 1980 ini sekali lagi 'The Sentinel' keluar dengan semangat baru, semangat yang tidak mungkin luntur. Ini semua mestilah dibuktikan. Untuk membuktikannya mestilah ada kerjasama antara Guru Besar, Guru-guru, Ibubapa, pelajar-pelajar dan kesukanan.

Walau bagaimana pun pelajar-pelajarlah yang mesti tahu bertanggungjawab untuk menjaga 'The Sentinel' dapat keluar pada tiap-tiap tahun.

Akhir sekali saya ucapkan selamat Maju Jaya.

Sekian, terima kasih.

GEREJA METHODIST MALAYSIA

THE METHODIST CHURCH IN MALAYSIA

Saya rasa gembira kerana di jemput menulis sepatah dua dalam majallah sekolah ini. Mula-mulanya saya hendak mengucapkan tahniah kepada guru-guru dan murid-murid sekolah ini kerana kejayaan-kejayaan yang tercetak di halaman majallah ini baik di bidang akademik maupun di bidang sukan dan lain-lain. Kemajuan dan kejayaan yang tercapai itu akan menjadi kebanggaan dan galak kepada sekolah-sekolah Methodist di seluruh Negara.

Sekolah-sekolah Methodist memang ternama di serata tempat kerana mementingkan pendidekan seimbang bagi seseorang itu seluruhnya. Kita menuntut taraf pengetahuan yang tinggi, tanpa merugikan perkembangan, badan, emosi, social dan rohani seseorang murid itu. Pengetahuan tanpa tenaga untuk menggunakannya tidak berguna. Pengetahuan tanpa kestabilan emosi mudah di salah gunakan. Pengetahuan hanya dapat di gunakan di dalam medan masyarakat dimana seseorang itu harus membela hubungan peribadi. Dibelakang kesemua ini ialah sikap kerohanian yang memberi pengertian dan tujuan kehidupan bagi seseorang itu. Di mana ini yang kita sering mendengar tentang pentingnya pendidekan perangai atau pendidekan rohani, sekolah sekolah Methodist kita sangatlah berbangga kerana tradisi saperti itu dari awal nya lagi. Sekolah ini juga harus merasa bangga kerana terdiri dari tradisi yang ini.

Saya yakin bahawa kamu sekalian akan turut memberi sumbangan besar di samping ini.

Akhirnya, biarlah saya mengucap syabas sekali lagi kepada guru-guru dan murid-murid yang menghasilkan majallah sekolah yang elok ini dan ini akan menjadi sebahagian sejarah tertulis untuk sekolah ini.

MESSAGE FROM MR. CHAN WENG CHU
CHAIRMAN, BOARD OF GOVERNORS
PRESIDENT, OLD BOYS' ASSOCIATION

This has been a year of great excitement for the School as well as the Old Boys' Association. May I extend my congratulations and gratitude to everyone who had contributed towards the achievements during the year.

The year marked the completion of the Phase 2 Building Programme. The two Schools are now separately housed. The former Principal Mr. K.G. Zachariah started off the work and the new Principal Mr. C. Wijasuriya was responsible for its completion. This was only possible with the utmost cooperation between the School staff, both past and present together with the Principals, and the Headmaster and Staff of the Primary School. We were very honoured to have Datuk Samy Vellu, the Minister of Works and Utilities to open the new Buildings. Also present at this function was Bishop C.N. Fung who dedicated the new buildings.

The year also marked the coming of age of the Old Boys Association as it celebrated its 20th Anniversary This occasion is very special to the O.B.A. which has endeavoured to remain upright and has avoided any activity that would be detrimental to good moral conduct. In all these years Members of the O.B.A have been faithful to the School.

It has taken many years to bring together, people who are connected with the Sentul M.B.S. Time and patience were needed to nurture this spirit of togetherness, and we can say the relationship between the Old Boys and the School is strong and cordial, just as we had hoped it should be.

I am personally very grateful for the kindness shown to me by everyone I know in the School, the Old Boys' Association and the Community in Sentul. The Lord has been gracious to me and my family and my close association with the School is to share some of the blessings which I have received.

MESSAGE FROM REV. DENIS C. DUTTON

I am grateful to the Editorial Board for the privilege given to me to write a few lines in your magazine

We live in a new decade with so many events and happenings daily that seem to be accelerating us faster in studies, research and work. In short, we can say that we live in times that are very challenging and compelling. The times spent in Schools and Institutions of learning should be used to make oneself to come to grips with the existing challenges and prepare oneself for the future adequately.

In relation to this one must keep in mind the goals of education — to teach us to do new things and to form our minds. Our aim in learning should be not to be doing the same things done in the past but rather it should instill in us the ability to be creative, critically conscious and making bold plans to move forward.

I would like to draw to your attention to three areas that you must all endeavout to develop yourselves in as you are in school. Firstly, is the area of LEADERSHIP. Each time I look at our schools, I am reminded again and again that a School is a laboratory for human experience and self-development. The task of all in this school is to help lay the foundations for good and healthy human behaviour and to develop leadership qualities. The second area that you must pay attention to is SERVICE — to fellow students, teachers, school and the wider community. We specifically need leaders who can serve too. It is in service to mankind that we come to know and understand human beings and all the complexities that face society. Thirdly, you must pay attention to the are of DISCIPLINE. It is discipline that makes an orderly and effective leader and it is discipline that makes service pointed and definite. Without discipline, we lose our aim and drift aimlessly in and out achieving nothing. No wonder that our National theme this year is "Berdisciplin, Berbakti". It is my hope that with the above few words. you will accept your years in school as a time to build a good foundation for a happy and meaningful adult life in the future.

SEKAPUR SIRIH DARI YANG DIPERTUA PIBG

Sukacita saya mengucapkan setinggi-tinggi tahniah dan syabas kepada Guru Besar, Guru-Guru dan Sidang Pengarang yang menyelenggarakan penerbitan majallah sekolah SENTINEL 1980.

Sesungguhnya usaha untuk menerbitkan sesebuah majallah itu bukanlah semudah yang disangkakan. Ia berkehendakkan kegigihan dan kesungguhan serta didikasi setiap pegawai yang bertanggungjawab.

Jayanya majallah ini adalah berkat persefahaman dan kerjsama diantara guru-guru, ibubapa dan murid-murid yang diterajukan oleh Guru Besarnya. Kita boleh dapat menilai kebolehan murid-murid melalui majallah ini di satu-satu bidang saperti pelajaran, permainan, kebudayaan khususnya dalam lapangan persuratan.

Satu-satu kemajuan bersama tidak akan berjaya dengan ertikata yang sebenarnya sekiranya tidak ada persefahaman dan perpaduan. Kita perlukan kerjasama dan sokongan antara satu dengan yang lain untuk melitupkan kemunduran-kemunduran dan kelemahan-kelemahan kita.

Saya berasa yakin bahawa majallah SENTINEL akan diterbitkan berganti tahun serta mendapat sokongan dan kerjasama dari semua pihak seperti yang di berikan di masa-masa lalu.

Bagi pihak Persatuan Ibubapa dan Guru-Guru S.M.L. Methodist Sentul, saya berdoa mudah-mudahan majallah ini akan mendapat sambutan yang sewajarnya dan ianya akan turut memberi sumbangan bagi melipat-gandakan kemajuan pelajaran di Sekolah ini khususnya.

'Berkhidmat Untuk Negara'.

THE PRINCIPAL WRITES

As the school embarks on its voyage into the 1980's let us look back at our progress over the last decade.

Of significant interest perhaps is the great increase in the student population. In 1970 there were 27 classes with a total enrolment of 1068 pupils. This year we have 43 classes with a total of 1720 students. This has resulted in all the lower secondary classes being in the afternoon and the upper secondary in the morning. Our teaching staff has also increased in proportion and we now have 68 fully trained teachers, an increase of 28 teachers over the last ten years. In 1970 the school was lucky to have 8 graduate teachers. Today we have 22 graduates on our staff.

Another indication of progress is the addition of new buildings to our school. The Industrial Arts section acquired two more connecting the construction of which was completed in mid – 1979. A three room extension workshops the Tower Block to the Office Block was completed in December 1979. These three rooms are being used as a library, an Art Room and a Geography Room.

1976 saw the retirement of our headmaster of 16 years, Mr. Kwong Sea Khoon and the appointment of Mr. K.G. Zachariah as the new headmaster. When Mr. Zachariah retired, I took over the reins. The 'seventies' also saw the retirement of several other dedicated teachers who had devoted a large part of their lives to service in the school, namely Mr. Authur G. Lee (deceased), Encik. Mohd. Thani bin. Lamasah, Mr. William David and Encik Satari bin Haji Yasin. The school still remembers them with fondness and is extremely grateful to all of them indeed.

Over the years the school has continued to show progress in both the academic and the athletic fields and has always done its best to provide an all round education to prepare its students to take their places in society.

This continued overall progress over the years is due not only to the untiring efforts of the teachers but is also the result of the strong support that the school has always had from the Old Boys, the Board of Governors, the Methodist Mission, the Education Department and parents, and especially Mr. Chan Weng Chiu AMN the Chairman of the Board. We hope that they will continue to give us their support.

1980 has already shown promise of being a significant year in the history of our school. A new senior assistant, Mr. Robert Selvarathnam was posted to our school in January this year. In addition ten new teachers were posted to MBS Sentul during the course of the year.

The performance of our form III students in the SRP Exam (1979) was slightly better than in the previous year. Our performance in the MCE/SPM examination (1979) was better both in quality and quantity than in the previous year. There were 39 grade 1 students as compared to 21 in the previous year.

In the field of sports and games the following results speak for themselves.

Game/Sports		Results
Chess		Sentul District Champions
Basketball		Sentul District Runners-up
Sepak Takraw	(Malays)	Sentul District Runners-up
Sepak Takraw	(Non Malays)	Sentul District Champions
Table Tennis		Sentul District Runners-up
Volleyball		Sentul District Champion and State runners-up
Cross Country		1st in the team event
Athletics	(MSSM)	Won 6 Golds, 7 silver and 6 Bronze medals Krishnan became the Class I Individual Champ.

The Following students represented Selangor in the MSSM inter state games competitions.

Tan Cheng Hee	—	Volley Ball
Zainal Abidin	—	Football
Nor Azman	—	Sepak Takraw

Special mention must be made of Nor Azman who has been selected to represent Malaysia in Sepak Takraw at the Asean Games in Bangkok in December this year.

On the 2nd of July the new three room block and the extensions to the Industrial Arts Workshops were dedicated to the Glory of God by Bishop C.N. Fang and later officialy opened by Yang Berhormat Dato. S. Samy Vellu — Menteri Kerjaraya dan Kemudahan-Kemudahan Awam. This function, which was attended by parents, former teachers, old boys and other dignitories including Y.B. Dr. Tan Tiong Hong (Member of Parliament), Encik Annas bin Haji Ahmad (Pengarah Pelajaran M. Persekutuan) and Mr. D.R. Daniel (Education Secretary for Methodist Schools), did us proud.

In conclusion I wish to thank the Editorial Board and its advisers for the tremendous task of producing this issue of the school magazine. I also take this opportunity to wish all those who will be leaving us at the end of the year every success in all that they set out to do. Join and support the Old Boys Association. The school will always be here. Feel free to come and visit us and perhaps help us so that we may move on to greater things.

"Ora Et Labora"

MESSAGE BY THE SCHOOL CAPTAIN

Everything has to come to an end and so too my school days in M.B.S. Sentul which I have cherished. I am sure this feeling will be shared by all fifth formers. It is like reading the last chapter of an interesting book; a book filled with encouragement, dedication and discipline. As many of us may not be meeting again after we have parted, I would like to wish you all the very best of luck in whatever you do and wherever you will be.

The year 1980 marks the beginning of a new decade and we had witnessed the dawn of a new era with regards to discipline in the school. The above mentioned aspect had been made possible by Mr. Clarence P. Wijasuriya, the Principal, Mr. Rober Selvaratnam, Senior Assistant, Mr. James Amoz, Discipline Master and the staff of the school. They set the school regulations to acheive their goal, in making this school a more recognised school and maintaining its good name. These regulations are aimed at making us, the students, well disciplined and well rounded personalities. We should, therefore, abide by these well meant regulations.

We, fifth-formers, are now at the turning point of our life. The teachers play an important role in guiding us towards a brighter future but the action is ours. We have to build up our career. Therefore we should seize every opportunity possible, to imbibe everything that is taught, otherwise we will feel retrospectively sad in the days to come.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Principal, Senior Assistant, Discipline Master and the staff for their moral support and inspiration which have helped us so much in every way.

Finally, always remember our school motto – "ORA ET LABORA" – "PRAY AND WORK", and maintain the good name of our school always.

The year 1980 marked a successul year for the Prefectorial Board of M.B.S. Sentul, as well as for the school. Itwas also a memorable year for many important events that took place here. Our board consists of twenty senior and twenty junior prefects. We began rendering our services to the school from the third week of January.

Our main objective is to preserve and maintain discipline in the school, besides fostering better relationship with the pupils and the staff. On the former, daily checks on attire and well being of the students were carried out. Persistent boys were, however, sent for stern action to the school administrators. Dismissal duties were also carried out, a task to enable the students to leave the school premises in an orderly and safe manner.

Raids and spotchecks were carried out from time to time, whereby, those defying the school regulations were dealt with. Frequent late-comers were sent for enquiry by the school administrators. With the co-operation of teachers and class monitors, an anti-truancy measure was taken. This was done by a period to period checking on attendance.

Our first outdoor duty was during the Volleyball District Tournament, held at Sultan Abdul Samad School, and later for the finals at Klang High School. Prefects were sent along as a safety precaution to check on the well being of the students who were there as supporters for our school team.

We had our Annual Sports on the 26th of June at the Merdeka Stadium for the second time and it was a day remembered by all. It was witnessed by many distinguished guests, and also prefects from many neighbouring schools. They then participated in an event specially held for prefects.

The highlight of the year was the Opening Ceremony of the annexe to the secondary and primary school by the Minister of Public Works and Utilities, Datuk Samy Vellu on the 2nd of July. It was attended by many distinguished guests. Here again, the prefects played a major role in the success of this big event, namely, as guards of honour.

The board held its Social Gathering on the 5th of July. We were honoured by the presence of the Senior Assistant, Mr. Robert Selvarantnam, our Teacher Advisor, Mr. James Amoz, teachers and prefects from a great number of neighbouring schools. Their attendance contributed greatly to the success of the Gathering.

Finally, we would like to express our sincere gratitude and appreciation to our Principal, Mr. C.P. Wijasuriya, Senior Assistant, Mr. Robert Selvaratnam and Teacher Advisor, Mr. Amoz for their reliable support and guidance. Our thanks also go to the staff and students for their co-operation in upholding the good name of our school.

Here, I would like to end by saying that the discipline for the school has improved tremendously, thanks to Mr. Wijasuriya, and M.B.S. Sentul has gained a new reputation a much better one, which is a very good sign for the long road ahead.

We took up office in the middle of October 1979 with 20 librarians. Despite being a smaller board, nine sub committees were formed to ensure efficient administrative and management operations. We have been just as efficient in discharging our duties. After our recent installation ceremony for the new librarians, we organized study tours to other school libraries for the benefit of the new librarians. We visited The Convent Peel Road Secondary Girls' School and the Bandaraya Secondary Girls' School, Jalan Davis. We had initiated these series of study tours, mainly to learn, wherever possible, to improve the existing facilities of our school library. We are proud to say that they were enlightening and fruitful visits, not forgetting that the visits also promoted better understanding among the librarians of the various schools.

The Year 1980 began with the process of transferring the furniture to the new library room. This was followed by the recruitment of new librarians from the various classes. A few librarians were also selected based on recommendations from class teachers. These librarians were confirmed in their posts after having undergone a probation period and a final interview. At present, with the recruitment of these new librarians the board comprises of 27 members.

As for our routine duties, we follow a rotation basis (from 1.30 to 5.00 p.m.). At present, we have about 2,160 books in the Reference Section, in the reading room we have more than 5,000 books. We have been handing in a termly-report to the Principal to ensure the smooth running of the board of librarians.

Part of the activities organised for the year include the sale of ball-point pens as a fund raising project for the library. In addition various games were held to promote good will among librarians of our board.

This year many Malay books were bought to meet the increasing demand for the books. We are also planning to increase the number of shelves, especially for the Malay Fiction Section. Fortnightly meetings were held to familiarize the librarians with the various aspects of librarianship. We also tried to brighten the library with colourful inspirational posters so as to create a better atmosphere for the students to study in.

Inspite of the heavy workload shouldered, we are proud to say that it has been great pleasure to have the privilege of serving the school in this simple manner. The Board expresses its gratitude and thanks to the teacher advisers (Mr. James Amoz and Mrs. Khoo), the Principal (Mr. C. P. Wijasuriya) members of the staff and the students for their co-operation in ensuring the smooth running of the library and offering suggestions as well as advice which were of great importance to the improvement of the library.

Finally, on behalf of the various library sub-committees! would like to thank the fellow librarians for their unselfish sacrifice of time to serve the school and it is sincerely hoped that future librarians will carry on the fine work and put more effort to upgrade the standard of our school library.

XIIth. KUALA LUMPUR SCOUT GROUP
COURT - OF- HONOUR

Our Group comprises of 60 Junior Scouts and 15 Senior Scouts of whom two are King Scout Holders, 4 Second Class Holders and 17 Tenderfoot Scouts.

Group Meetings are held every Saturday from 1300 hrs. to 1700 hrs. GMT. Band Practices, Badge Work, Tests and Scout Craft are conducted during meetings by the A.S.M.

Due to lack of a suitable place, we held a camp in the school during the April Holidays. The main objectives of the camp are to improve the discipline of the members, to improve the overall performance of the band and to repair the Group Den.

The annual Campfire was held on the 10th. of May. The principal of our school who was also our Guest-of Honour and the Selangor State Commissioner were present. The Principal declared the Campfire open. Two of our Senior Scouts, namely Lim Boon Hock and Ng Meng Lin, who passed their King Scout Standardisation Tests last year, received their King Scout Badge from the Selangor State Commissioner. Both these Scouts have been appointed to be Assistant Scout Masters in our Group. To the Principal and the State Commissioner, we would like extend our gratitude for their attendance.

5 Seniors and 4 Juniors attended a First Aid Course held in Kem Kotaraya from 23rd. to 27th. April. Overall, we were second and one of the Seniors, Shawalludin , was judged the best for the Senior Uniform.

A total of 15 Seniors and Juniors took part in a school service project, i.e. painting of the Office Block.

Our Band performed for Gurney Road Primary School during their Annual Sports. The Band has been called up for two more functions, i.e. the Official Opening Ceremony of a new Block and our school Annual Sports Day.

Other activities such as a training Camp in Port Dickson, a hike up Gunung Nuang and a School Services Project is being planned for this term.

Under the sponsorship of the Selangor Scout Association we hope to raise $150.00 from the Statewide Job Month. Other fund raising projects are being carefully planned and we hope to carry them out by September.

On behalf of the members of the Group, I wish to express our gratitude to our G.S.M., S.M. and A.S.M. for their support and guidance.

In promoting this game of skill, wit and brainpower, our activities started off right after the General Meeting on the 18th of January. Chess practices for both International and Chinese Chess, were held weekly on Thursdays and Fridays, alternatively.

From the 17th – 20th of March, the Inter-House Tournament took place with Yellow House emerging as the Champion. Following this, the Individual (Open) Tournament for Class 1 was held during the last week of March. The results were:–

International Chess	–	Champion:–	Foo Jit Wah
		Runner-up:–	Lum Foock Loi
Chinese Chess	–	Champion:–	Teoh Teck Leong
		Runner-up:–	Teoh Wah Tee.

This tournament served to exploit the hidden talents among students and has succeeded considerably.

During the second term, the school U – 20 and U – 15 teams took part in the M.S.S.S. Chess Tournament, Sentul District, 1980. The U – 15 team clinched the District Champion title while the U – 20 team managed to reach the semi-finals. However, the U – 15 team was not so successful in the Inter-District debut.

In the Individual (U – 20) event, the result was not too promising but credit should be given for their fighting spirit.

During the third term, we plan to have more chess practices.

Lastly, the club would like to wish all its members the best of luck and also extend its gratitude to Mrs. Goh, the Teacher-Advisor, for her invaluable guidance and advice.

Our first general meeting was held on the 11th of January when the committee members were elected. Our plan for the year was discussed with the guidance of Miss Naganather. We went all out to promote this game of skill where psychology played a hand in determining the winner, as the person in a better psychological condition can take control of himself and the game.

We are proud to say that we were successful and can boast of an active membership of 160 members. Due to this, a schedule was set up where the committee members took turns to supervise the practices held weekly on Thursdays and Fridays alternatively for our forms 3, 4 and 5 members.

Our main task was to organize and to see to the smooth running of the yearly Open Tournament where the response was very encouraging and it took us two weeks to complete the fixtures. On Teacher's Day friendly matches were held to further strengthen the strong student teacher relationship existing in the school.

Lastly, I on behalf of the club would like to express my utmost appreciation to Miss Pathma Naganather for her invaluable advice and supervision, and also to the committee members who sacrificed their time to supervise practices and also the yearly open tournament.

This society was formed to promote a wider outlook and interest in Geography among the students.

During the General Meeting in early February, the office bearers were elected to run the society. Apart from this, the activites for the entire year was also discussed and planned very carefully.

On the 5th of March, a party of 30 members, accopanied by Mrs. Wong made a visit to the University Pertanian Malaysia in Serdang. There, we were briefed on the functions of the University and later shown around by Encik Zaaba, the Public Relation Officer. It was a very interesting educational trip.

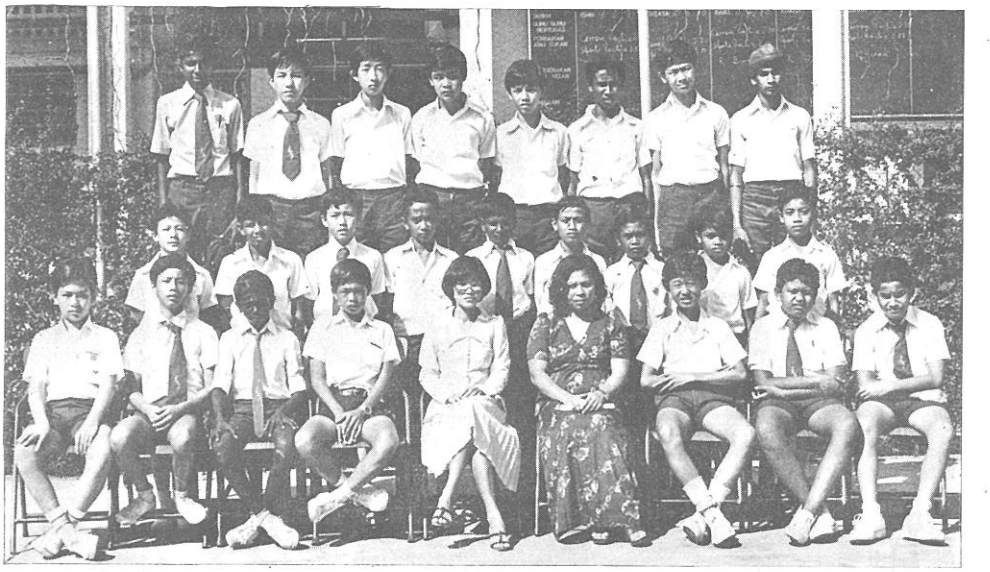

Later in April, a slide show on Physical Geography was organised for the Form Four and Five classes to provide a better understanding on the subject.

During the second term, the society was involved in the painting of a small section of the school office block as a service to the school. Later, we furnished the Geography Room given to us.

For the rest of the year, we plan to have a film show on Geography and also make another trip, if possible, to a tin mine. The society will remain inactive during most of the third term in preparation for the coming S.P.M. examination.

Here, on behalf of the society I would like to thank our advisors, Mrs. Wong and Mrs. Pui for their unfailing and invaluable guidance.

Aim:– PROMOTING AND INSTILLING AN INTEREST IN SCIENCE AND MATHS.

Immediately after the first general meeting in the beginning of March, the society began to prepare plans for the year. Our membership stands at 90 this year. Meettings were held there after occasionally on Fridays.

Activities supposedly to be carried out during the first term came to a halt due to the oncoming term examinations. However, second term was fruitful though, as most of our major activities were carried out during this period.

Among the activities carried out during the year were the inter-house quiz for both the fifth and fourth formers and film shows based on scientific topics. Educational tours were made to a few local establishments such as Lever Brothers, Selangor Pewter Exhibition, Centre Lam Soon Oil, Computer Department U.M, and RTM's Studio Complex. We also participated in the inter-school quiz organised by the Cochrane Road School.

As a member of the Association of Science and Maths Societies (ASAMS), our members played an external role too in the association's functioning. We participated in the inter-school quiz and games organised by ASAMS. In the games, our boys did quite well though, becoming champions in the volleyball and carrom events. We also participated in a combined visit by ASAMS to the Cancer Department, General Hospital. An inter-school debate will be held by ASAMS soon, in which we will also participate.

Plans are being made to carry out future activites and as time is running out for us, we will try our best to cope up with all of them.

Lastly, on behalf of the society, I would like to thank all our teacher advisers especially Mr. Su Too Fong for their utmost dedication towards the functioning of the society, and their invaluable advice and guidance.

Meetings:— Fortnightly, usually on Fridays.

Our office-bearers for the year 1979/1980 were elected in the month of July. Immediately after the 8th. Installation Nite where the office-bearers were officially confirmed, our Club sprang into action by carrying out the following activities:

Community Services

We started off with our first project by making a trip to the Old Folks Home in Jalan Ampang. We, carried out this project together with the Ampang Road Girls' School. Needless to say, we had done a tremendous job after spending several hours cleaning the entire premises. Next, our Club visited the Blind School in Setapak. It was indeed a memorable day for our interactors because we managed to entertain the blind with songs, games and jokes.

Early this year, we visited the Retarded Home in Sentul Pasar. About 40 interactors took part in this project which was organised by the Apex Club. We were able to paint two classrooms and it took us 2 days to finish it. To show us their gratitude, we received an appreciation letter from them for a job well done. Like the year before, we made a trip to the S.P.C.A. Centre in Ampang Jaya again. This time we managed to clean the entire premises and also feed the dogs. From the excellent performances given by our fellow interactors, we received a letter of appreciation from the S.P.C.A. authorities.

Lately, our Club was assigned to paint a stretch of the external walls, of our classes. At the same time we were invited to do some painting for the Blind School in Setapak which was organised by the Roteract Club of Gombak. Invitations were also extended to the Ampang Road Girls' School and the Convent Sentul. As a last concluding project, we hope to organise a trip to the Ceshire Home for the less fortunate ones. We would like to entertain them and to clean the entire premises for them. We also wish to throw a party for the children of the St. Josephs' Retarded Home.

International Understanding

Besides hosting the Installation Nite, we also organised an Inter-Interact Clubs gathering under the Gombak Rotary Social Gathering to promote better understanding between the interactors of our Clubs during the school term holidays. During the first terms holidays, five delegates from the Commitee of our club attended the 13th. Interact conference, District 330, held at the University of Malaya in Kuala Lumpur which lasted for 3 days.

This year, we are honoured to co-organise the annual Inter-Interact Games with the Air Panas Girls' School as we were the overall Champion last year. Once again, the Interact Club from our school and the Air Panas Girls' School proved their ability in sports by retaining the overall Championship title for the 3rd. consecutive year. Here, I would like to thank our school principal Mr. C. P. Wijasuriya for his kind permission to use the school sports equipments during the games.

Other acitivities that our club was involved in are the attendance of the I.U. Nites organised by the Interact Clubs of other schools. Last but not the least, we hope to organise an annual I.U. Nite later this year.

Funding

In order to finance the Club in carrying out community projects, the Club needed to raise some funds. The Club organised a pen sale and lottery tickets sale which drew in some money. During the Inter-Interact games, we put up a souvenier T-Shirts sale, we also carried out a car washing project in school in which we did quite well. Our major funding project was a hamper sale which was auctioned during the luncheon meeting of the Rotarians of Gombak in Hilton Hotel. We collected approximately one hundred dollars from the hamper sale. Another funding project we hope to carry out, possibly, will be the selling of Interact Wallets.

Finally, in conclusion, I take this oppurtunity on behalf of the Club to express our sincere thanks to our teacher advisers, Mrs. Nirmal Singh and Mrs. Wong, the members of the Club and also our Rotarion Adviser, Mr. Wan Mokhtar for their invaluable assistance and devotion in upbringing the Clubs name.

The Religious Emphasis Week's theme was "Trust and Obey" with Rev. Joseph as the main speaker for the Form 3's and Pastor Jasmine for the Forms 4's and 5's. Father Ponnudurai was a guest speaker on Thursday, 24th January. He spoke on work and faith, using the school motto, "Oran Et Labora" as the basis of his talk. This year's attendance averaged 50 – 60 each day.

Besides the usual talks, we hope to have a film show in the third term.

The chapel committee is deeply grateful to the Principal and the Senior Assistant for their co-operation, and to the School Chaplain and Pastor Jasmine for their unfailing willingness to help, to teach and to preach.

The Sikh Society of M.B.S. Sentul though in its fourth year, has shown a great deal of improvement. The number of members has increased this year and we hope that it will keep on increasing in years to come.

In our first general meeting on 18th January 1980, the respective office bearers were elected. Regular meetings have thereafter been held on Fridays.

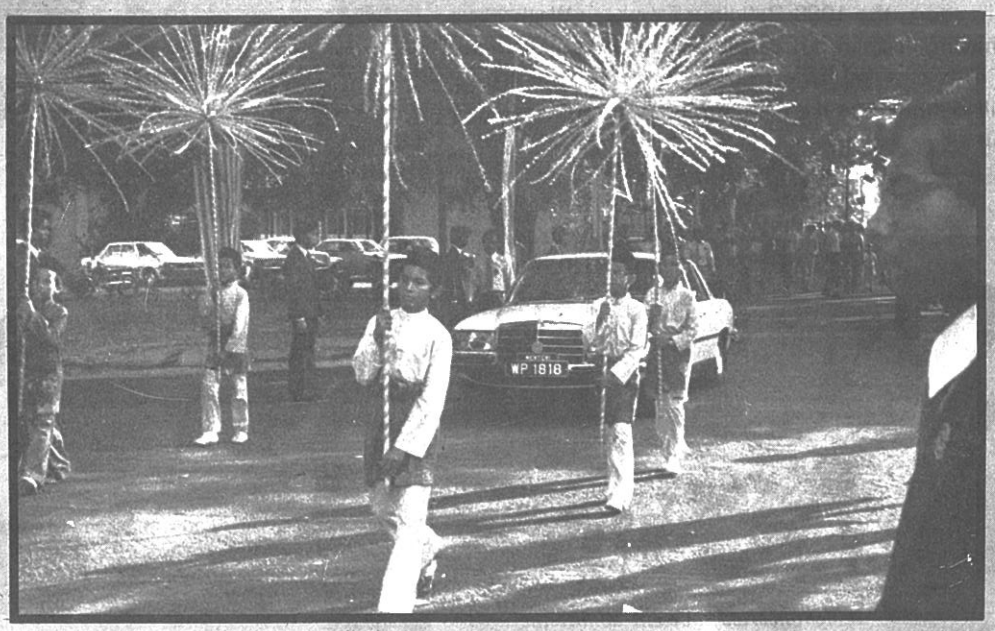

The society's main aim is to expand the knowledge of its members concerning the religion and other social problems. This was accomplished when our adviser gave short talks on the religion and also some of the social problems.

One of our major community projects held was painting the Punjabi school in Sentul during the third term holidays in 1979. This project was a success. Apart from this project, the members also rendered their services to the Sikh temples on many occasions. Although the society tried to organise the Inter-Sikh Society games this year, due to poor response from other schools the games were called off.

Lastly, on behalf of the society, I would like to express our gratitude and utmost appreciations to our teacher adviser, Mr. Ragbir Singh for his invaluable advice and guidance.

HIGHLIGHTS

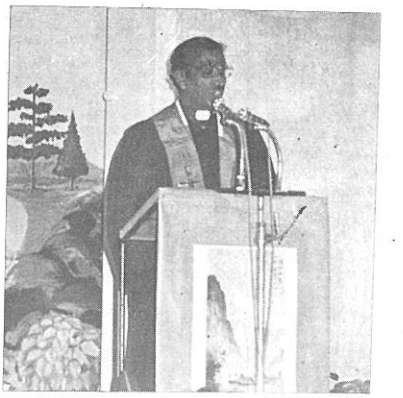

RELIGIOUS WEEK
(21st – 25th. Jan)

The annual Religious Emphasis Week was once again held in M.B.S. Sentul on the third week of school, this year with the theme 'Rejoice in the Lord'. It is again time to reach out to all the boys, and to help them discover, renew and strenghten their faith in God, His love and the wonders of His work.

With the cooperation of the Headmaster and the members of the schools staff, time was taken off daily throughout the whole week for this godly mission. Everyday, during the first two periods, the non-Muslim boys were gathered in both the primary and secondary school hall, where they were spoken to by the school chaplain, Pastor Joseph Devasgayam and his wife, Pastor Jasmine, while Reverend David Tharmakan led the boys in the singing of praises. The boys were very fortunate indeed to be visited by one of the most distinguished persons in Malaysia, Father Ponnudurai, who shared some very invaluable thoughts with them.

Finally, on the last day, Pastor Joseph cleared the doubts and queries raised by the boys on the previous days.

In short, the 1980 Religious Emphasis Week was a success, having reached out to the boys, brought them out to the Truth and implanted in them God and His love, which will definitely make them more aware of the need to look upon

ANNUAL CROSS COUNTRY

Saturday, the 9th, of February, marked another memorable day in the history of M.B.S. Sentul. It was time for the yearly bone-breaking and nerve-racking feat, the annual cross country; a very testing event of endurance, anxiety and stamina, for both the students who had to strive to complete the 5 mile course within a time limit and the teachers who had to shoulder the responsibility to see them through safely, all the way.

At 7.30 am the assembly bell was rung and about 1,700 students were assembled quickly in the basketball court and in front of the tower block, where their attendance was taken down. With the ringing of the second bell, they marched none too quietly to their respective starting positions and waited eagerly.

A while later, after the checkpoint judges and their assistants were properly stationed, the Class 3 boys were flagged off by the Principal, followed by the Classes 1, 4 and 2, with a half hour interval each time. The eagerness was obvious, shown all over their faces as they rushed across the field to take the lead, each hoping to emerge as the hero of the day.

The finishing was one of the most dramatic moments in the event. As they approached the finishing line, some of the boys could be seen competing neck to neck for an almost photo-finish. There were a few others who would make a dash towards the line and then sprawl right on it, much to the horror of the officials nearby, who immediately rushed forward to pick them up.

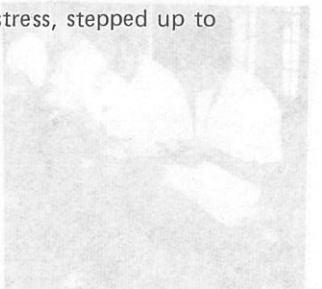

The Red Cresent members did not have an easy day either. They had to treat runners with sprained ankles or blisters and the ones who had fainted when the tension was too great.

Meanwhile, another race was going on nearby,"the drink scramble"where the boys rushed to get their drinks from the House refreshment rooms.

Before noon, the result was out, Yellow House again emerged as the overall champpion. The Principal was then called upon to give away the prizes to the respective winners and last of all, it was all cheers as Mrs.Kong, the Yellow House mistress, stepped up to receive the trophy on behalf of the winning house.

TEACHERS' DAY

The mothers have their day, the fathers have their day, even the children have their day. It is only fair that the teachers who have strived so hard should have this privilege too; and for this year, it was celebrated on Monday, the 19th. of May.

During the morning assembly, the students were lined-up on the school field. Mr. Robert, the Senior Assistant then read out the Education Minister's message which called for a greater sense of dedication on the part of teachers. This was followed by the PTA President, Encik Nordin's speech. And finally the Principal gave his message.

Next, the School Captain stepped up to express gratitude and a pledge of loyalty on behalf of all the students. The Prefectorial Board then presented a tray to the school staff as a mark of gratitude for their invaluable service and it was received heartily by the Principal. The Librarians also showed their gratitude by presenting a cake which the Principal cut.

Everyone stood to attention when the 'Negara -Ku' was sung. The next programme was rather interesting. It was rivalry time between the teachers and their students who were matching their skills and wits in various games. And when the bell was rung for interval, it was time for class parties. The teachers were presented with gifts by their respective classes. Half an hour later, the school was dismissed but not for the teachers. They gleefully gathered together with the Primary Staff for a buffet in the hall.

When they left, their hearts were filled with satisfaction, pride and hope; satisfied that they have chosen this noble profession, and hopeful that they can carry on their service to mankind with greater dedication.

ANNUAL SPORTS 1980

On the 26th, of June, 1980, for the second time in the history of M.B.S., Sentul, the Annual Sports was held in the Merdeka Stadium. It was a glamorous event and practically, the whole school was on display. Other then the students who turned up in support of their respective houses, it was witnessed by several distinguished guests, parents and friends of the participants, not to mention the guest prefects and librarians from the neighbouring schools.

The weather, noticeably fine, followed through the whole course with a little sunshine, otherwise the stadium was rather cool. However, the competitors and supporters were not that cool. The tension mounted after each event as the no-surrender spirit was held on to tenaciously. The high spirited supportes were not left out in this battle. They were cheering their team hard and most certainly left the stadium with either a sore throat or a pair of sore hands. The climax was when Blue House surged forward to take the lead with White and Yellow tagging closely behind.

The sense of competiton was not among the students alone for even the teachers and guest prefects had their share in rivaly. The teachers looked as if they were going to tear each other apart until Encik Johari and Cikgu Noraisni cossed the finishing line to win the teachers' event.

When evening came, Blue House had already gained the challenge trophy with a comfortable lead over the rest. Shields, trophies and medals were later awarded to the respective winners. And when the echoes of the three cheers slowly dissipated at the close of the event, the Annual Sports 1980 ceased to exist in reality and became part of the memories of the life in M.B.S, Sentul.

OPENING CEREMONY

On the 2nd of July, one of the most memorable moments in the whole year took place in M.B.S. Sentul. It was Opening Ceremony of the Secondary annexe and the Industrial Arts Workshop as well as the Primary extension building by Yang Berhormat Datok Samy Vellu, the Minister of Public Works and Utilities.

This grand occasion was attended by many distinguished person, namely, Encik. Annas Hj. Ahmad, the Pengarah Pelajaran Wilayah Persekutuan; Dr. Tan Tiong Hong, the Kepong/Sentul Member of Parliament; Rev. Dennis Dulton, the President of T.R.A.C; Rev. John Kevilpillai, the President of T.A.C; Mr. D.R. Daniel, the Educational Secretary of Methodist Schools and our very own Mr. Chan Weng Chiu, Chairman, Board of Governors and President of the OBA.

The Ceremony started off with the singing of hymns and praises by everyone present in the school hall that evening. Shortly after a thanks giving prayer, Mr. Clarence P. Wijasuriya and Mr. Sam Paranjothy, Principals of the Secondary and Primay Schools respectively., called upon Bishop C.N. Fang to dedicate the building to the glory of God. The Bishop of the Malaysian Churches then performed the act of dedication.

The arrival of Dato Samy Vellu marked the climax of the ceremony. After inspecting the Guard of Honour, comprising of the Red Crescent Members, he was escorted to the hall. Here, the Primary Sch. Choir sang the school song. This was followed by Mr. Chan's speech. After this, Mr. Wijasuriya and Mr. Paranjothy read out the Building Reports, each bringing out the problems faced by the Schools and the steps that had been taken. They also thanked the donors for their financial aid. Following this, Mr. D.R. Daniel and Encik. Annas gave a speech each.

Then, Mr. Chan called upon the Minister to open the building. Dato Samy Velly, after making an inspiring speech, drew open the curtains covering the plaques of each building.

After the ceremony, Dato Samy Vellu was entertained to an exhibition put up by the students. Following this, a buffet party was also held in the Primary hall for all the honoured guest and everybody present.

The guests slowly departed, taking with them memories of this joyous and glorious occasion.

The secondary annexe, costing $100,000 is presently housing the library, an Art room and a Geography room.

Dadah, truancy problems will worsen unless...

KUALA LUMPUR, Thurs. — The problems of dadah abuse and truancy would become worse if parents do not keep a watchful eye on their children, Minister of Works and Utilities Datuk Samy Vellu said yesterday.

"These problems are not only common among poor families but also among the rich," he said.

Parents should therefore pay greater attention to their children's activities, especially after school hours, he added.

The Minister was speaking at the opening of new extensions of the Sentul Methodist Primary and Secondary school here.

"I am stressing this point because students are most susceptible to unhealthy influences," he said.

Datuk Samy Vellu also said Parents-Teachers' Associations have an important role to play in bridging the gap between parents and the school authorities.

He suggested that the PTAs organise seminars on how parents could help their children in their studies at home.

Part of the costs the new buildings was raised through a walkathon, film shows and donations over the past five years.

The sportsmanship shown by the boys was very encouraging and due to this we emerged as the champion in volleyball, hockey, basketball and chess. We were also the runner-up in carrom, sepak takraw and table-tennis.

On behalf of the House, I would like to extend our sincere gratitude to our house mistress, Puan Kong Nyuk Ching, and to the other advisors, Miss Cheah, Mrs. Low, Mr. Hoe, Mr. Ibrahim and Mr. Mohammad Ali, for the guidance and support given. They obviously worked very hard in ensuring the smooth running of the House. I would also like to thank our athletes who sweated it out for the House on Sports Day, Singam Trophy and cross-country.

Thank you.

Annual Cross-country:

In the cross-country, we were less fortunate. Despite that, credit should be given to the good performance by our winners. The results obtained by them were above expectations and we managed to get the third placing.

Annual Sports:

This year our performance on the annual sports day was quite discouraging. We were placed fourth. Although we were placed fourth, the fighting spirit is always with us. However, the house wishes to congratulate all athletes for their performance during the annual sports.

Inter-house games:

We were the champion in Tennis, Table-tennis and Chess (Class 2) this year and we were second in Hockey and Badminton.

From the interest shown by our younger members, I am sure Green House will capture all the championship titles in the near future.

Finally, on behalf of the house members, I sincerely thank the house mistress and teachers for their invaluable guidance, encouragement and co-operation.

Motto:

Win if you can, loose if you must but always be a good sportsman.

This year our performance in the cross-country was not as good as it was in the previous years eventhough our boys tried valiantly. However, we do not intend to allow this failure to deter us in our quest for glory.

In the Inter-House games, we did fairly well. The results of the games are as follow: We were champions in Sepak Takraw and Football, runner-up in volleyball and tennis.

During the annual sports day, we were least fortunate. The performance of the House in this field was most disappointing with the House being placed last. Despite all this, credit should be given for the sportsmanship shown by our boys. From the keen interest and determination shown by our younger members, I am sure Red House will be a force to be reckoned with in future.

Finally, on behalf of the House members, I sincerely thank our House Mistress and all the teachers for their invaluanle guidance, encouragement and support which they have rendered.

Back Row : Low Kwok Keong, Lim Boon Ann (Secretary), Yap Teck Meng

This year the club started off with more members than before, showing better qualities among the enthusiasts. The court was consistently booked for practices especially during the weekends.

As usual, the club organised it's annual closed tennis championship which was held in June. The winners are:—

Singles	:	Low Eng Kee
Runner-up	:	Low Kwok Keong.
Doubles	:	Low Eng Kee & Lim Boon Ann.
Runners-up	:	Low Kwok Keong & Yap Teck Meng

We did not participate in the Inter School Competition due to the fact that the letter of invitation was not received. However, a team was sent to the tennis clinic which was held at Taman Tasik Titiwangsa during the National Sports Week to improve on the quality of the players.

Lastly, on behalf of the club I would like to thank our Teacher Advisor, Mr. James Amoz for his invaluable help and guidance and also to the committee for striving to upgrade the standard of tennis in this school, not forgetting those who also helped in the tournament as umpires and linesmen.

Not many practices were held during the year. If not, possibly, we could have done better in the M.S.S.S.competitions. The school under 18 and under 15 players came out runners up in the individual doubles, Sentul district, M.S.S.S competition.

In the O.B.A games the school team lost by a narrow margin of three games to 2 in favour of O.B.A.

In the school badminton open tournament 1980 singles, Sathiamoorthi of form 4 Arts turned out to be the champion and Thavakumar of form 5 Commerce was runner up.

In the doubles event Sathiamoorthi and Paramasivam of 4 Science 1 were the champions and runners up were Wong Kwok Hong of form 4 Commerce 1 and Seong Foo of form 3 C

This year the open tournament did not attract many entries because the form three boys were discouraged from entering as they would have to play against the much older and experienced players in form 4 and 5.

And finally on behalf of the school badminton team, I would like to thank our badminton master Mr. Liew Wai Lin and the teachers concerned for their invaluable guidance and advice which we have received.

Kekalahan dalam pertandingan pesta sepak takraw di Sabak Bernam tidak menmelemahkan semangat pemain-pemain perset MBS. Mereka berazam untuk menebus kekalahan itu suatu masa nanti.

Akhirnya masa yang dinanti telah sampai iaitu di dalam minggu sukan kebangsaan di Stadium Negara di mana semua sekolah-sekolah di negeri Selangor dan Wilayah Persekutuan mengambil bahagian yang dibahagikan kepada kumpulan Daerah di mana perset MBS di dalam Daerah Sentul.

Di dalam pertandingan minggu sukan kebangsaan ini (bermula dari 5hb. Julai hingga 12hb. Julai 1980) acara sepak takraw bukan melayu adalah acara yang menarik sekali di mana pasukan perset MBS yang mewakili Daerah Sentul berjaya memasuki pertandingan akhir bertemu dengan Daerah Pudu.

Pada jam 7.30 malam bersamaan dengan 8hb. Julai, 1980 dengan disaksikan oleh ribuan penonton dan penyokong masing-masing, pasukan perset MBS (Sentul) bertemu sekali lagi dengan pasukan Daerah Pudu di Peringkat Akhir bukan melayu antara sekolah-sekolah Menengah Selangor Wialyah Persekutuan. Dengan itu pasukan kami berjaya mengondol hadiah bersempena minggu sukan kebangsaan dengan mendapat tempat pertama antara sekolah Menengah Selangor/Wilayah Persekutuan.

Kejayaan pasukan kami ini adalah hasil usaha yang gigih dan dedikasi dari

Cikgu Zulkepli yang telah memberi tunjuk ajar serta latihan kepada kami semua. Walau pun pasukan bukan melayu merupakan tunas baru dalam permainan sepak takraw di sekolah ini akan tetapi harus dibanggakan kerana dua pemain dari sekolah ini telah dipilih untuk bermain bagi pasukan Selangor/Wilayah Persekutuan dalam bahagian bukan Melayu ia itu

Akan tetapi mereka ini tidak dapat datang untuk menjalani latihan yang diadakan itu sebab urusan pelajaran adalah penting lagi jadi dengan sendirinya digugurkan.

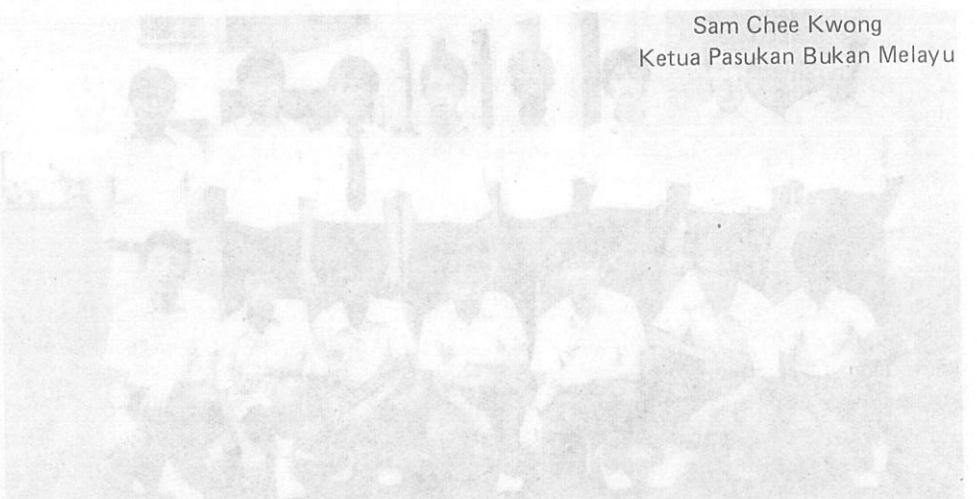

Kepada semua pemain-pemain bukan melayu pasukan sepak takraw Sekolah menengah Laki-laki Methodist Sentul telah terkenal di dalam daerah ini amnya dan di Wilayah Persekutuan keseluruhannya. Jadi untuk meninggikan lagi nama pasukan sepak takraw bukan melayu ini agar mencapai kejayan yang cemerlang lagi mestilah berlatih bersungguh-sungguh di masa akan datang. Kami mengadakan pemilihan begitu awal kerana kami telah masuk bertanding dalam pertandingan merebut Piala Raja Muda dibawah umur 16 tahun. Sebanyak 18 pemain telah dipilih mewakili sekolah. Dalam pertandingan M.S.S.S pasukan kami telah mencapai beberapa keputusan-keputusan yang cemerlang. Sebanyak 22 pemain telah dipilih dan pemilihan dibuat sekali lagi pada awal tahun ini. TABLE-TENNIS UNDER – 18

Table Tennis is getting increased response from the students from year to year. However the lack of facilities limited the scope of this tempting game. Inspite of the lack of facilities in our school, we managed to improve our game by competing with better players in various community halls.

The club started its activities in the begining of the year. This was to prepare our boys for the inter-school matches and for the school's tournament.

There were altogether 98 contestants for the school's table tennis tournament which was organised in March.

We managed to become the runner-up instead of the champion in the inter-school table tennis tournament held in May. We lost to SMJK Batu.

In the third term, we would be, having a friendly match with the Old Boy's Association for the Dudley Shield.

Since the standard of our school Table Tennis players is not good enough, I hope that the boys will practice more in the coming years. From the begining of the year I have recieved a lot of response from all the clases including the Remove classes.

And last but not least; on behalf of the whole team, I would like to express our gratitude to Mr Bustam for his invaluable guidance, encouragement and coaching and also to Mr. Tan, the sports secretary for the table tennis equipments we had used. I would also like to express my thanks to the team players for their good discipline and cooperation which they have shown from the beginning of the year.

Selection of the School team began during the 3rd term Holidays under the supervision of our coach Chew Chong Keong. A squad of 12 was finally selected to represent the school in the Sentul District championship. Before the Championship we had time to have two friendly matches to assess our standard and combination, where we won both the matches S.M.J.K. Jinjang (3 – 1) and R.M.C (3 – 1). We were given the honour of organizing the Sentul District. Championship for both the boys and girls section which was successfully carried out. The following are our school results in both the U – 15 and U – 18.

Sentul District

U – 15

M.B.S.	Sentul	Vs	Maxwell School	Won	3 – 2
M.B.S.	Sentul	Vs	Indonesia School	Lost	1 – 3

M.B.S.	Sentul	Vs	Indonesia School	Won	3 – 0

Final:–

As Champions of Sentul District the U – 18 team ventured forward in our bid to bring more glory to the school. Progressing with each game, Our team over-came obstacles and advanced slowly to the finals. Ardent supporters were always around to support the team on, rain or shine. They even travelled as far as Klang for the semifinals and final to give the ever-needed support. The following are results of games for the inter-district championship.

Inter-District Selangor Champ ionship U – 18

M.B.S. Sentul Vs Sultan Abdul Samad (Petaling District) Won 3 – 0
M.B.S. Sentul Vs Sekolah Datuk Harun (K. Selangor District) Won 3 – 0
M.B.S Sentul Vs Yoke Kuan School (Sabak Bernam District) Won 3 – 0

Final:–

M.B.S. Sentul Vs Klang high School (Klang District) Lost 0 – 3.

We were very unlucky in the finals where we lost to arch-Rivals Klang High School. Though we lost the game which was played in the good spirit of sportmanship we had two guest players from S.M.J.K., Jinjang. They were Lee Hon Tong and Ho Boon Chang, Tan Cheng Hee. One of our school player was selected to represent the Selangor U–18 team in the Inter-State Championship held in Seremban.

On behalf of the whole team, I would like to thank Encik Ibrahim, our teacher-in-charge, Mr. Tan, the sports secretary, Mr. Wong and Chew Chong Keong our coaches, the staff teachers for their contribution of a track-suit to each school team player and most ofall the ardent supporters who were always present to give that ever-needed support.

THE ART OF HOPE

hope comes first, life follows,
hope gives power to life,
hope rouses life to continue,
to expand,
to grow,
to reach out,
to go on!

hope sees a light,
where there isn't day,
hope never sounds defeat,
hope reviews ideals,
renews dreams,
revitalizes vigour!

hope scales the peaks;
wrestless with the impossible,
achieves the highest aim,
as long as man has hope,
no situation is helpless!

A TRUE FRIEND .....

I think of you in my mind ....
A person like you all want to find
A friend precious and rare
Like a diamond hard to find
Always smiling and cheerful
A friend so warm and true.

In the darkness you're the shinning light
When I am down you're my saviour
When I am alone you're my companion
It's lucky, its you I found
May our friendship be like a river
That flows forever.

M.B.S. – MY BELOVED SCHOOL

M.B.S.,

You stand there strong and unyielding,
With your tower so conspicuous,
That you've become a landmark in Sentul,
1939, the year you were born,
After all these years,
You have developed into a respected school,
One of the best schools in the country.

M.B.S.,

I've been with you for nearly eleven years now,
All through these years,
You have taught me to be a disciplined student,
To be responsible, conscientious and respectful,
Your guidance has led me to the right path,
And it will lead me to become a good citizen,
In the future,

M.B.S.,

You're not only a school to me,
You're my second home,
Although I will be leaving you soon,
But I will always remember,
The many happy and memorable days,
We have had together,
And I will cherish those moments,
And reminisce them always,
Oh ! I'm so sad and reluctant to leave you,
Because you're my beloved school,
And I'm so proud of you.

SHATTERED HOPE

It was late in the afternoon and the commercial bank was closing down for the day. The three suspicious looking characters in the black Mercedes Benz, which was parked at the parking lot opposite the bank, eyed the flock of employees leaving the bank. Among the last few persons to leave the bank were two watchmen and the bank manager.

Kwong Sze, the leader of the trio who were in the car, fished out his wristwatch from his breastpocket and glanced at it before he gave a slight nod. The two otthers began fastening silencers to their automatic pistols and tucked them into their belts. They walked towards the bank and found the entrance unlocked. They were halted by a watchman who was on duty. Kwong Sze who did the talking, asked the watchman to permit tem to see the manager with the excuse of having some business with him.

Just then, the manager, Mr. Edgar Sim, approached them unexpectedly. The would-be robbers were taken abcak by his sudden appearance. They took out their weapons and gestured to Mr. Sim to open the safe. While Kwong Chye, Kwong Sze's younger brother, was emptying the safes and keeping an eye on Mr. Sim who was opening the safe, Kwong Sze and Soon Thian were standing guard over the watchman at gunpoint.

The trio hastily left the bank and escaped in their car.

When the police were informed of the robbery, road blocks were set up in several points in the city. In addition a police party led by Inspector Harbajan Singh decided to lay an ambush for the robbers when they were informed that the black Mercedes Benz was heading towards their position. When they saw the car approaching, Inspector Harbajan instructed his men to stop the car when the car approached. The police party opened fire and asked the wide-bodied Mercedes with bullets. The Mercedes went out of control and rammed into a patrol car, and both cars exploded thus killing the trio and a detective nearby.

Fire engines were called into put out the fire. The ambush had resulted in the shattering of the robbers' hopes of striking a fortune.

THE HAUNTED MANSION

The door swung open to a big room full of cobwebs here and there. Thick dust covered the marble floor. The furniture was old. Curtains hung across the room preventing sunglight from entering the room and consequently making it dark. At the far end of the room was a staircase.

Dustin put his suitcase down onto the dusty door. Joanne followed. They had just arrived at the mansion. It was an old mansion. The lonely and serene mansion had stood there for almost eleven years. It's walls were overgrown with ivy and moss the yard was thickly overgrown with bushes and weeds. The magnificent structure was once owned by Norman De Graw, an aristocrat. Now deceased, the mansion was believed to be haunted by De Graw's ghost.

Dustin moved towards the window and pulled the curtain. A ray of sunlight burst into the room. "Ah, it's brighter now, isn't it?" he exclaimed. He was about thirty years of age. He was a fine man. He walked towards the staircase and climbed it. It was a wooden staircase. As he walked up, a step gave way and – crash! Dustin collapsed.

"Are you alright?, asked his fiancee.

"Oh, I'm fine. Just a loose step."

"Thank God! Be careful, Dus."

"Now that we have an idea of this mansion," Dustin lifted himself up and started brushing the dust off his pants. "Let's get started. You sweep the floor and dust the furniture and I'll cut the bushes and weeds out there," he said to Joanne. She was a beautiful girl, about twenty five years old. She had shoulder-length blonde hair and blue eyes.

They worked and worked until lunch time. The mansion looked a lot better without the thick jungle around it. Inside, the floor was swept clean and the furniture was dusted too.

"I'll mend the staircase now," said Dustin.

"No, we'll have our lunch," Joanne insisted.

After lunch, they worked again. Almost everything was cleaned. The mansion was now a better place to live in.

Night fell. They had to use torches because there was no electricity.

Dustin and Joanne sat down and chatted.

"Do you think that this house is haunted, Dus?" Joanne asked.

"Are you kidding?"

"But the people around here said that they can hear screams from here at midnight."

"That's only rumours. The nearest house is half a mile away. I don't think they can hear screams from that distance."

"I do hope those are only rumours. I don't think I want to hear screams in the middle of the night. Let's go to bed."

Suddenly an ear-splitting shriek echoed in the big hall. "Eeeeeeee .. . ." Joanne who was carrying the torch light, was dumbfounded and dropped the torch. Once again darkness filled the whole room.

"What was that?" she gasped in horror.

"Where's the torch light? I'm going to investigate," Dustin said in a firm voice.

"I've . . . . I've dropped it."

"Where?"

"On the floor."

"I've found it! Oh Lord, it isn't working."

"What are we goind to do now, Dus?"

"There are some candles downstairs. Hold my hand. I'm going to go downstairs."

In the dark, they felt their way downstairs and managed to get hold of a candle, lit it and a dim light showed the way.

"Eeeeeek . . . ." another scream ran across the room again.

"Oh, what is that?" Joanne's heart was thumping furiously.

"We'll go up and find out,"

They went upstairs and looked inside each room. They found nothing amiss. But in the third room, an owl was perching on a branch of a tree that overlooked the balcony. As soon as the door was opened, the bird flew away.Then a strong gust of breeze blew into the room. The curtain swayed about. Then, suddenly, drops of rain began to fall. The rain became heavier and turned into thunderstorm. There were streaks of lightning and claps of thunder could be heard. Doors creaked and banged but most amazing of all, the shrieks faded. All that the both of them could hear was the sound of rain beating against the window panes.

Early on the ensuing morning. Joanned and Dustin were seated on the dining table and eating breakfast.

"Agh . . . . have you had a good night's sleep?" Dustin asked Joanne half yawning.

"Er, well . . . how could I; with all the screams and shrieks?"

Then they went to the market. Joanne bought some eggs and two bottles of milk from an old man.

"Are you staying at the DeGraw's mansion?" Suddenly the old man asked.

"Yes, why?" asked Dustin.

"Er . . . . no, nothing," The man replied and disappeared among the crowd.

"Isn't he queer?" asked Joanne.

"Well, that's half the day!" said Joanne shutting the door behind her, as they came home. She took her things to the larder. Dustin went upstairs to mend the windows. Rain had poured in the previous night and half the floor was wet. Dustin was determined not to let it happen again. It took him less than fifteen minutes to mend it. Taking his tool box with him, he went downstairs.

Suddenly he heard a crash. A scream followed. Dropping his tool box, he shot down the staircase. He was sure that the scream came from Joanne. After all, the nearest neighbour was half a mile away.

"Oh, Jesus Christ . . . !" he exclaimed as he ran to Joanne's aid. The wall cabinet in the kitchen wall had collapsed on Joanne's legs.

"Dus, quick . . . you've got to help me . . . " Joanne uttered. She tried to heave herself up. Dustin lifted the heavy cabinet up with all his strengh.

"Okay, take your legs out," Dustin said breathlessly.

"How are you feeling?" asked Dustin.

"I'm okay. Just that my legs hurt. I'm sure they will heal if I rest for a few minutes. How that accident occured beats me." Joanne was puzzled. Then Dustin, after making sure that Joanne was okay, cleared the mess in the kitchen.

That night, Joanne stayed awake all night. She felt restless in the hot night. The pain in her leg had ceased. Dong. . . Dong . . . Dong . . . Dong . . the clock struck. Ten, eleven, twelve! It was midnight. She tossed from one side to another. But still, she just couldn't sleep. Her throat was dry. She tried to awaken Dustin but he was fast asleep. He was tired. She slipped out of bed and went downstairs to have a drink.

The moon shone brightly that night. She could see the shadows of the furniture, the staircase and the doors. She found her way to the staircase. Down she went. She looked down at the hall.

As she looked around, she suddenly saw a figure. A figure! She turned her head back towards the other side of the room. Yes, it was there. It was a shape of a man.

"Dus, is that you, Dus?" Joanne was filled with consternation. No answer.Suddenly a strange thing happened. It vanished right before Joanne's eyes! One thing was sure, that was not Dustin.

The next morning Joanne told everything to Dus." . . . and then it disappeared before my eyes," Joanne said.

"Don't be silly. It's too dark for you to see. You could have been . . . "

"No, it's true, it's true, I'll swear it's true." She interrupted, half crying. Dustin put out a hand to comfort her. "Let us prepare breakfast together", he said. And they did. They enjoyed it.

Night fell. It began to rain again. Dark clouds were looming above in the sky and heavy drops of rain showered down. Dustin lit a fire in the fire place. Joanne and Dustin sat around the fire, cuddled in a sofa. Suddenly, there was a knock on the door. Dustin ran to the door and opened it. An old man was standing there. He was dripping wet.

"May I come in?" he asked.

"Sure. Do come in." Dustin took him to the fire place. "Here, dry yourself,"

Then Joanne noticed that it was the old man she had met in the marked.

"Hey, aren't you the old man I met in the market? You were asking about this mansion."

The old man nodded. "Yes, You see, the legend has it that a Norman De Graw owned this mansion. He had a wife but she died of cancer. He then married another wife." he said.

"She was a prety lady but she was haunted by Marcia, Norman's first wife," he went on.

"She . . . ," then he stopped.

"What about her?"

"She looked like you," he said looking at Joanne, "Her name was Joan. She was so terrified by the ghost that she finally comitted suicide. Norman died after that."

"Oh, how sad," said Joanne. Then she remembered something. "I saw a figure last night at midnight. Who was it?"

"That was De Graw, looking for Joan. She died on 21st May, 1969 at 11.30 p.m. And that will be tomorrow night. On that night, screams and shrieks have been heard for the past ten years," he said. "But tomorrow it will be different."

"How different?" asked the puzzled Joanne while Dustin listened.

"Because Norman's ghost will be looking for Joan. And you look like her. And Joan will return too," he said to Joanne.

"How can we prevent that?" asked Dustin, holding Joanne's hand.

"Easy, I'll come tomorrow night," said the old man.

Joanne felt uneasy and nervous the next day. Will Norman's ghost haunt her? What about Joan's ghost? She kept asking herself.

As night fell, the old man came. He brought with him one white and two black robes, a golden goblet and a few other things. About eleven, the old man performed a strange act.

Dressed in the black robe, the old man put Joanne who was dressed in the white robe into a trance. She was laid on a bed. He lit twenty one candles on little tables and put them in such a way that the candles formed the letter V. A table was put at the foot of Joanne's bed. On the table was a goblet filled with holy water and two crosses. There was a Bible, too.

At about 11.30 p.m, screams and shrieks could be heard again. Dustin, also dressed in a black robe, was the old man's assistant. The old man chanted some strange words. Dustin was holding a candle and a silver chalice containing some water.

A sudden gust of wind blew and the curtain swayed about. The shrieks and screams were growing louder. Candlelights swayed abouth giving an eerie feeling. Suddenly, the owl flew from out of nowhere to Joanne.

"Just as I had thought! Pour the water on it!" said the old man.

Dustin followed the order and the owl gave a loud cry and flew away. Feathers and a few drops of blood were left on the floor. The shrieks grew louder and suddenly, they faded away. The wind diminished. The old man took the golden goblet and sprinkled the water over Joanne. She woke up.

"Dustin, Dustin where are you?"

"I'm here, love."

"What happened?" She looked around and rubbed her eyes.

"Oh, I'll tell you afterwards."

"Where's the old man?"

"He's here."

"Where, I don't see him."

"Not here?" Dustin turned his head. Joanne was right. The old man was not there!

After that incident, Joanne and Dustin were never haunted by any ghost anymore. They got married. Till today they were puzzled by these questions:

Where had the mysterious old man gone after he woke Joanne up?

Who was he?

Why did he want to help Joanne?

What was the owl doing that night? Was it De Graw's first wife?

Was it because of the owl, these were screams and shrieks?

No matter what, Joanne's life was saved and that's all that Dustin cared. Those questions were best left unanswered.

MISSION IMPOSSIBLE

The sun was shining fiercely. Our skin was burnt till dark brown in colour under the hot sun. It was on the 6th. of August, 1966, when my few friends (Maxmilian, John and the other, I can't really recall his name) and I set off to South Africa. We were missionaries from Britain and we were sent to search for the 'Devil's Eye' which was said to be the biggest diamond in the world and that it gave power (magical power) to the holder.

Though our mission was impossible, my purpose of going there was different. I had been searching for my brother fot the past six years. He was then having the same mission that we were having and he was said to be last seen in a small town in the west of South Africa. I kept all this a secret from my group.

We brought along some canned foot, containers of water, our clothings, sleeping bags, cooking pans and some necessary things. A shout "All Checked" and we started on our jorney. We were very determined that we would find the 'Devil' Eye' but to me, my brother was much more important. Only God could be sure of our luck and faith.

Marching through the hot desert was my first experience, I was wet all over covered with sweat and I was also panting but the other three seemed to be quite used to the hot sun although they were looking a bit tired. I tried to sing to look a bit more cheerful but words got stuck in my mouth.

At last, evening drew and there was a shout'Ohe! jam satis" (which means"Hold! Enough now") we found a spot to rest. We put all our things down and lit a fire. I was wondering whether and when we would reach our destination.

The night was very still and quiet. The stars were twinkling way up high. I was still asking myself, where is my brother, will I find him? I kept repeating it for sometime. Then I decided to break the silence.

"Maxmilian sir, when do you think we will reach our destination?" Iasked.

"That, I cannot exactly tell, Loke Yueh, it depends on us," was the answer.

"Depends on us . . . . . then, ah . . . . . do you think we will find that 'Devil's Eye'?" I continued, clearing my throat and what I actually meant was my brother.

"Hmm . . . . It's hard for me to answer but we were sent here to do so," he said. I interupted again, "Do you think there is anyone else having the same mission as us?" I asked hoping for a positive answer.

"Ha . . . ha . . ha! In this hot desert? No!"

I was shocked by the answer. No one, looking for the 'Devil's Eye' but I was certain there was someone. I thought for quite sometime and I broke the silence again.

"I don't think we will reach our destination. It is an impossible one," I said.

But there was no answer, everyone was asleep already.

Dawn came at last, we packed our things and set off on our journey again. The map showed us that we had to cross a valley and some caves before reaching our destination. It really seemed impossible that we would reach there.

Time passed quickly. We travelled for some time before catching sight of a dark thing. It was a cave. We went in.

Our food was running short at that time. Our water was almost finished. We were hoping to find a well or something which had water in it.

As we entered the cave, we could feel the coldness of it. It was dark in there. I lit a match, and I cought sight of my few friends. Then the match went out. When I struck the second match, I realised that I was staring at a human skeleton and a piece of cloth. I picked the cloth up, and saw some wordings on it. Then the match went out again. When I struck the third match, I managed to glance at the words. They were in red and blurred. They had been written with blood. The match went out again. I struck the fourth matchstick and I managed to read somewhat. The on-lookers were just as anxious to hear what I read.

It said:

Gary Ong,
5th. November, 1960

To whom it may concern,

This piece of cloth is torn from my shirt. The pen I'm using is a branch and the ink is my blood.

I'm writing to those who are looking for the 'Devil's Eye'. I'm writing in hope that you will not go on looking for it. It is impossible. So please take heed of my advice. I cannot tell you the reason for my ink is running dry. . . . . "

I was crying, tears rolled down my cheeks and I spoke to Maxmilian. "Maxmilian, there were some missionaries before us and this . . . this is my . . . brother," I cried louder. Tears kept on rolling down my cheeks. I could not describe my emotions. I just felt very sad.

September, 11, 1966. Yes, I'm back here already. My journey was terrible. I can't describe it but I know I'm back here safely. My mission was an impposible one.

THE MISSING MESSAGE

It was ten o'clock in the morning. Jonathan and Jennifer Hart were lying on their stomachs and staring through a clump of high grass at the Madden house. The Madden house stood all by itself among marshes and shrubs. There were no neighbours within a shouting distance. The house had been built more than a hundred years ago by a man named Jeremiah Maiden who had made a fortune in lumber. He was tight-fisted with his money and was always afraid that somebody would rob him. He built his house in the plains for that reason. But he didn't live there long because, one night, someone broke in and shot him dead.

Since then, the Madden house has been reputed to be haunted. The people in the town say that Madden's ghost prowled round the house looking for his murderer. One of them, Evelyn Barnes, had said to the Harts, "I can hear a scream – "Cut his throat, cut his throat" – from the house every night. I reckon someone has been using that place as a hide-out." And that's what made Jonathan and Jennifer go nosing around the house.

Two people were outside the house – a short, roundish man, about forty-five years old, and a boy.

"That must be the boy," said Jennifer.

Then, suddenly, the boy climbed up a clothes-line and, holding a parasol in his right hand, he walked across the wire. He did this several times before jumping down. The fat man patted his back.

"Hey, he's a tightrope-walker," Jonathan exclaimed. "But what is he doing here?" Then, he saw a man crouching behind a bush. The man was dressed completely in black. He was less than twenty yards away from them but he wasn't looking in their direction. He was holding a pair of binoculars to his eyes and they were trained on the boy who was now alone.

"Well, well. So, we aren't the only ones who are observing the house," said Jennifer.

"He apparently hasn't seen us yet."

The boy was now walking only a few feet away from the man. Now the man in black was rising slowly to his feet. In one hand he had what seemed to be a plastic bag. Suddenly, he dashed towards the boy and rapidly pulled the bag over the boy's head. Jonathan quickly ran and grabbed the man and both of them fell down. The man was snarling a barrage of foreign words while trying to free himself. Finally, he succeeded and ran away. Jennifer, meanwhile, was freeing the boy.

"There goes the first lead to this mystery," said Jonathan, disgusted.

Then the fat man came running out of the house. "What happened, Reno?"

"A man tried to grab me. This lady freed me," he said and turned to Jennifer.

"Thank you very much. My name is Bimbo and this is Reno. Who are you?"

"I'm Jennifer Hart and this is my husband, Jonathan."

Then, Bimbo, looking very worried, asked, "Did you get a good look at the man who attacked Reno?"

"Well, no," Jennifer replied. "But I know he is a foreigner, about six feet tall and he limps slightly. He also smokes cigars – I could smell it."

As she finished giving the description, Reno cried out, "It's the Killer, Bimbo! It's the Killer!"

"Yes, the description fits him."

"Otto must have sent him," Reno said. "They have tracked me down. The Killer will tell Otto where I am. What are we going to do?"

"Hey, what's all this about?" Jonathan interrupted.

"Come into the house. I'll tell you," Bimbo said. He felt sure that Jonathan and Jennifer could be trusted.

As they walked into the house, they heard a screech. "Cut his throat, cut his throat."

"What. . .what's that?" Jennifer gasped in horror.

"Oh! That's Kiki, our parrot," Bimbo explained. He showed them to his wife, Miranda, a dark-haired, plump woman. Then he began to talk and, from what he said, Jonathan and Jennifer found out that they used to work for a Fenton Circus, a circus owned by Reno's parents. One day, a certain Otto Kleeton, a cousin of Reno's father, turned up and was given a job by Mr. Edwin Fenton, Reno's father. In a short while, Otto was in charge of the cash end of things. Then, he began stealing from the daily takings and falsified the accounts to cover up his thefts. He stole so much that the circus got into financial difficulties. Otto then offered the money he had stolen to bail the circus out of its difficulties in excahnge for part-ownership of the circus.

Mr. Fenton could do nothing but agree although he knew Otto was a crook. He thought Otto might even kill him to get full control of the circus. One day, Mr. Fenton got hold of some information about Otto that would incriminate him in a larceny case. But he decided to withhold the information from the police and only told Bimbo about it. He also told Bimbo that if anything should happen to him, he was to take the information, which he had written down and kept in a secret place, to the police. But Mr. Fenton and his wife were killed in a car accident before the could tell Bimbo where the information was hidden.

Bimbo then started hunting for the secret paper that contained the information but he couldn't find it anywhere. He didn't have much time to look though, for with Edwin Fenton gone, the first thing Otto did was to sack Bimbo and Miranda. Otto also became Reno's legal guardian. He tried to stage an accident to kill Reno but failed. Reno then fled from the circus and went to Bimbo's house. He brought with him only a few clothes and a small trunk which was given to him by his father. Bimbo, being sure that Otto would come after Reno, bought the Madden house beacuse it seemed like a perfect hideout.

"Do you mind if we see the trunk?" asked Jonathan.

"Go ahead," Bimbo said. "But you won't find anything there. Reno and I have gone over everything dozens of times."

He was right. There were heaps of things in it – bits of old circus costumes, scrap books, photograph albums, but not even the smell of secret paper. With Reno's permission, Jonathan took the trunk home and drilled small holes in the corners of the trunk off the brass handle and carefully sank a fine drill through it but it turned out to be solid metal.

The next day, Jonathan and Jennifer once again visited the Madden house.

"Reno," Jonathan said, "I'm convinced that your father did not hide the paper in the trunk. Now, think hard. Did you bring any other item of your father's with you when you left the circus?"

"No," said Reno. "That was all."

"But he must have had other possessions," Jennifer said.

"Oh, yes. Plenty of stuff. All the circus equipment, the animals and. . . . . "

"I mean personal things," Jennifer interrupted. "For instance, did he have a desk?"

"Yes," Reno said. "He used it everyday, working on his circus business and his own private things. Otto is using it now."

"Where's the circus now?" Jonathan asked.

"Middlebury," Bimbo replied.

"What does this desk look like?" Jonathan asked Reno.

"It's just an ordinary flat-topped desk. Two rows of drawers. Each drawer has a clown's head as a handle. It's my father's trade mark.

In an hours' time, Jonathan and Jennifer were searching through the drawers of the desk in the office of Fenton Circus. It was a small one-storey building. Jonathan Jonathan and Jennifer had managed to slip into the building unnoticed. No one was around.

"Quick, somebody's coming," Jennifer said suddenly. "Get one of those programme sheets. Maybe we'll be lucky and find Otto's photograph there." She grabbed one of the programme sheets and a pencil and both of them quickly ran out.

Jennfier was right. There was a photograph of him there. He had a wide thin lipped mouth and small dark eyes.

They were on the highway when Jonathan noticed a blue car passing them. Otto was driving it and the Killer was beside him. They had fishing rods and a basket at the back of the car. However, Jonathan wasn't sure if it was Otto or not because the windows were darkly tinted.

When they arrived at the Madden house again, Bimbo came running to them as they were stepping out from their car.

"Reno's gone! Reno's gone!" he shouted. "He was outside playing when suddenly I heard a shout. When I came out, Reno was gone and there was this blue car driving away."

"So it was Otto after all," Jonathan said.

"Where's the highway between Middlebury and Westwood?" Jonathan asked. They were inside the house with a map spread out on a table.

"Here it is," Jennifer traced the road with the pencil she had taken from Fenton's office. "Lake Carmine's between it. They must've gone there. Didn't you notice the fishing rods at the back of their car?"

"Yeah. Lake Carmine would be a fine place to hide. There's nothing much there except for a few cottages and fishing lodges. Jonathan said. Then, he gave a kind of gasp and stopped talking. He looked at the pencil Jennifer was holding and said, "Isn't this the pencil you took from Otto's desk?"

"Yes, Jennifer said. "Why?"

"Look here," he said. He held out the pencil for Jennifer to see. Stamped in red on the side of the white pencil was: Sunset Lodge, Knob Point, Lake Carmine.

In a few minutes time Jonathan and Jinnifer together with Bimbo were at the Sunset Lodge. They found Reno ties to a chair with his legs bound securely with a leather belt. Bimbo kept watch outside while Jonathan tried to free the boy.

"Hurry, Jonathan," Jennifer said. "Cant't you get the belt unsfastened?" Jonathan tugged harder.

"I'll cut it with the knife," Jonathan said.

"Don't do that," Reno said. "That's my father's belt."

Desperately, Jonathan pressed one thumb against the clown's head on the buckle and pulled on the leather part. The clown's ears gave way and then, suddenly, the front of the brass handle snapped open. It was hinged on one side. And tucked inside was something white – a piece of papaer.

"Jennifer," Jonathan said. "Look!"

Jennifer pulled the paper out and read it. "It's the missing message!"

"There's no time to read it thoroughly now," Jennifer said. "But I've seen enough. Otto entered the US Illegally. He was born here and isn't a citizen either. He also has a criminal record."

The next minute, all of them were in Jonathan's car.

"Hurry!" Reno said. "Otto and the Killer will be coming after us,"

Bimbo shook his head. "Don't worry," he said. "They won't catch us. In fact, I don't think they'll even come after us."

"Why not? I just saw them running after us."

Bimbo grinned. He put his hand in his pocket and brough out a brownish, circular piece of metal.

',While I was waiting for you, I lifted the distributor cap and removed the motor from their car," he said. "They can't get their car started no matter how hard they try,"

They went to the police and Otto and the killer were arrested immediately. Reno was then the sole owner of the Fenton Circurs. And what's more, Bimbo and Mirinda were back at the circus again.

"Oh, Jonathan," Jennifer said, "I'm glad everything is over."

Jonathan put on his wide grin and said, "Yes, everything is over,"

Jennifer was right. Everthing was over. I reluctantly switched off my television set. Another "Hart to Hart" programme was over.

REPENTANCE

The cool sea breeze blew gently, bestowing a feeling of freshness and relaxation. The beautiful rays of the sun could be seen falling on the scintillating water. The sky was a charming orange in colour, depicting the wonders of sunset. The rhythm of the waves could be heard, broken every now and then by sharp roars as they crashed against the rocks. In a few moments, the immense ball of golden splendour would disappear in the horizon, making way for the moon to take over. The clouds slowly changed to a lighter hue and gradually dispersed. Darkness began to creep in. At this moment, a figure could be seen walking along the beach, silhouetted against the fast fading light. It continued walking for sometime, then stopped.

Chris stood there firm as a rock, his eyes gazing straisht into the far horizon.The expression on his face was forlorn and miserable. His hair was in a mess, his shirt was dirty and his pair of slacks was torn at the knees. He stood there trying to sort out the mingled thoughts in his head. His mind was full of excruciating and conflicting thoughts which he was trying to find solutions to. Then he lowered his body and sat down on the sand reminiscing his past.

Since he was a teenage boy, he had developed an obstinate character. He ignored the advice given by his parents and teachers. He wanted to do things his own way. He was determined to have his independence and lead a life of his own. He hated school, therefore, he always played truant. He would then mix around with some of his hooligan friends and go about disturbing the peace in the vicinity. Soon they got bored with this and turned to gambling instead to pass their time. As the days went by, he found himself addicted to this atrocious and degrading activity. Gambling had become more or less indispensable to him. He began to indulge in all kinds of gambling, including horse-betting and playing cards. Slowly, he became a heavy gambler, and a poor one too.

One day, he lost heavily while gambling. He made a mistake by borrowing a large amount of money from a bad hat.He thought his luck would change and he would win. Unfortunately, the opposite happened. He lost evey penny he had. He owed the bad hat four thousand dollars and was given one week's time to pay the debt. He became frightened and went back to his parents to obtain the money. Being the proud man he was, his father refused to give him a cent and furthermore chased him out of the house angrily. Heart-broken, he then turned to his friends for help, but none of them would offer him any money because they did not trust him any more. The reason was that he still owed them quite an amount and had not paid them back yet.

Chris got up and started walking again. His mind was deeply troubled. Evidently he was very scared. Two more days ahead would be the deadline for him to pay the debt and still he was penniless. He began to pace up and down, thinking of a solution. Suddenly he turned and looked at the sea. He paused for a moment, then started walking to towards it, staring unblinkingly at the dark sinister expanse of water that seemed to invite him into the world of forget fulness . Yes . . . this could be the solution he was searching for, the solution to end all his troubles. Suicide was what he was thinking of.

As he kept on walking towards the sea, the water began to rise, first submerging his ankles, then his knees and eventually his thighs. He was in waist deep water when he suddenly felt afraid to die. He stopped instantly, standing there motionless. After a while, he began to retreat. He was not ready to die yet. Suddenly the word 'rob' crossed his mind. Yes, he could get the money by robbing. Although he knew it was a dangerous thing to do but he had no choice. He had to do it and he must do it fast, too.

The next morning saw him walking into a jewellery store, pretending to be a customer. When he saw the watchman was not on his guard, he rushed at him, hit him with an iron rod and grabbed his shotgun. He then pointed the shotgun at the proprietor and ordered everyone in the store to lie face down on the floor. He then emptied one of the showcases into his bag. As he tried to leave the store, two police-cars arrived. The police chief ordered him to stop, but he ignored the warning, fired a shot at the police-cars and continued running. He had barely run five steps when he was shot in the legs. He was captured.

He was tried a few weeks later and was found guilty of robbing the jewellery store and inflicting injuries on the watchman. These two offences caused him eight years in jail. During his days behind the iron bars, he had begun to regret his past doings. At times, he was so sad he knelt down and cried pitifully, praying to God for forgiveness. One day, as he was praying to God, one word rang in his head with surprising clarity. That word was 'Repentace.' He was determined to repent and work hard in jail. After serving for four years, he was granted release for good behaviour. From the day he walked out of jail a free man, he turned over a new leaf and was received with love by his parents when he returned home.

THE LEGEND OF 52 nd STREET

Once upon a time, there was a street called 52nd Street Brotherhood. The Brotherhood consisted of: Danko (the Brains), who acts as though he is not involved when a fight is going on and then, unexpectedly, attacks the enemy from behind; Philippe Cerezo, who together with Christo (the Worm), always takes the lead in a fight and who are also the prime targets of the enemy; Cheeco Onnoono (the Chicken), who has chickened out of every fight; Luciano (the Fuzz), whose association with the law permits him only to make indirect assaults at the enemy; and, last but not least, Farentino, the fat cow who always stands behind Philippe and Christo during a fight so he won't have to face the onslaught. Their head honcho was the Stranger, Billy Hoello (stranger because no one had seen nor heard of him before).

With the creation of the 52nd Street Brotherhood, other groups also began to form. One of them, a group with an undecided name (it's either the 11th Street or VGV), occupied a small lane right next to the 52nd Street. But due to their proximity, they were totally over-shadowed by the powerful Brotherhood.

A short distance away lay the territories of the rival groups, the 11th Street and the 13th. Street, comprising of a number of small kids and one very tall one. Due to their distance from the 52nd Street, they skirmished among themselves unaware of the existence of the Brotherhood. Then, one day, the Brotherhood decided to make their presence known to the ignorant groups. They striked unexpectedly at both the groups when both were involved in thier own fracas. And in the melee that ensued, they emerged as victors. Thus, a triangular war arose with the outnumbered Brotherhood conducting small but successful raids against its rivals.

But, after some time, the war turned cold and all the groups involved, including the 52nd Street Brotherhood, went into a state of lethargy. It was this period that saw the rise of the 08 faction (the name was very apt for its members — a bunch of eight nothings). They attacked the disunited members of the Brotherhood and, thus, more or less, became the dominant power on the 52nd Street.

But the legendary 52nd Street Brotherhood is not dead yet and the beat (—ings) goes on.

ADVERTISEMENTS

In the modern world of competition in every aspect of economic activity, advertisements play an important role in the sale of a product. Almost every commodity or service that a man needs is advertised to such an extent that a great part of the expenses of a commodity is spent on advertisements.

Advertisements have, thus, become a necessary part of our life. If we do not have advertisements, then we would be more ignorant of and would lose the chance of purchasing a better commodity or service offered by modern industry. Advertisementas are necessary not only from the point of view of the manufacturer, but also from that of the consumer. Thus, while trying to sell goods to people who do not know anything about it, the art of advertising also tries to make people prefer one commodity or certain goods to another. In achieving this, advertisements can tune the particular tastes of people. For instance, shirts of the same quality may be differentiated only because there is the trivial attraction of a pretty packing or an enchanting trade name.

Advertisements also play an importang part in the life of our society by serving as sources of information. For instance, an advertisement for a beverage may inform the public about vitamins and the food value it contains. Advertisements inform us about the value of certain drugs in certain kinds of pain killers or of the progress of medical science or industry. Thus, advertisements inform the educated public on almost all the main aspects of life — from one's diet and body to electronics and other sciences.

When advertisements are persuasive, we need to be on guard. Such advertisements aim at attracting and diverting the attention of the consumer from one product to another. Sometimes one wonders whether the moral question of truth should be taken up when an advertisement swears that a particular product is the best in the world. In fact, many advertisements break the bonds of truth and resort to false statements. Such advertisements are a danger to society because they misinform the public and play on their ignorance. A consumer is even in danger of being misled by upholding as good what is in fact a second or third rate product. Thus, they create a wrong impression in the minds of the public and give them false values of worthless products.

On the other hand, advertising has become a new industry. People, nowadays, look for information and better displays. Even the windows of shops are decorated so that people prefer to go window shopping for an outing. Advertisements have also given a stimulus to the graphic arts, students who have talent in art can make use of their talents in this new sphere of activity. The subject of advertising is so scientifically treated nowadays that there are schools and colleges where techniques of advertising are conducted.

Newspapers, advertisement boards, radio, television, posters in buses and trains, films and shop windows have become the mass media of great advertising activity. While people hold that it is irritating to see and hear advertisements we cannot deny the fact that advertisements have come to stay as a part of our everyday life.

KISAH DI KELAS SAYA

Bacalah kawan satu cerita,
Kisah tentang kelas saya,
Baik buruk saya berkata,
Kalau salah jangan ketawa.

Tingkatan 2B kelas saya,
Ia terletak di tingkat dua,
Murid-muridnya berbilang bangsa,

Puan Noormah guru darjah,
Pening kepala hampir pecah,
Kami selalu membuat salah,
Sampai dia naik marah.

Kong Wah duduk di penjuru,
Matanya besar tetapi kuyu,
Dia tidak membaca buku,
Bila ujian dia meniru.

Seorang budak bergelar "penyu",
Cita-citanya menjadi guru,
Budak kecil dia mengganggu,
Mukanya tebal tidaklah malu.

Ketua darjah seorang India,
Rupa dia sangat tua,
Kacaknya boleh banding didunia,
Sayang sedikit giginya dua.

Chee Seng di depan saya,
Badanya kecil berempat mata,
Suka bercakap kisah cinta,
Selalu dia dicubit telinga.

Seorang murid bernama Sarjit,
Badannya gemuk perutnya buncit,
Memakai serban berlilit-lilit,
Setiap hari basikalnya pancit.

Kok Wah sangat kacak,
Tetapi kurus seperti cicak,
Dia selalu bermuka lawak,
Menjadi kelas semua tergelak.

Itulah pantun yang saya karang,
Mencipta pantun tidaklah senang,
Pantun saya bukan sebarang,
Kalau tersinggung janganlah berang.

UNTUK MU . . . . . .

Kau tahu sayangku . . . .
Semalam ada insan yang hatinya telah sepi,
Sepi kerana ia telah ditinggalkan,
Lemaslah ia dalam lautan kehibaan.

Tahukah kau sayangku . . . . . .
Semalam juga hati ini kembali damai,
Damai dalam pelukan ketenangan,
Walaupun suatu masa dulu ia telah dihancurkan,

Ketahuilah olehmu wahai sayangku . . . . .
Hati ini akan hancur,
Aku kerap kau pertinggalkan,
Tapi sepi itu ku renangi dengan ketenangan.

Namun untuk mu sayangku . . . . .
Ku relakan hati ini untuk bersendirian,
Kini aku bebas dari rangkulan kasih,
Moga tiada kutemui lagi kehancuran.

Untuk insan yang hatinya sepi,
Usah meratap dalam kerinduan,
Usah bersedih dalam kesepian,
Usah menangis dalam kehancuran.

Kini telah tiba saatnya hati ini kembali riang,
Kerana ketenangan rapat setiap waktu,
Tatkala aku menyembah Tuhan . . . . . .

BERKAT DOA IBU

Pagi itu aku bangun seperti biasa, iaitu pukul 7.30 pagi. Waktu inilah biasanya aku bangun semasa cuti sekolah. Aku langsung tidak berasa cemas atau bimbang hari itu walaupun aku tahun bahawa keputusan S.P.M. akan diumumkan. Sejak dulu, sebelum aku mengambilnya, harapanku untuk lulus hanyalah 50-50 sahaja.

Aku sedar bahawa di sekolah aku bukanlah seorang pelajar yang cerdik, malah kadang-kadang malas membuat kerja-kerja sekolah. Pernah guru darjah memarahiku kerana tidak menyiapkan kerja yang diberinya dan hampir-hampir pula hendak dihantarnya aku kepada Guru Besar. Mujurlah aku cepat meminta maaf darinya, maka hatinya yang panas ketika itu sejuk semula.

Walau bagaimanapun sejak akhir-akhir sebelum mengambil peperiksaan ada juga aku mengulangkaji pelajaranku, itupun atas desakan ibu. Ibu sentiasa mendesak aku supaya belajar dan memberi kepercayaan kepadaku bahawa aku akan lulus. Selepas sembahyang ibu sentiasa mendoakan supaya aku mendapat kelulusan setidak-tidaknya Pangkat 3. Aku tahu bagaimana gigihnya ibu berusaha untuk menyekolahkan aku sehingga setinggi ini. Ayah, dulu lagi sudah menyuruh aku berhenti dengan alasan supaya aku dapat menolongnya menoreh dan mengerjakan sawah, tapi ibu menentang dan berkeras untuk menyekolahkan aku. Akhirnya ayah mengikut kata-kata ibu. Ah! Betapa besarnya harapan ibu terhadap ku.

Sesudah aku mandi dan bersiap aku terus ke dapur. Ketika itu adik-adikku sedang bersarapan dan aku terus saja mencelah. Ayah telah dulu lagi berserapan dan sedang bersandar di kerusi dengan cerut di mulutnya. Pagi itu ibu menyediakan goreng pisang yang memang menjadi kesukaanku. Ketika bersarapan aku membisu sahaja kerana aku diajar supaya jangan berbual apabila makan atau pun bersarapan oleh ibuku sejak dari kecil lagi.

'Kau tak pergi tenguk keputusan kau An? tiba-tiba ayah bersuara apabila dilihatnya aku berlengah-lengah saja. 'pergi' jawabku ringkas. 'Engkau fikir engkau lulus? Tanya ayah lagi, 'Entah' sekali jawapanku ringkas saja. 'Entah jawab kau!' meninggi suara ayah kali ini, 'engkau ingat duit yang aku bagikan engkau tu senang-senang boleh dapat.' 'Ah', ayah begitu marah sekali mendengar jawapanku tadi. Begitulah perangai ayah yang lekas panas baran apabila tidak kena pada hatinya.

'Sudahlah, bapaknya, kan budak tu belum pergi tenguk lagi, manatau lulus atau tidak, tapi kita berdoa sajalah supaya lulus. 'Tiba-tiba emak menyampuk. Ah! Bersyukur aku kerana ibu lekas menyampuk tadi, kalau tidak tentu merah lagi telinga aku mendengarnya. Aku terus saja bangun dan pergi mendapatkan basikal burukku.

Ketika itu hari sudah pukul 9.00 pagi. Tentu sekali keputusan itu sedang diumumkan. Aku mengayuh basikalku perlahan saja. Basikal yang telah banyak berjasa kepadaku lebih kurang empat tahun. Tak pernah terlintas di kepalaku untuk mencucinya walaupun aku tahu badannya begitu kotor sekali.

Sesampai saja aku di pintu pagar sekolah, aku lihat sudah ramai kawan-kawanku yang telah mendapatkan keputusan mereka. Aku terus ke tempat meletak basikal. Disitu kawanku, Onn sedang mengambil basikalnya. 'Apa macam Onn, lulus?' kataku sejurus selepas meletakkan basikal. 'Lulus, Pangkat 2'. jawabnya girang dan tersengih yang menampakkan giginya yang rongak di depan. Onn, memang aku tahu adalah lebih cerdik dariku.

Aku terus ke pejabat dimana keputusan itu dikeluarkan Kini barulah aku terasa gementarnya untuk mengambil keputusanku. Teringat di telingaku bagaimana bentak ayah di rumah tadi. Kalau aku gagal sudah tentu ia akan memarahiku. Tahu-tahu sajalah duit $110 bukan senang nak dapat, tambah macam keluarga aku ini. Ah! Betapa siksanya aku nanti dan merahlah telinga aku mendengar maki-hamun ayah.

Tiba-tiba aku sudah sampai di muka pintu pejabat. Seluruh tubuhku menggigil. Rasa gentar menjalar di seluruh tubuhku. Aku hairan mengapa baru sekarang perasaan itu mendadak sedangkan di rumah tadi bagai tidak ada apa-apa pun. 'Hai engkau An, nak tenguk keputusan ke.' Tiba-tiba ada suara memanggilku. Oh! Rupa-rupanya abang yang menjadi kerani itu memanggilku tadi. Abang itu memang kenal betul dengan aku kerana aku selalu ke pejabat mengambil buku kedatangan kelasku. 'Ya, bang.' jawabku. 'Engkau lulus, dapat Pangkat 2' ia memberitahu, walaupun aku belum sempat bertanya lagi. Mendengar saja kata-katanya tadi seluruh tubuh badanku lemah dan perasaan gembira mendadak pula menggantikan perasaan gementarku tadi. Oh! Alangkah gembiranya ibu nanti apabila ia tahu bahawa anaknya telah lulus dan bagaimana pula perasaan ayah nanti. Aku benar-benar bersyukur kepada Illahi dan adakah ini dari berkat doa ibu. Oh! ibu, aku akan melutut di kakimu nanti. Aku beruntung mempunyai ibu seperti mu. Mungkinkah ini satu perangsang supaya aku lebih gigih dan tekun dimasa-masa akan datang. Ya, aku berjanji akan melakukan itu mulai hari ini.

PENYESALAN .....

Aku bergegas-gegas mencari pintu nombor enam untuk ke Kota Bharu. Kota yang telah 5 tahun aku tinggalkan. Setelah menunjukkan tiket kapalterbangku kepada pegawai M.A.S. di pintu itu, aku perlahan-perlahan bergerak ke pesawat yang sedang menunggu. Aku dengan longlainya menaiki tangga kaplterbang. Sampai sahaja aku di pintu pesawat, aku diberi senyuman manis oleh pramugari M.A.S. yang jelita. Aku di ucapkan selamat datang. Aku mengambil tempat di tepi jendela untuk melihat keindahan bumi Malaysia dari udara. Kapalterbang mula bergerak meluncur laju ke udara melanggar kepulan-kepulan awan. Aku termenung sendirian mengingatkan kembali kesah hidupku.

Nun jauh di desa yang permai yang menghijau dengan sawah-sawah padi yang luas terbentang, lahirlah seorang anak 20 tahun yang lalu. Dibesarkan sebagai anak seorang petani yang tiap-tiap hari bermandikan peluh dan bergelumang dengan lumpur. Mula bersekolah ketika berusia 7 tahun di Sekolah Melayu beratapkan zing. Mula-mula bersekolah aku berasa sungguh seronok maklumlah ianya perkara baru dalam hidupku tetapi lama kelamaan aku berasa jemu dan bosan ke sekolah. Aku selalu sahaja ponteng sekolah. Ketika aku memasuki sekolah Menengah perangaiku bertambah teruk. Aku jarang ke sekolah dan kalau tak silap, aku rasa kedatangan ku ke sekolah boleh di hitung dengan jari dalam sebulan. Akbatnya aku gagal dalam peperiksaan S.R.P ku.

Setelah gagal, aku duduk-duduk sahaja di rumah. Ada kalanya aku menolong ayahku di sawah atau menjual getah di rumah Taukeh Leong.

Pada suatu hari aku di suruh oleh ayahku mengeluarkan lembu dari kandang dan menambatnya di tengah-tengah sawah di tepi tali air. Aku pun mula menarik kerbau ke sawah. Di pertengahan jalan aku berjumpa Taukeh Leong yang memberiku wang jualan getah ayah semalam. Setelah aku menambat kerbau, aku pergi ke dusun Pak Ali dan memetik buah rambutan. Apabila matahari hampir terbenam, aku pulang ke rumah. Aku benar-benar terkejut bila melihat ayah berdiri di tangga dengan sebatang kayu api di tangannya. Belum sempat aku menaiki tangga ayahku telah melibas aku dengan kayu api itu. ALLAH saja yang tahu betapa sakit dan pedihnya belakangku. Segala pakaianku dilempar kannya ke tanah. Aku diusirnya pergi kerana kerbau yang aku tambat itu telah hilang.

Malam itu aku benar-benar kecewa. Aku diusir keluar dari rumah. Aku ke tepi jalan dan mula berjalan perlahan-lahan memecah kesunyian malam yang gelap pekat itu. Embun jantan mulai menitik. Aku tidak sedar bahawa aku telah sampai ke Kota Bharu keesokan paginya. Aku mencari-cari lori balak atau lori ikan untuk aku tumpang ke Kuala Lumpur. Akhirnya aku berjaya menumpang sebuah lori Pak Jusuh yang tinggal di Kuala Lumpur. Pak Jusuh kerjanya tiap-tiap hari ialah menghantar ikan ke Kota Bharu. Aku duduk menumpang di rumah Pak Jusuh. Dengan wang tiga puluh ringgit dan Sijil peperiksaan aku sampai ke Kuala Lumpur. Baru 5 hari di sini saja, duit belanjaku hampir hal . Aku mula mencari pekerjaan. Merata-rata pejabat yang aku masuk semuanya tidak menerima sijil aku kerana ianya terlalu rendah. Sekarang baru aku sedar betapa pentingnya pelajaran itu. Akhirnya cuba punya cuba, aku berjaya mendapat kerja sebagai pelayan pejabat di sebuah firma swasta. Waktu siang aku bekerja dan pada waktu malam pula aku bersekolah di sebuah sekolah persendirian untuk menduduki peperiksaan S.R.P. Setelah sepuluh bulan bertegang mata mengulangkaji pelajaran, aku berjaya lulus peperiksaan S.R.P. kemudian aku lulus S.P.M. dan akhirnya S.T.P. Kejayaan aku mungkin disebabkan kesedaran yang mendalam tentang betapa pentingnya pelajaran. Dan sekarang aku bekerja sebagai seorang Pegawai Eksekutif di Kementerian Pelajaran.

Tiba-tiba aku tersentak apabila juruterbang mengumumkan bahawa pesawat yang aku tumpangi akan sampai ke Pengkalan Cepa dalam masa 5 minit lagi. Tak sabar rasany aku hendak bertemu dengan ayah dan ibuku untuk meminta maaf terhadap mereka. Aku bergegas-gegas turun dari pesawat itu dan menahan sebuah teksi untuk ke kampungku. Kampungku telah banyak berubah. Kini sudah ada jalan tar. Tiba saja aku di perkarangan rumah, ku lihat ramai orang di atas rumah. Pada fikiran ku mereka semua hendak menyambut aku pulang tetapi macamana mereka tahu aku hendak balik.

Mereka semua menyambut aku di pintu dengan linangan air mata, bukan air mata gembira tetapi air mata sedih. Ibuku telah meninggal dunia setelah 5 tahun menderita merindui aku. Aku seharusnya tidak pergi dahulu kerana pada waktu itu ayahku bukanlah berniat hendak mengusirku. Perkataan itu terkeluar dari mulutnya kerana mengikutkan perasaan marahnya. Di sebabkan aku, ibu menderita. Aku benar-benar menyesal tidak dapat bertemu ibu di saat-saat akhir hidupnya. Aku yang bersalah. Penyesalan tidak berguna lagi. Ibu telah pergi meninggalkan aku dan ayah buat selama-lamanya.

PENTINGNYA PERPADUAN DIKALANGAN RAKYAT MALAYSIA

Malaysia adalah merupakan sebuah negara yang didiami oleh penduduk yang terdiri daripada berbilang bangsa yang menganut berbagai-bagai kepercayaan, mempunyai kebudayaan dan kesenian yang tersendiri mengikut asal ketuturnan dan kaum masing-masing. Walaupun di dalam keadaan yang sedemikian penduduk Malaysia masih lagi mampu hidup di dalam keadaan harmoni dan muhibbah serta saling hormat-menghormat di antara satu sama lain. Faktor inilah yang menjadikan Malaysia sebagai sebuah negara yang sentiasa berada di dalam keadaan aman, bahagia dan berkecuali. Malaysia boleh dijadikan suatu contoh yang baik memandangkan walaupun ia terdiri dari berbilang bangsa namun ia tetap berada di dalam keadaan aman dan makmur di sebabkan oleh perpaduan antara kaum di dalamnya.

Satu daripada kepentingan perpaduan di kalangan rakyat negara ini ialah semasa memperjuangkan kemerdekaan Malaysia. Ketiga-tiga kaum terbesar iaitu Melayu, China dan India berganding bahu sama-sama tampil ke arena politik telah bersatu hati berpadu tenaga, bahu membahu membenteras penjajahan Inggeris pada masa itu mereka menganggap bahawa hanya Malaysia sahajalah tempat mereka menumpukan taat-setia demi untuk mengembalikan kemerdekaan dan kedaulatan negara ini walau pun terpaksa mengorbankan nyawa. Dengan semangat yang membara di hati penduduk Malaysia yang berbilang bangsa akhirnya negara Malaysia dapat mengembalikan kedaulatan dan kemerdekaannya.

Setelah kemerdekaan dicapai, Malaysia terpaksa menghadapi pula masalah dalam negara yang sungguh sulit, iaitu zaman darurat. Malaysia terpaksa mencari jalan bagi menghadapi dan menentang pengganas komunis yang seringkali menggangu keamanan dan ketenteraman negara yang dicintai. Sebuah kerajaan yang dipilih oleh rakyat di bawah pimpinan yang teramat mulia Tengku Abdul Rahman Putra Al-Haj dengan sokongan rakyat yang berbilang bangsa itu akhirnya dapat menghapuskan pengganas-pengganas tersebut secara berdikit-dikit dan keamanan telah dapat dicapai semula. Kejayaan ini adalah hasil usaha perpaduan rakyat di Malaysia pada masa dahulu dan sekarang ini juga.

Sewaktu Malaysia sedang hebat menikmati keamanan dan ketenteraman, suatu ancaman baru pula wujud yang kahbarnya datang dari negara jiran iaitu Indonesia di bawah pimpinan Almarhum bekas Presiden Sukarno yang telah melancarkan konfrantasi atas negara ini kerana menentang penubuhan Malaysia. Sekali lagi rakyat Malaysia yang berbilang bangsa itu bersatupadu dan telah berjaya melenyapkan ancaman tersebut. Peristiwa ini juga dapat mengukuhkan lagi betapa pentingnya perpaduan di kalangan rakyat Malaysia.

Penduduk di negara luar merasa amat janggal mengapa Malaysia sebagai sebuah negara yang terdiri dari berbilang bangsa ini dapat menyelesaikan masalah Bahasa Kebangsaanya dengan mudah sekali! Pada hal negara-negara yang lebih dahulu merdeka dari Malaysia masih lagi belum dapat menentukan Bahasa Kebangsaan negara mereka. Ini berdasarkan kepada semangat saling mengerti, hormat-menghormati dan muhibbah di antara kaum-kaum di Malaysia. Mereka berpendapat bahawa melalui Bahawa Kebangsaan sahjalah negara yang teguh dan bersatu dapat dibentuk dengan senang. Kalau perpaduan diantara kaum tidak wujud, sudah pasti masalah Bahasa Kebangasaan tidak dapat diselelsaikan dengan mudah.

Sebagai kesimpulannya nyatalah perpaduan kaum di Malaysia ini penting dan benar-benar diakui oleh semua. Hasil dari perpaduan kaum inilah yang membolehkan Malaysia mencapai kemerdekaan, menghapuskan pengganas komunis serta melenyapkan konfrantasi dan menetapkan satu Bahasa Kebangsaan. Semoga perpaduan kaum ini akan berterusan demi untuk kemakmuran dan kesejahteraan negara yang dicintai, Malaysia.

AKU, GURU DAN SEKOLAH

AKU,

Berbekalkan sesuap nasi disamping buku,
Aku melangkahkan kaki menuju gedung ilmu,
Bersama harapan ibunda dan pertiwi,
Dan kini aku perhambakan diri,
Pada ilmu dunia dan akhirat,
Demi mengejar citaku,
Setinggi gunung,
Seluas lautan,
Supaya dapat ku pertinggikan,
Bangsa dan,
Nusaku.

GURU,

Kau berjuang demi masa depan anak muridmu,
Walau seribu satu tingkah dan laku,
Dirimu ibarat lilin membakar diri,
Otak dan keringatmu turut bersatu,
Namun jasamu disanjung jua,
Usaha dan pengorbananmu terlalu suci,
Wang ringgit tak dapat mengganti,
Pada usaha dan baktimu,
Hanya yang dapat kuberi,
Segunung terimakasih padamu guru.

SEKOLAH,

Kau berdiri tegak bersama perasaan megah,
Tanpa jemu dengan kehadiran kami,
Pelajar-pelajar penimba ilmu,
Walaupun kau hanya batu-batu,
Tapi tanpamu fikiran kami buntu,
Dengan kehadiranmu dapat kami bersatu,
Dalam mengejar cita dan ilmu,
Walaupun kau hanya batu-batu,

APAKAH YANG TELAH TERJADI KEPADA ANAK-ANAK MUDA SEKARANG?

Apakah yang telah terjadi kepada anak-anak muda sekarang? Pertanyaan seperti ini merupakan satu-satunya pertanyaan yang seringkali keluar dari mulut orangramai setelah menyaksikan tingkah laku pemuda-pemudi sekarang.

Memanglah benar yang anak-anak moden di zaman moden ini telah banyak berubah tertumanya dalam segi kelakuan dan moral. Mereka terpengaruh dengan corak-corak kehidupan barat yang penuh dengan perbuatan-perbuatan yang berakhlak rendah itu.

Sudah tidak boleh dinafikan lagi dikatakan yang kebanyakan pemuda-pemudi sekarang menjadi ketagih kepada dadah dan terlibat dalam kegiatan-kegiatan anti-masyarakat seperti merompak, merampas harta benda orang, menyeludup dadah dan banyak lagi perbuatan-perbuatan yang dikritik masyarakat.

Keadaan ini tidak harus dibiarkan berlanjutan kerana anak-anak muda sekaranglah yang akan menjadi pemimpin masyarakat dimasa depan. Sebaliknya ia harus dikaji dengan teliti dan mencari jalan untuk mengurangkannya, walaupun masalah ini amatlah sukar untuk dibasmikan sama sekali.

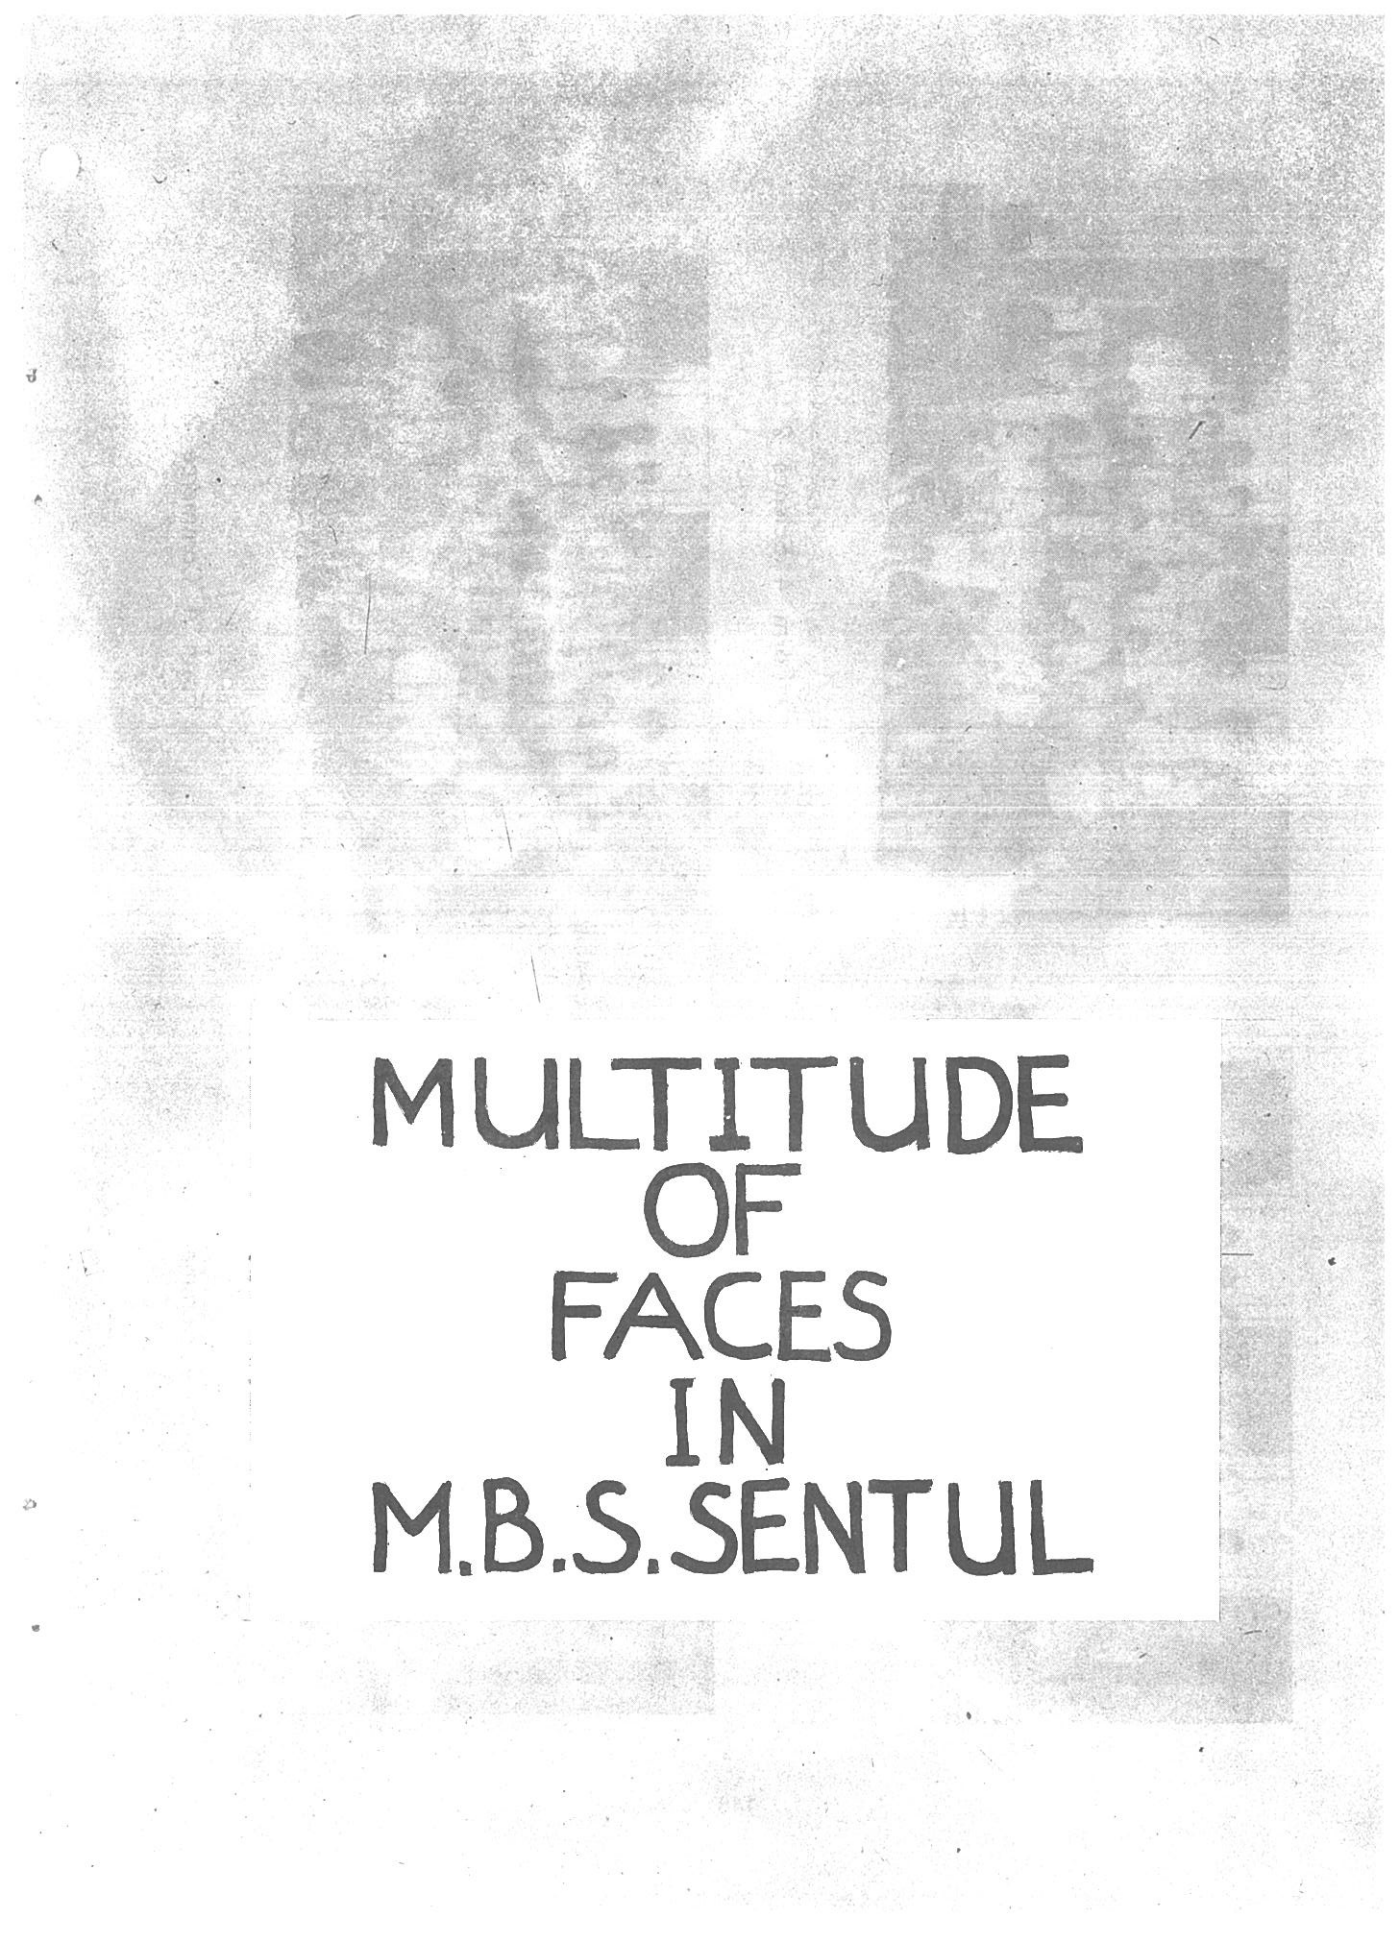

Masalah pengangguran yang kini semakin bertambah teruk, juga merupakan satu-satunya faktor yang mendorong kaum muda sekarang ke jalan yang salah. Anak-anak muda yang keluar mencari nafkah hidup selepas menghabiskan persekolahan mereka, mendapati sukar untuk mendapatkan pekerjaan oleh kerana peluang untuk mendapatkan pekerjaan semakin berkurangan setiap tahun. Masalah seperti ini memaksa mereka mencari nafkah hidup secara haram seperti merompak, merampas harta benda orang, melibatkan diri dalam kegiatan pelacuran dan mengedar dadah.

Kegiatan menyeludup dan mengedar dadah merupakan satu kegiatan yang amat merosakkan masyarakat. Anak-anak muda yang mempunyai masa depan yang cerah akan musnah dengan begitu sahaja jika dipengaruhi oleh dadah. Selain daripada melakukan kegiatan-kegiatan yang anti-masyarakat itu, moral dan disiplin di kalangan anak-anak muda sekarang juga telah jauh berubah jika dibandingkan dengan di masa silam.

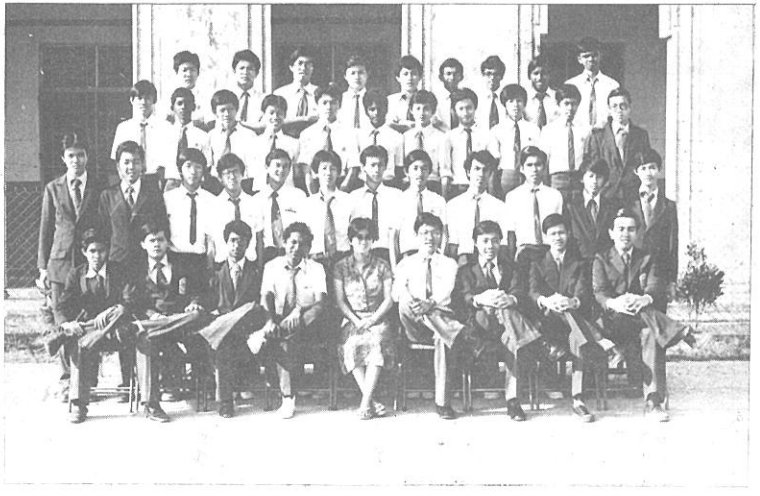

Masalah keruntuhan moral yang mula-mula dihidapi oleh dunia barat, sekarang telah pun merebak ke dunia timur. Amalan seperti menghormati orang-orang tua telah di anggap kaum muda sekarang sebagai suatu adat tradisi lama yang tidak perlu diamalkan oleh mereka lagi. Mereka juga mulai melakukan apa saja yang mereka suka dengan sesuka hati dan membantah nasihat-nasihat orang-orang tua yang dianggap sebagai tidak berfaedah lagi.

Untuk mengurangkan masalah yang semakin hari semakin serius ini, ibubapa-ibubapalah satu-satunya pihak yang memainkan peranan penting, bahkan terpenting sekali. Setiap manusia di dunia luas ini ketika dilahirkan adalah bersih dari segala dosa dan keburukan. Hanya selepas itulah mereka terdedah kepada berbagai-bagai keadaan yang terdapat di sekeliling. Jadi terpulanglah kepada ibubapa-ibubapa di sekeliling untuk mendidik dan membimbing anak-anak mereka ke jalan yang betul kerana langkah yang pertama itu selalunya merupakan langkah penentu.
